Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter,2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus s physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus s Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease Christians and Muslims in the Middle Ages Michael Frassetto,2019-11-12 The conflict and contact between Muslims and Christians in the Middle Ages is among the most important but least appreciated developments of the period from the seventh to the fourteenth century Michael Frassetto argues that the relationship between these two faiths during the Middle Ages was essential to the cultural and religious developments of Christianity and Islam even as Christians and Muslims often found themselves engaged in violent conflict Frassetto traces the history of those conflicts and argues that these holy wars helped create the identity that defined the essential characteristics of Christians and Muslims The polemic works that often accompanied these holy wars was important Frassetto contends because by defining the essential evil of the enemy Christian authors were also defining their own beliefs and practices Holy war was not the only defining element of the relationship between Christians and Muslims during the Middle Ages and Frassetto explains that everyday contacts between Christian and Muslim leaders and scholars generated more peaceful relations and shaped the literary intellectual and religious culture that defined medieval and even modern Christianity and Islam Cheng Ho and Islam in Southeast Asia Tan Ta Sen,2009 Tan Ta Sen has modestly suggested that as a book to illustrate the peaceful impact of culture contact he is concerned to show how such cultural influences not only led to transmissions conversions and transferences involving Inner Asian Muslims from China and Yunnan Muslims Chams Javanese Malays Arabs and Indians but also enabled many Chinese in the Malay world to retain their non Muslim cultural traits In placing Cheng Ho s voyages in this context the author offers a fresh perspective on a momentous set of events in Chinese maritime history Professor Wang Gungwu National University of Singapore Tan Ta Sen's book on Cheng Ho and Islam in Southeast Asia is not the first one on the subject but it is the first book that puts Cheng Ho's voyages in the larger context of culture contact in China and beyond He has garnered numerous sources from published documents to architectural sites and buildings to support his arguments He has done much more than previous scholars writing on this subject Professor Leo Suryadinata Chinese Heritage Centre Singapore This long awaited book is welcomed by the academic community Tan Ta Sen has used historical facts to strengthen the argument on the existence of the Third Wave i.e the Chinese Wave in the spread of Islam in the Southeast Asian region Until now we only know two major waves i.e the India Gujarat Wave and the Middle East Wave through the development of trade relations Professor A Dahana University of Indonesia Jakarta

Laskar Jihad Noorhaidi Hasan, 2018-05-31 An in depth study of the militant Islamic Laskar Jihad movement and its links to international Muslim networks and ideological debates This analysis is grounded in extensive research and interviews with Salafi leaders and activists who supported jihad throughout the Moluccas

Common Words in Muslim-Christian Dialogue Vebjørn Horsfjord, 2017-10-23 In Common Words in Muslim-Christian Dialogue Vebjørn L. Horsfjord offers an analysis of texts from an international dialogue process between Christian and Muslim leaders Through detailed engagement with the Muslim dialogue letter A Common Word between Us and You 2007 and a large number of Christian responses to it the study analyses the dialogue process in the wake of the Muslim initiative and shows how the various texts gain meaning through their interaction The author uses tools from critical discourse analysis and speech act analysis and claims that the Islamic dialogue initiative became more important as an invitation to Muslim-Christian dialogue than as theological reflection He shows how Christian leaders systematically chose to steer the dialogue process towards practical questions about peaceful coexistence and away from theological issues

Believers and Brothers Israr Hasan, 2009-05-26 This book tells the story of uneasy relations the Western Christendom had or having with the Eastern Islamic and Jewish world It covers a huge sweep of both time and place begins in the seventh century and extends into the twenty-first Its boundaries are Morocco and Algeria to the south and Vienna to the north the Atlantic to the west and the Arabian Sea and the Indian Ocean to the east We can read them and see how they made an impact on the human imagination The deep cause of their hostility seemed hidden beneath the religious or cultural explanations underlying political and economic rivalries hatred and animosities personal ambitions and vanities chance and accident Interfaith understanding for peaceful coexistence is a minimal need of our time It is not the same thing as love or friendship To the contrary it is an expression of distance an acknowledgment of boundaries that will remain It is informed by an attitude of live and let live Coexistence is an ideal without illusions In a pluralistic society ethnic and cultural differences are not abolished They are legitimized and society strives to guarantee that the law will be blind to them We are increasingly confronted by people and groups whose worldviews are utterly different from ours and these people are our neighbors co-workers and schoolmates of our children our in laws our clients our employers and more In today's world of global connectedness we must develop the capacity to dialogue and create relatedness with people vastly different from us We do not need to be the same but we should find just enough similarity between us that we can hold hands as fellow travelers in this life all the while mindful of our differences in myriad ways

A Poor and Merciful Church Ilo, Stan Chu, 2018 This important text addresses three key questions which face modern Catholicism especially in Africa What is the ecclesiology of Pope Francis How does this ecclesiology meet the challenges facing the universal church in today's complex world And how can one translate the practices of this new approach into a theological aesthetics to meet the challenges and opportunities of the African social context

Christians and Muslims in Early Medieval Italy Luigi Andrea Bertò, 2019-11-27 In the early Middle Ages Italy became the target of Muslim expansionist campaigns The Muslims conquered Sicily ruling there for more than two centuries and conducted many raids against the Italian Peninsula During this period however Christians and Muslims were not always at war trade flourished and travel to the territories of the other was not uncommon By examining how Muslims and Christians perceived each other and how they communicated this book brings the relationship between Muslims and Christians in early medieval Italy into clearer focus showing that the followers of the Cross and those of the Crescent were in reality not as ignorant of one another as is commonly believed Muslim, Christian, Jew Arthur G. Gish, 2012-06-01 A major challenge for people of faith is to resist the growing demonization of Islam Christianity and Judaism I want to do something to build bridges between the three religions I feel called to embody in my own life the healing the reconciliation the unity I long for between people of different religions Art Gish became involved in the life and worship of all three religions he considered himself a Christian a Muslim and a Jew and
