Pride And Protest Ethnic Roots In America:

Pride and Protest Jay Schulman, Aubrey Shatter, Rosalie Ehrlich, 1977 The Rhetoric of Agitation and Control

John W. Bowers, Donovan J. Ochs, Richard J. Jensen, David P. Schulz, 2009-06-30 This compelling text is a careful examination of the rhetoric of dissent The Rhetoric of Agitation and Control provides a framework for the study of agitation and responses to that agitation The third edition offers a profile of past and current movements such as the street theatre of Chicago in 1968 and the innovative and technological rhetorical techniques found in the Battle in Seattle The modus operandi of today's protests continues to evolve from that of the 1960s and 1970s As smartphones and the Internet replace tie dyed shirts and flower power contemporary students and scholars alike will find this edition of The Rhetoric of Agitation and Control to be a helpful tool in studying the progression of social and protest movements Race and Ethnicity in America Russell M.

Lawson, Benjamin A. Lawson, 2019-10-11 Divided into four volumes Race and Ethnicity in America provides a complete overview of the history of racial and ethnic relations in America from pre contact to the present The five hundred years since Europeans made contact with the indigenous peoples of America have been dominated by racial and ethnic tensions During the colonial period from 1500 to 1776 slavery and servitude of whites blacks and Indians formed the foundation for race and ethnic relations After the American Revolution slavery labor inequalities and immigration led to racial and ethnic tensions after the Civil War labor inequalities immigration and the fight for civil rights dominated America's racial and ethnic experience From the 1960s to the present the unfulfilled promise of civil rights for all ethnic and racial groups in America has been the most important sociopolitical issue in America Race and Ethnicity in America tells this story of the fight for equality in America The first volume spans pre contact to the American Revolution the second the American Revolution to the Civil War the third Reconstruction to the Civil Rights Movement and the fourth the Civil Rights Movement to the present All volumes explore the culture society labor war and politics and cultural expressions of racial and ethnic groups Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1979 Urban Sociology William G.

Flanagan, 2010-01-16 The fifth edition of this text presents a balanced review of the ecological arguments that the urban arena produces unique experiential and urban based cultural effects while exploring the broader political and economic contexts that produce and modify the urban environment In addition to examining the urban dimensions of such topics as community formation and continuity minority and majority dynamics ethnic experience poverty power and crime it provides an analysis of the spatial distribution of population and resources with regard to the metropolitanization of the urban form and the interaction between urban concentration and development and underdevelopment From a first chapter that begins with a discussion of some of the more micrological features of the urban experience the text focuses on the significance of the more macrological cultural social organizational and political dimensions of urban change in an historical span that includes the first cities and concludes with an exploration of the implications of cyberspace transnationalism and global terrorism for the future of urban sociology While the work focuses primarily on the North American case its analytical and integrated discussion makes it applicable to urban societies in general

The Columbia Documentary History of Race and Ethnicity in America Ronald H. Bayor, 2004-07-14 All historians would agree that America is a nation of nations But what does that mean in terms of the issues that have moved and shaped us as a people Contemporary concerns such as bilingualism incorporation assimilation dual identity ethnic politics quotas and affirmative action residential segregation and the volume of immigration resonate with a past that has confronted variations of these modern issues The Columbia Documentary History of Race and Ethnicity in America written and compiled by a highly respected team of American historians under the editorship of Ronald Bayor illuminates the myriad ways in which immigration racial and ethnic histories have shaped the contours of contemporary American society This invaluable resource documents all eras of the American past including black white interactions and the broad spectrum of American attitudes and reactions concerning Native Americans Irish Catholics Mexican Americans Jewish Americans and other groups Each of the eight chronological chapters contains a survey essay an annotated bibliography and 20 to 30 related public and private primary source documents including manifestos speeches court cases letters memoirs and much more From the 1655 petition of Jewish merchants regarding the admission of Jews to the New Netherlands colony to an interview with a Chinese American worker regarding a 1938 strike in San Francisco documents are drawn from a variety of sources and allow students and others direct access to our past Selections include Powhatan to John Smith 1609 Thomas Jefferson Notes on the State of Virginia Petition of the Trustees of Congregation Shearith Israel 1811 Bessie Conway or The Irish Girl in America German Society in Chicago Annual Report 1857 1858 Mark Twain s Salutation to the Century W E B DuBois Of Our Spiritual Strivings NAACP on Black Schoolteachers Fight for Equal Pay Malcom X speech 1964 Hewy Newton interview and Black Panther Party platform Preamble La Raza Unida Party Lee Iacocca speech to Ethnic Heritage Council of the Pacific Northwest 1984 Native American Graves and Repatriation Act 1990 L A riot from the Los Angeles Times May 3 15 1992 Nov 16 19 1992 Asian American Political Alliance President Clinton s Commission on Race Town Meeting 1997 Louis Farrakhan The Vision for the Million Man March

A State-by-State History of Race and Racism in the United States Patricia Reid-Merritt, 2018-12-07 Providing chronologies of important events historical narratives from the first settlement to the present and biographies of major figures this work offers readers an unseen look at the history of racism from the perspective of individual states From the initial impact of European settlement on indigenous populations to the racial divides caused by immigration and police shootings in the 21st century each American state has imposed some form of racial restriction on its residents The United States proclaims a belief in freedom and justice for all but members of various minority racial groups have often faced a different reality as seen in such examples as the forcible dispossession of indigenous peoples during the Trail of Tears Jim Crow laws crushing discrimination of blacks and the manifest unfairness of the Chinese Exclusion Act Including the District of Columbia the 51 entries in these two volumes cover the state specific histories of all of the major minority and immigrant groups in the United States including African Americans Hispanics Asian Americans and Native Americans Every state has had a unique experience in attempting to build a community comprising multiple racial groups and the chronologies narratives and biographies that compose the entries in this collection explore the consequences of racism from states perspectives revealing distinct new insights into their respective racial histories

Contemporary Ethnic Geographies in America Christopher A. Airriess, 2015-09-28 Ethnic diversity has marked the United States from its inception and it is impossible to separate ethnicity from an understanding of the United States as a country and Americans as a people Since the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act the United States has experienced watershed transformations in its social cultural and ethnic geographies Considering the impact of these wide ranging changes this unique text examines the experiences of a range of ethnic groups in both historical and contemporary context It begins by laying out a comprehensive conceptual framework that integrates immigration theory globalization transnational community formation and urban cultural and economic geography The contributors then present a rich set of case studies of the key Latin American Asian American and Middle Eastern communities comprising the vast majority of newer immigrants Each case offers a brief historical overview of the group s immigration experience and settlement patterns and discusses its contemporary socioeconomic dynamics All these communities have transformed and been transformed by the places in which they have settled Exploring these changing communities places and landscapes this book offers a nuanced understanding of the evolution of America s contemporary ethnic geographies

Slavery, Race and American History John David Smith, 2015-03-04 These essays introduce the complexities of researching and analyzing race This book focuses on problems confronted while researching writing and interpreting race and slavery such as conflict between ideological perspectives and changing interpretations of the questions
