I'm OK! Building Resilience through Physical Play Jarrod Green,2016-10-24 Children must learn to pick themselves up brush themselves off and bounce back How do you allow for the physicality required to build resilience why you are tasked with children s safety This guide provides the tools and strategies for creating a culture of resilience including families in the process and keeping safety front of mind Examine common safety concerns and how to address and prepare for them Learn how to work with families and build a trusting relationship around children s physical development Consider legal concerns regarding licensing and liability Discover practical approaches to working with children to find their appropriate level of physical risk taking and how to respond to a child s risky behavior

Jarrold Green is an early childhood educator with over a decade of experience in early childhood education. His teaching practice centers around an emergent project based approach to curriculum with an emphasis on learning through play, developing relationships with communities and building self regulation and resilience. Green also presents at many professional conferences including NAEYC's Professional Development Institute. Neoliberal Selfhood Stephen Vassallo, 2020-12-17 Psychological constructs such as emotion regulation, creativity, grit, growth mindset, lifelong learning and whole child are appealing as pedagogical aspirations and outcomes. Researchers, policy makers and educators are likely to endorse and accept these constructs as ways to make sense of students and inform pedagogical decision making. Few critically interrogate these constructs as they are associated with students' academic achievement, psychological well being, civic virtue and career readiness. However, this book shows how these constructs become entangled in a neoliberal vision of selfhood which is tied to market prescriptions and is thus associated with problematic ethical, psychological, moral and economic consequences. The chapters draw attention to the ideological underpinnings in order to facilitate conversations about selfhood in schooling policy and practices.

Planning for Play, Observation, and Learning in Preschool and Kindergarten Gaye Gronlund, 2012-11-16 Play is an important vehicle for learning in the early years. With intentional planning frameworks, this resource provides teachers with tools and strategies to organize and develop curriculum around high level purposeful play. Practical application techniques help teachers create a cycle of planning and observation as they use a play based curriculum to help young children thrive in the classroom. Gaye Gronlund is an early childhood education consultant who trains early childhood educators across the country. She is the author of six books. The Art of Awareness, Second Edition

Deb Curtis, Margie Carter, 2012-11-21 Learning to closely observe children requires commitment to systematic study and ongoing practice. With activities, experiences and stories, this book provides that opportunity. Nine observation study sessions help educators of young children discover the many ways that being observant can enhance their teaching. Updates to this second edition reflect current issues in early childhood education including learning standards, assessment and technology. Deb Curtis and Margie Carter are popular presenters at early childhood conferences, professional development speakers and on site consultants. They have written several books together including Learning Together with Young Children and Designs for Living and Learning.

Designs for Living and Learning Deb Curtis, Margie Carter, 2003 Give children wondrous places to learn and grow. Drawing inspiration from a variety of approaches from Waldorf to Montessori to Reggio to Greenman, Prescott and Olds, the authors outline hundreds of ways to create healthy and inviting physical, social and emotional environments for children in child care. Full color photographs of actual early childhood programs demonstrate that the spaces children learn and grow in can be comfortable for children, teachers and parents alike. Margie Carter serves on the adjunct faculty at Pacific Oaks College, Northwest Seattle, Washington. Deb Curtis works as a child care teacher at the Burlington Little School in Seattle. Their other books include The Art of Awareness, The Visionary
