Worldwide Women Writers in Paris Alison Rice,2021 A study based on a set of filmed interviews with Francophone women writers in Paris that explores the literary phenomenon of an unprecedented number of women from around the world who have moved to Paris and become authors of written works in French Black is the Journey, Africana the Name Maboula Soumahoro,2021-09-23 In this highly original book Maboula Soumahoro explores the cultural and political vastness of the Black Atlantic where Africa Europe and the Americas were tied together by the brutal realities of the slave trade and colonialism Each of these spaces has its own way of reading the Black body and the Black experience and its own modes of visibility invisibility silence and amplification of Black life By weaving together her personal history with that of France and its abiding myth of color blindness Maboula Soumahoro highlights the banality and persistence of structural racism in France today and shows that freedom will be found in the journey and movement between the sites of the Atlantic triangle Africana is the name of that freedom How can we build and reflect on a collective diasporic identity through a personal journey What are the limits and possibilities of this endeavor when the personal journey is that of oft erased bodies and stories de humanized lives and when Black populations in Africa the Americas and Europe identify and misidentify with each other their sensibilities shaped by the particular locales in which their lives unfold This book makes an important intellectual contribution to contemporary public conversations and theoretical inquiry into race racism blackness and identity today as it probes and questions the academic methodologies that have functioned as structures of exclusion Black-bellied Son, Agent Mom Chun Huaqiukai,2020-01-09 Let go of me you bastard The woman was aggressive as her gaze revealed her killing intent This despicable man actually dared to play tricks on her As a genius killer the only time she had ever fallen was when she had met this damnable man next to her Not letting go who told you to hide my son The man s eyes were bloodthirsty but his actions were exceptionally gentle Lesser Demon who was lying beside the window opened her mouth Wow this time the new daddy I found is really fierce qualified The Englishwoman's magazine and Christian mother's miscellany [formerly The Christian mother's magazine] ed. by mrs. reimagined history in which the boundaries between those forms are murky and ever shifting The Boston Globe In this singular collection John Edgar Wideman blends the personal historical and political to invent complex charged stories about love death struggle and what we owe each other With characters ranging from everyday Americans to Jean Michel Basquiat to Nat Turner American Histories is a journey through time experience and the soul of our country In JB FD Wideman reimagines conversations between John Brown the antislavery crusader and Frederick Douglass the abolitionist and orator conversations that produce a fantastical rich correspondence that spans years and ideologies Maps and Ledgers eavesdrops on a brother and sister today as they ponder their father s killing of another man Williamsburg Bridge sits inside a man sitting on a bridge who contemplates his life before he decides to jump My Dead is a story about how the already departed demand more time more space in the lives of those who survive them American Histories is an important addition to Wideman s body of writing and a remarkable demonstration of his ability to address social issues through a range of fictional forms and styles Pittsburgh Post Gazette An extended meditation on family history and loss American Histories weaves together historical fact philosophical wisdom and deeply personal vignettes This is Wideman at his best emotionally precise and intellectually stimulating an extraordinary collection by a master

Europe's Languages on England's Stages, 1590-1620 Marianne Montgomery, 2016-04-22 Though representations of alien languages on the early modern stage have usually been read as mocking xenophobic or at the very least extremely anxious listening closely to these languages in the drama of Shakespeare and his contemporaries Marianne Montgomery discerns a more complex reality She argues instead that the drama of the early modern period holds up linguistic variety as a source of strength and offers playgoers a cosmopolitan engagement with the foreign that while still sometimes anxious complicates easy national distinctions The study surveys six of the European languages heard on London s commercial stages during the three decades between 1590 and 1620 Welsh French Dutch Spanish Irish and Latin and the distinct sets of cultural issues that they made audible Exploring issues of culture and performance raised by representations of European languages on the stage this book joins and advances two critical conversations on early modern drama It both works to recover English relations with alien cultures in the period by looking at how such encounters were staged and treats sound and performance as essential to understanding what Europe s languages meant in the theater Europe s Languages on England s Stages 1590 1620 contributes to our emerging sense of how local identities and global knowledge in early modern England were necessarily shaped by encounters with nearby lands particularly encounters staged for aural consumption

The Mother's Question-book Sir Richard Phillips, 1834 Against the Postcolonial Richard Serrano, 2006-11-24 Against the Postcolonial is at once a study of five writers from lands formerly or currently ruled by France Algeria Cambodia Guiana Madagascar and Mali and an interrogation of the relevance of postcolonial theory criticism and studies to these writers The authors are necessarily placed against the background of postcolonial studies but since they have radically different backgrounds histories and careers Serrano argues against the relevance of a homogenizing critical practice most interested in replicating itself The Playwright's Voice David Savran,1999 These 15 interviews illustrate the diversity of modern American theater and examine what makes it a unique art form Savran English Brown U discusses the work artistic influences and the state of contemporary American theater and its meaning and purpose with artists including Tony Kushner Jose Rivera Ntozake Shange and Anna Deveare Smith Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Littell's Living Age ,1895
