Answering the 8 Cries of the Spirited Child David Arp, Claudia Arp, 2010-05-11. Besides feeling ready to pull their hair out, parents of spirited children are often convinced that their spirited child would behave better if only Mom or Dad were smarter, wiser, or more patient. In their new book on difficult children, child development experts Claudia and David Arp remind readers that there's no such thing as a Super Parent. Having a spirited child can make parenting more intense and sometimes overwhelming, but you can begin to recognize the eight most common cries for help and what they really mean: Look at me, Did I do good, You're not listening, Let me do it my way, You can't make me anymore, I hate you, I can do it myself, and I am a big kid already. The Arps, with humor, compassion, insights from Scripture, and the latest in research, show you ways to develop win-win strategies for nurturing your not-so-compliant child. Help just arrived.
