Love In Literature Studies In Symbolic Expression:

Love in Literature Wallace Fowlie,1948 Modernism and the Theatre of the Baroque Kate Armond,2018-12-31
Redrawing the conventional map of Victorian Poetics A History of Gay Literature Gregory Woods,1998-01-01 Account of male gay literature across cultures and languages and from ancient times to the present It traces writing by and about homosexual men from ancient Greece and Rome through the Middle Ages and Renaissance to the twentieth century gay literary explosion It includes writers of wide ranging literary status from high cultural icons like Virgil Dante Marlowe Shakespeare and Proust to popular novelists like Clive Barker and Dashiell Hammett and of various locations from Mishima s Tokyo and Abu Nuwas s Baghdad to David Leavitt s New York It also deals with representations of male male love by writers who were not themselves homosexual or bisexual men The Verbal Empires of Simon Vestdijk and James Joyce E.M. Beekman,2022-07-25 Love as Passion Niklas Luhmann,1998 Originally published Cambridge Mass Harvard University Press 1986 Improper Modernism Daniela Caselli,2016-12-05 In her compelling reexamination of Djuna Barnes s work Daniela Caselli raises timely questions about Barnes biography and feminist criticism identity and authority and modernist canon formation Through close readings of Barnes s manuscripts correspondence critically acclaimed and little known texts Caselli tackles one of the central unacknowledged issues in Barnes intertextuality She shows how throughout Barnes s corpus the repetition of texts by other authors from Blake to Middleton and by Barnes herself forces us to rethink the relationship between authority and gender and the reasons for her marginal place within modernism All her texts linked as they are by correspondences and permutations wage a war against the common sense of the straight mind Caselli begins by analyzing how literary criticism has shaped our perceptions of Barnes showing how the various personae assigned to Barnes are challenged when the right questions are posed Why is Barnes such a famous author when many of her texts remain unread even by critics Why has criticism reduced Barnes s work to biographical speculations How can Barnes s hybrid eccentric and unconventional corpus be read as part of literary modernism when it often seems to sever itself from it How can an oeuvre reject the labels of feminist and lesbian literature whilst nevertheless holding at its centre the relationships between language sexuality and the real How can Barnes s work help us to rethink the relation between simplicity and difficulty within literary modernism Caselli concludes by arguing that Barnes s complex and bewildering work is committed to a high modernist notion of art as a supremely difficult undertaking whilst refusing to conform to standards of modernist acceptability American Poetry: The Modernist Ideal Clive Bloom,Brian Docherty,1995-09-12 Tracing its origins back to Walt Whitman the Modernist tradition in American poetry is driven by the same concern to engage with the world in revolutionary terms inspired by the concept of democracy vital to the American dream But this tradition is not confined to a few writers at the beginning of the century instead it has been an enduring force extending from coast to coast and of varying hues Imagist Objectivist Beat International in flavour but shaped by the language and conditions of America this poetry continues to speak to us today This collection of specially commissioned essays brings together leading scholars and critics to define the American Modernist canon providing a range of perspectives helpful to all those interested in this fascinating poetry Whitman's Queer Children Catherine A. Davies, 2012-04-19 The first full length study to explore the idea of a gay epic in American poetry Claude Debussy and the Poets Arthur Wenk, 1976-01-01 Paul Dukas wrote about Debussy that the strongest influence he experienced was that of the poets not that of the musicians This book undertakes to demonstrate that thesis by studying Debussy's settings of songs by Banville Verlaine Baudelaire Mallarmé and Debussy himself A particular insight may be gained in the comparison of six poems by Verlaine set to music by both Fauré and Debussy The book includes a poetic musical analysis of Debussy's Prelude to the Afternoon of a Faun based on the poem by Mallarmé

Articulate Flesh Gregory Woods, 1987-01-01 Discusses the themes of the male body war and homosexual love in poetry and analyzes the poetry of D H Lawrence Hart Crane W H Auden Allen Ginsberg and Thom Gunn Henry Miller Lawrence J. Shifreen, 1979 No descriptive material is available for this title Fancy's Craft Cheryl Plumb, 1986 This study places Djuna Barnes's early work in the context of symbolist ideas and practices It presents Barnes not only as a woman writer but also as an American writer especially in her attention to the search for identity and to the conflict between individual values and those of society French News, 1963 Gedichte, franz Claire Gaudiani, 1981 Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America Sophia A. McClennen, Earl E. Fitz, 2004 The genesis of Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America stems from the contributors' conviction that given its vitality and excellence Latin American literature deserves a more prominent place in comparative literature publications curricula and disciplinary discussions The editors introduce the volume by first arguing that there still exists in some quarters a lingering bias against literature written in Spanish and Portuguese Secondly the authors assert that by embracing Latin American literature and culture more enthusiastically comparative literature would find itself reinvigorated placed into productive discourse with a host of issues languages literatures and cultures that have too long been paid scant academic attention Following an introduction by the editors the volume contains papers by Gene H Bell Villada on the question of canon by Gordon Brotherston and Lucia de S on the First Peoples of the Americas and their literature by Elizabeth Coonrod Martínez on the Latin American novel of the 1920s by Román de la Campa on Latin American Studies by Earl E Fitz on Spanish American and Brazilian literature by Roberto González Echevarría on Latin American and comparative literature by Sophia A McClennen on comparative literature and Latin American Studies by Alberto Moreiras on Borges by Julio Ortega on the critical debate about Latin American cultural studies by Christina Marie Tourino on Cuban Americas in New York City by Mario J Valdés on the comparative history of literary cultures in Latin America and by Lois Parkinson Zamora on comparative literature and globalization The volume also contains a bibliography of scholarship in comparative Latin American culture and literature and biographical abstracts of the contributors to the volume Books in Print, 1991 Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1965 Mothers, Madams, and "lady-like"

Men Elizabeth Richardson Viti, 1994 The Erotic Motive in Literature Albert Mordell, 1919 The Erotic Motive in Literature Albert Mordell, 2017-10-06 This work first published in 1919 is an endeavour to apply some of the methods of psychoanalysis to literature It traces a writer's books back to the outward and inner events of their life and to reveal of their unconscious This unconscious is largely identical with the mental love fantasies in our present and past life Since the terms unconscious and erotic are almost synonymous any serious study of literature which is concerned with the unconscious must deal impartially with eroticism
