Reforming Africa's Institutions Ownership Incentives And Capabilities:

Sub-Saharan Africa's Development Challenges O. Kimanuka, 2009-01-05 The first analysis of the 1994 genocide written by a Rwandan national Kimanuka examines Rwanda's survival from being a failed state looking at how leaders' bold decisions and the commitment of the Rwandan people led to reform programs and economic recovery Wider conversation of Africa's general development challenges are also explored

Party Politics and Economic Reform in Africa's Democracies M. Anne Pitcher, 2012-05-07 Argues that the interaction of formal institutions and the quality of democracy explain patterns of private sector development across Africa

Reforming Africa's Institutions Steve Kayizzi-Mugerwa, 2003 There is not a single African country that did not attempt public sector reforms in the 1990s Governments no longer see themselves as sole suppliers of social services frequently opting for partnerships with the private sector Efficiency and choice have entered the language of the planning and implementation units of Africa's line ministries while privatization is no longer the controversial subject it was a decade ago There have also been moves towards more open and democratic governments

Reforming Africa's Institutions looks at the extent to which reforms undertaken in Sub-Saharan Africa in recent years have enhanced institutional capacities across the breadth of government To what extent have reforms been internalized and defended by governments The authors also look specifically at the impact of public sector reforms on these economies and pose the question whether ownership can be attained when countries continue to be heavily dependent on external support The volume is presented in three parts The first focuses on the issue of reform ownership on the issues of governance the political economy of reform ownership and the contradictions inherent in using aid as an instrument for enhancing domestic reform ownership Part two examines the nature of incentives in the African civil service and the reforms undertaken in recent years to raise public sector efficiency in Africa The third part discusses issues related to institutional capabilities in Africa and how they have been affected by the reforms undertaken in the 1990s including privatization and movement towards political pluralism

Civil service reforms in Pakistan Abdul Wajid Rana, 2019-11-12 Effective governance is one of the key challenges for both developing and developed countries Governments today are increasingly encountering complex and cross-cutting issues such as economic and financial volatility internal and external conflicts growing social tensions adverse demographic trends climate change vulnerabilities weak regulatory regimes huge infrastructure and service delivery gaps state and elite capturing and sustaining rule of law Faced with growing criticism of ineffectiveness of state institutions undermining country's economic social and political development because of weakening capacity of public officials to pace up with emerging challenges there is a renewed interest in reforming the governance and reforming the civil service

Rethinking Development Challenges for Public Policy K. Hanson, G. Kararach, T. Shaw, 2012-04-05 Covers topical issues for Africa's development economics and politics of climate change water management public service delivery and delivering aid The authors argue that these issues should be included in the post MDG paradigm and add an important voice to recent moves by academics and practitioners to engage with each other

Institutions and Democracy in Africa Nic Cheeseman, 2018-02-22 Historically African political institutions such as constitutions legislatures and judiciaries have been seen as weak and vulnerable to manipulation leading some to claim that the continent is institutionless However recent developments including the consolidation of presidential term limits in a number of countries demonstrate that this depiction is no longer tenable By drawing attention to how institutions can shape the practice of politics this book demonstrates that electoral commissions economic regulations and systems of land tenure are vital to our understanding of contemporary Africa A series of cutting edge contributions from leading scholars explain how the rules of the game shape political developments across the continent from Kenya to Nigeria and from Benin to South Africa In chapters that cover bureaucracies constitutions elections political parties the police and more the authors argue that a new research agenda is required if we are to better understand the process of democratisation

Privatization and Alternative Public Sector Reform in Sub-Saharan Africa K. Bayliss, B. Fine, 2007-11-12 it is increasingly apparent that the privatization experiment in sub Saharan Africa has failed This book shows that the state is set to dominate service delivery for the foreseeable future in much of the region and that the public sector must be considered as a viable policy option for the delivery of water and electricity

The Challenges of Democratic Governance in Nigeria's Fourth Republic Stanley Naribo Ngoa, Farooq A. Kperogi, Eghosa E. Osaghae, 2024-10-14 This book is a collection of scholarly essays from some of Nigeria's most notable social science scholars on the character contours and peculiarities of democratic practices in Nigeria's fourth attempt at constitutional rule after years of brutally absolutist military regimes The Fourth Republic began in 1999 and continues to this day It is coterminous with the restoration of constitutional rule after 16 years of sustained military rule which represents the longest stretch of democratic self rule since Nigeria won independence from British colonialism in 1960 The chapters in this book contain scholarly insights into the pitfalls of governance institutional dysfunctions and foundational woes that continue to threaten the vitality of the Fourth Republic Contributors to the book offer critical theoretical lenses to gaze at the decline in democratic citizenship weakening of faith in the promises of democracy loss of critical media engagement with the state and deterioration of the socio political fortunes of the state in Nigeria

African Development Report 2005, 2005-12-22 The African Development Report 2005 is the seventeenth annual survey of economic and social progress in Africa The Report provides comprehensive analysis of the state of the African economy examining development policy issues affecting the economic prospects of the continent The African Development Bank Group is a regional multilateral development finance institution the members of which are all of the 53 countries in Africa and 25 countries from Asia the Middle East Europe North and South America The purpose of the Bank is to further the economic development and social progress of African countries individually and collectively To this end the Bank promotes the investment of public and private capital for development primarily by providing loans and grants for projects and programs that contribute to poverty reduction and broad based sustainable development in Africa The non concessional operations of the Bank are financed from its ordinary capital resources In addition the Bank s soft window affiliates the African Development Fund and the Nigeria Trust Fund provide concessional financing to low income countries that are not able to sustain loans on market terms Ownership Leadership and Transformation Thomas Theisohn,Carlos Lopes,2013-07-04 The third and final in a series this text bridges the conceptual foundations of capacity development and the difficulties and practical realities in the field It demystifies the process of capacity development to make it more user friendly The book has two parts The first shows how long standing development dilemmas can be turned into opportunities for capacity development and societal transformation It proposes a set of principles to guide the search for context specific approaches as the norm and based on these default principles the authors explore relevant issues in comprehensible stages through a capacity lens The second part is a compilation of experiences and lessons from around the world to showcase promising initiatives and innovative solutions It forms a casebook of insights and good rather than best practices on how development stakeholders can turn development dilemmas into opportunities tailored to the needs of their societies Development Finance in the Global Economy T. Addison,G. Mavrotas,2008-04-17 A positive chapter has begun in finance for poor countries Yet progress remains tentative This book looks at how to make international finance better serve the needs of poor countries and poor people It contains contributions by economists and political scientists who have been at the centre of the international policy debate Learning to Compete in African Industry Banji Oyelaran-Oyeyinka,2017-11-28 This book examines the institutional roots of the persistent differences in economic performance of firms industries and countries in Africa It draws attention to the role of institutions in supporting technical change and shows how technological progress is central to competitiveness in a global context The role of initial conditions such as levels of literacy and natural endowment the structure of industry and resource endowment are also emphasized With its focus on how institutions shape systems of innovation this book makes a unique contribution to the debate about African development Politics Peter Ferdinand,Robert Garner,Stephanie Lawson,2018 An unrivalled combination of exceptional clarity and analysis Challenges of African Growth B. J. Ndulu,2007 Poverty in Africa is largely the outcome of slow growth With the region hosting 10 percent of the world s population but a staggering 30 percent of the world s poor the challenges it faces are enormous but NOT insurmountable The message of this book is clear poverty eradicating development in Africa is possible In fact there are indications that Africa is at a turning point and there is growing momentum among front runner economies in the region toward higher and sustained growth This study challenges African countries and their development partners to consolidate and continue this momentum and to exploit the advantages of the continent as a latecomer particularly in innovation and in drawing lessons from successful export led growth experiences in Asia and Latin America Challenges of African Growth identifies opportunities constraints and strategic choices that African countries face in their quest for achieving the growth necessary for poverty alleviation More important the study provides a broad menu of strategic options for ensuring not only that countries embark on a growth path but also that the growth is shared and sustainable. The critical areas for action rest on four pillars: the investment climate, infrastructure innovation for increasing productivity and competitiveness, and institutional capacity. Foreign Direct Investment Yingqi Wei, V. N. Balasubramanyam, 2004-01-01. This book consists of detailed case studies of foreign direct investment (FDI) in China, India, Ireland, Malaysia, Mexico, and Sub-Saharan Africa, providing a critical review of the determinants and impact of FDI on growth and development, employment, technology transfer, and trade. The expert contributors examine a range of controversial issues, including the contribution of the relatively large volume of FDI in China to its growth, whether India should fully liberalise its FDI regime, and the impact of Mexico's membership of NAFTA on the volume of FDI it has attracted. Malaysia's economic policies, which appear to have attracted relatively large volumes of FDI but failed to generate the hoped-for transmission of technology and skills, are also questioned, along with the role of corruption in limiting the contribution of FDI to achieving social goals in Sub-Saharan Africa. The impressive record of the Irish Republic in attracting and harnessing FDI to development objectives is examined closely, and provides a detailed analysis of policies likely to promote efficient utilisation of FDI. From Conflict to Recovery in Africa Tony Addison, 2003-02-13. Revitalizing private sectors 4. Transforming states. Conclusions. For a list of contributions, go to the full text area of this record. The Millennium Development Goals Fantu Cheru, Colin Bradford Jr., 2013-07-18. This volume provides an up-to-date and detailed tour d'horizon of the exciting diversity of new proposals and mechanisms currently being discussed in order to raise the necessary financial resources to make the achievement of the Millennium Development Goals a reality by 2015. If the MDGs to halve global poverty and significantly improve the conditions of life of the world's poor are to be met on schedule, putting in place the requisite funding is an essential component. The economists in this volume, from WIDER, UNDP, and other leading institutions, have contributed their analyses as part of the Helsinki Process on Globalisation and Democracy, a high-level multi-stakeholder initiative to develop new approaches to global problem-solving, a global economic agenda, and human security. Key resource flows examined include ODA, foreign direct investment, remittances by migrants, commodity export prices, and new ideas to secure sustainable debt relief, including SDRs, debt cancellation, revaluation of IMF gold reserves, debt arbitration, and other proposals. The statistically rich analyses are presented in the context of the complicated trends in global inequality, the incidence of poverty, and the impacts of globalisation. The editors conclude with a thought-provoking set of ideas about the political requirements for effective global economic governance aimed at achieving the MDGs that the world community set itself at the start of the new millennium. The empirical data in this volume and survey of key new ideas for resource mobilisation will be invaluable to all those concerned with global economic governance, including scholars, diplomats, NGO lobbyists, and students studying development economics. ENSO Signal Network Newsletter, 2003. Handbook on China and Developing Countries Carla P. Freeman, 2015-04-30. This Handbook explores the rapidly evolving and increasingly multifaceted relations between China and developing countries Cutting edge analyses by leading experts from around the world critically assess such timely issues as the China model Beijing Decentralization in Ethiopia Taye Assefa, Tegegne Gebre-Egziabher, 2007 The 1991 government change in Ethiopia ushered in a centralised system of governance aimed to bring about harmony and cooperation between different groups and to promote local self rule It has proceeded in two phases 1991 2001 centred on creating and powering National Regional Governments termed mid level decentralisation Further powers were devolved in 2001 through the District Level Decentralization Program and Urban Management Profram This volume brings together studies by the Forum for Social Studies and others with the aim of identifying knowledge gaps for further research and to generate debate on the issues in Ethiopia The study is in two parts a literature review seeking to document existing studies and highlight research gaps and field work which involved a rapid assessment of eight weredas and two kifle ketemas in Addis Ababa The other three studies are synopses of master theses submitted to the Institute of Regional and Local Development Studies of Addis Ababa University
