This book is about the human desire to experiment with empire. In the past, it was done with real soldiers and expeditions and slaves and trade and misery and force. In the future, it will be done with generation ships and off-world pioneers, robots, and invasion, electronic sheep, and people who just don't want to be pushed around any more. Beginning with a discussion of who we are, hopefully the good guys, and who they are, anyone who isn't us, this narrative scans the lights of science fiction, looking at the places where humans try to touch a variety of futures Is SF designed to purge our dark imperialistic fantasies or is it a laboratory of mind experiments carefully considered trials of political social and economic scenarios Which tomorrow are we more likely to accept where the blood of empire is red or read Examining such classic SF texts as Lasswitz s Two Planets and Wells The War of the Worlds this book investigates Asimov s Robots and Heinlein s Moon as well as Robinson s Mars and Banks postcolonial Culture We see the rise and fall of empire through the eyes of Miller Clarke and Wyndham and the apparently inevitable failure of the imperial project as discussed in Solaris The Dispossessed and The Forever War This book offers an insight into the darkest power abuses of mankind where the oppression silencing and marginalisation of those who are not us continues and flourishes Who are the monsters of our future the Others invading from another planet or the unseen and unrecognised Other within American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Fiction.
