Safe At School:

Creating Safe Schools for All Children Daniel Linden Duke, 2002 Creating Safe Schools for All Students draws on the latest research law and expert judgment to offer educators a comprehensive program for designing safe schools This book addresses several theoretical perspectives through which readers can come to understand school safety It also provides a set of standards that educators can use to evaluate their schools and then develop practical and systematic plans for ensuring orderly and caring learning environments Attention is given to the distinction between preventing violence and promoting safety For educators or educational administrators Safe at School Carol Silverman Saunders, 1999 Covers school safety problems such as guns drugs sexual harassment lead in the water class trips and much more Also lists organizations that can be contacted for more information Can We Ensure Safe Schools? Fern Aefsky, 2019-02-15 This book was written as a guide to practitioners with input and strategies from police authorities mental health professional and educators School safety is an issue for school communities across the country Collaboration with all stakeholders provide comprehensive strategies that can be applied to all schools and districts Feeling Safe in School Jonathan Cohen, Dorothy L. Espelage, 2020 Jonathan Cohen and Dorothy L Espelage two leading authorities in the fields of school climate and prevention science have gathered experts from around the globe to highlight policy and practice recommendations for supporting children and adolescents to feel and be safe in school Featuring analysis and commentaries from experts in public health psychology and school improvement Feeling Safe in School addresses social emotional and intellectual aspects of safety as well as physical safety The experts offer candid and unique insights into the way eleven different countries view and define what it means to feel safe in school the types of goals and strategies that are being used to promote safety and whether and how measures are being used to gauge progress Interest in supporting the physical as well as the social and emotional safety of students as a prerequisite for learning and healthy development is now a global phenomenon Feeling Safe in School adds to the understanding of the possibilities for increasing student safety by examining the experiences of other countries that are tackling this issue Creating Safe Schools Franklin P. Schargel, 2014-03-21 Students parents and school staff deserve a safe learning environment Yet recent headlines of violence bullying and drug abuse have shown the vulnerability of schools In this timely and important resource leading expert Franklin Schargel provides leaders teachers counselors parents and students with the necessary information to address and diminish safety problems in schools Creating Safe Schools explores the background and data about the severity of safety issues facing schools today and also provides the strategies and tools to address them Clearly organized according to issue this book allows for easy reference and is packed with tools activities checklists strategies and tips Coverage includes Bullying Driving Drugs Alcohol and Tobacco Internet Safety Violent School Incidents Sexual Activity Suicide Truancy Suspension Youth Gambling This important resource will help educators prevent violence from happening in their schools and provide children with a safe and secure learning environment Helpful

Leadership Strategies for Safe Schools Elizabeth A. Barton, 2009-04-14 This second edition guides principals through the process of creating a proactive student centered school safety program and offers new case studies vignettes and strategies

Safe at School-- a Public Promise, 1995 Restoring Safe School Communities Brenda Morrison, 2007 Restoring Safe School Communities a whole school response to bullying violence and alienation introduces a whole school approach to addressing the problems of bullying and violence in schools Author Brenda Morrison proposes a continuum of responsive and restorative practices for building safe school communities The first most proactive level of practices aims to develop all students social and emotional competencies to enable students to resolve their differences in caring and respectful ways The second level of practices widens the circle of care around the participants Typically this level of response occurs when the problem has become more protracted or has involved and affected a larger number of people and involves other members of the school community stepping in to assist in the resolution of the conflict or concern The third and final level of practices involves the participation of an even wider cross section of the school community including parents guardians social workers and others who have been affected This tertiary level of intervention is normally only used for serious incidents within the school Morrison explains the thinking behind the suggested responses and shows how they can be implemented by practices such as a responsible citizen program and restorative justice circles and conferences

The final report and findings of the safe school initiative : implications for the prevention of school attacks in the United States, 2002 Ensuring Safe School Environments Mary Susan Fishbaugh, Gwen Schroth, Terry R. Berkeley, 2003-01-30 Ensuring Safe School Environments Exploring Issues Seeking Solutions presents research findings and information about school violence with a focus on strategies for increasing school safety Based on a special topical issue of Rural Special Education Quarterly the original journal articles have been rewritten to address safe schools from the perspective of suburban and urban as well as rural environments Topics include the frequency of violence in these different settings violence as it directly impacts school administrators strategies for preventing and addressing violence at both the school and individual levels and ways to work with the community both in and out of schools Part I focuses on issues In Part II solutions that have been used to deal with youth violence are offered for readers to consider including chapters on effective conflict management practices behavioral support plans school community relations the development of a caring school community as a way to decrease tendencies toward violence and a model which demonstrates an in practice state wide program designed to assist in the development of a community focused school Each chapter concludes with discussion questions and a case study to enhance understanding of and reflection on the issues surrounding school violence The text is intended as supplementary material for any course preparing school administrators Presenting both research and practice the text can be a guide for practicing school administrators in their search for ways to insure the safety and well being of the students whom they serve as well as a resource for individuals in other community based human service agencies who deal with school violence Safe at School ,1999 Oversight Hearing on Safe School Study United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Economic Opportunity,1978 Safe Schools Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. General Subcommittee on Education,1973 Leadership for Safe Schools Philip J. Lazarus,Michael L. Sulkowski,2023-07-20
