actually been around for several decades even though they made only a modest impact however the availability of global capital and advances in communication technology have empowered the process of internationalization and the tools available to connect and integrate business activities to answer to more complex needs of clients. Moreover the financial scandals and the review of mutual fund trade activity in the US by the Attorney General Elliot Spitzer have highlighted the importance to focus all efforts on renewing the confidence of professional investors and their clients who have entrusted their capital to asset managers. Therefore there is a growing need in the market to reinforce the concept of Shared Positive Values among the entire industry and among its stakeholders.

Strength and Drive Robert A. Doughty, 2014-12-18 The Class of 1965 entered the Military Academy in July 1961. As cadets they received a traditional West Point education but also studied new fields such as computers and nuclear physics. Upon graduation members of the class received numerous national scholarships including one Rhodes scholarship. During the Vietnam War members of the class received no less than one Medal of Honor, four Distinguished Service Crosses, one Air Force Cross, 94 Silver Stars, 5 Soldiers Medals, 175 Bronze Stars with V device for valor and 129 Purple Hearts. In later years members of the class served with distinction in Grenada, Panama, Iraq and elsewhere. They became leaders in transforming the army after the Cold War into a much leaner, more agile, technologically advanced force. Those who left the service, whether after four years in uniform or more, contributed to the nation in a similarly impressive manner. As civilians they excelled in numerous fields and exhibited as much patriotism and Strength and Drive as those still in uniform. Whether in uniform or not, members of the class of 1965 served their communities and nation and never lost sight of the meaning of West Point's motto: Duty, Honor, Country.
