The Orchid House Lucinda Riley,2012-02-14 Spanning the 1930s to the present day from a magnificent estate in war torn England to Thailand this sweeping debut tells the tale of a concert pianist Julia and the prominent Crawford family whose shocking secrets are revealed leading to devastating consequences for generations to come Soul Within a Peach Florence Sau Kin,2015-12-01 The complete story And a beautiful story continues With so many lessons learned from the first part of her we have now made her whole story into one book A great grandmother at age 83 shares her experiences as a woman wife and mother With only second grade schooling her practical wisdom will inspire and help those seeking inner peace and spiritual growth I have learned lessons from the school of suffering We all have a humble beginning We are born naked and completely helpless People should remember their humble beginnings and never treat others cruelly or harshly

The Germanic Mosaic Carol A. Blackshire-Belay,1993-12-07 This is a comprehensive and up to date critical examination of cultural diversity in Germanic speaking societies It goes beyond ethnic religious and gender stereotypes to show minority groups as active participants in German history rather than as passive victims This collection of critical and theoretical essays seeks to interpret the current philosophical aesthetic and literary thinking about diversity in literature and language The book is divided into four parts literary analyses of works produced by members of minority populations linguistic discussions and case studies of minority groups structures and strategies of discourse and prejudice and studies of remedies for problems of racism and discrimination Some of the most significant writers and thinkers in the field have contributed making this volume of critical concern to scholars and students of German modern languages and comparative studies

Tsunami Man Anthony D. Fredericks, 2002-02-28 Walt Dudley waited on the roof of the Naniloa Hotel overlooking Hilo Bay Eyes glued to the water ears listening for the ring of his cellular phone he was watching for a monster It was a monster speeding across the Pacific Ocean at more than 500 miles per hour It was a monster with the potential for consuming lives and pulverizing buildings It was a monster of enormous strength incredible power and unbelievable destructiveness Tsunamis the stuff of legends in both ancient and modern times are some of the world's most destructive natural disasters But for Dr Walter Dudley tsunamis are not just about devastation and destruction they are about men women and children Dr Dudley's work see Tsunami 1998 has expanded our knowledge of these waves and has helped us to better understand and prepare for these unpredictable yet ever present dangers In Tsunami Man young readers are given an inside look at the life of a working scientist who uses his knowledge for the common good and serves as an exciting role model for future scientists Filled with dramatic photographs and accounts of tsunami survivors the book also addresses the how and why of tsunamis their impact on human lives and the ways in which information about these killer waves is shared throughout the world

My Mother's Way of Dying Well Dianne Porter, 2014-01-14 The unexpected collection of my parent's ashes from the crematorium opened the door to a new adventure in dealing my parents death that I personally found very liberating for my soul It marked the beginning of a personal pilgrimage of faith I had no intention of taking I thought I was dealing with my parents remains As time passed I realized I had no choice but to take this path this journey was the only way forward for me Surprisingly for me it actually strengthened my faith in God and his ways as taught in the Christian faith and it's hard to describe how Once I committed myself to the task I had to take action I plunged my hands into their ashes that first day even though for me it was like plunging my hands into my parent's dead bodies It was irksome and revolting to me the first time
