play that revolutionized basketball and provided the greatest moments in the sport's history from Michael Jordan's legacy defining jumpers to Ray Allen's mastery and more. It's hard to believe that there was a time when the jump shot didn't exist in basketball. When the sport was invented in 1891, players would take set shots with both feet firmly planted on the ground. Defenders controlled the sport; the pace was slower and games would frequently end with scores fit for a football field. It took almost forty years before players began shooting jump shots of any kind and sixty-five years before it became a common sight. When the first jump shooting pioneers left the ground, they rose not only above their defenders but also above the sport's conventions. The jump shot created a soaring offense, infectious excitement, loyal fans, and legends. Basketball would never be the same. Rise and Fire celebrates this crucial shot while tracing the history of how it revolutionized the game, shedding light on all corners of the basketball world from NBA arenas to the playgrounds of New York City and the barns of Indiana. Award-winning journalist Shawn Fury obsesses over the jump shot, explores its fundamentals, puzzles over its complexities, marvels at its simplicity, and honors those who created some of basketball's greatest moments. Part history, part travelogue, and part memoir, Rise and Fire bounces from the dirt courts of the 1930s to today's NBA courts and state-of-the-art shooting labs, examining everything from how nets and rims affect a shooter to rivalries between shooting coaches to how the three pointer came to rule the game. Impeccably researched and engaging, the book features interviews and profiles of legendary figures like Jerry West, Bob McAdoo, Ray Allen, and Denise Long, the first woman ever drafted by the NBA, plus dozens more revealing the evolution of the shot over time. Analyzing the techniques and reliving some of the most unforgettable plays from the greats, Fury creates a technical, personal, historical, and even spiritual examination of the shot. This is not a dry how-to textbook of basketball mechanics; it is a lively tour of basketball history and a love letter to the sport and the shot that changed it forever.

Workshop on Public Land Acquisition and Alternatives, 1981 Gunfight at Cold Devil Ralph Cotton, 2018-10-21. At Cold Devil, Arizona, Ranger Sam Burrack and Federal Marshal Pete Summers apprehend two wanted men, one of whom has posted a ten thousand dollar bounty on the lawmen's heads. When Sam is dry gulched and Pete is wounded, a pretty young gypsy and her family nurse bring the lawmen back to health. Then Sam sets out to recapture his prisoners and make the town of Cold Devil hotter than hell. The ranger stepped inside the door, his big Colt in hand, his eyes making a quick sweep across the room. "I'm acting Federal Marshal Sam Burrack," he said loud enough to be heard but in a calm, even voice. "I'm arresting Jack Spain for participating in a stagecoach robbery in Arizona Territory last fall. He paused his thumb across the hammer of his Colt, ready to cock it. And I'm U.S. Marshal Pete Summers," said a voice from against the bar. A young man stepped back to the middle of the floor, swinging a sawed-off shotgun up from under his long riding duster. Looking straight at Ned Rose, Summers asked, "Does everybody understand us?" Preview of Ralph Cotton's Blue Star Tattoo at the end of this book. Sabio's Redemption Ralph Cotton, 2018-10-21. As the ranger's eyes searched, his hands deftly opened the Colt, dropped the one empty cartridge to the dirt, replaced it, and snapped the chamber shut. He slipped the Colt into his tied-down holster but loosely knowing that he might suddenly require its use again Some parts of hell even the devil didn't travel alone he told himself His gaze moved warily outward through the raging swirl of white heat surrounding the town out across the harsh Mexican badlands After a moment he took the folded piece of paper from inside his riding duster and opened it as he kept an eye on the empty dusty street From between two adobe buildings a skinny hound slunk out through the dust picked up something from the dirt and raced away with it Dallas Fadden you're marked off the ranger murmured to himself under his breath He looked at the list of names on the paper thieves rapists arsonists assassins wanton murderers degenerates all the worst of the worst his captain had proclaimed them With a pencil stub that he pulled from under the brim of his pearl gray sombrero he drew a straight line through Fadden's name On the ground at his feet Fadden lay at the end of a long streak of bloody dirt where his trail of lawlessness had ended A bullet hole gaped in the center of his back The thumb of his right hand had been clipped off by the same single bullet before it bored through his heart Seeing the bloody stub Sam looked off in the direction the skinny hound had taken and realized what had caused the animal to venture out before the smoke and dust had even settled Sam folded the paper and put it away
