Reflex And Bone Structure:

Reflex and Bone Structure Clarence Major, 1975 Postmodernism, Traditional Cultural Forms, and African American Narratives W. Lawrence Hogue, 2013-11-12 This book explores how African American social and political movements African American studies independent scholars and traditional cultural forms revisit and challenge the representation of the African American as deviant other After surveying African American history and cultural politics W Lawrence Hogue provides original and insightful readings of six experimental postmodern African American texts John Edgar Wideman's Philadelphia Fire Percival Everett's Erasure Toni Morrison's Jazz Bonnie Greer's Hanging by Her Teeth Clarence Major's Reflex and Bone Structure and Xam Wilson Cartier's Muse Echo Blues Using traditional cultural and western forms including the blues jazz voodoo virtuality radical democracy Jungian African American Collective Unconscious Yoruba gods black folk culture and black working class culture Hogue reveals that these authors uncover spaces with different definitions of life that still retain a wildness and have not been completely mapped out and trademarked by normative American culture Redefining the African American novel and the African American outside the logic rules and values of western binary reason these writers leave open the possibility of psychic liberation of African Americans in the West Clarence Major and His Art Bernard W. Bell, 2001-01-01 Offers a collection of Clarence Major's poetry fiction and art providing critical interpretations alongside each selection Postmodern Literature and Race Len Platt, Sara Upstone, 2015-02-19 Postmodernism Literature and Race explores the question of how dramatic shifts in conceptions of race in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries have been addressed by writers at the cutting edge of equally dramatic transformations of literary form An opening section engages with the broad question of how the geographical and political positioning of experimental writing informs its contribution to racial discourses while later segments focus on central critical domains within this field race and performativity race and the contemporary nation and postracial futures With essays on a wide range of contemporary writers including Bernadine Evaristo Alasdair Gray Jhumpa Lahiri Andrea Levy and Don DeLillo this volume makes an important contribution to our understanding of the politics and aesthetics of contemporary writing The Art and Life of Clarence Major Keith E. Byerman, 2012-06-01 Clarence Major is an award winning painter fiction writer and poet as well as an essayist editor anthologist lexicographer and memoirist He has been part of twenty eight group exhibitions has had fifteen one man shows and has published fourteen collections of poetry and nine works of fiction The Art and Life of Clarence Major is the first critical biography of this innovative African American writer and visual artist Given the full cooperation of his subject Keith E Byerman traces Major's life and career from his complex family history in Georgia through his encounters with important literary and artistic figures in Chicago and New York to his present status as a respected writer artist teacher and scholar living in California In his introduction Byerman asks How does a black man who does not take race as his principal identity an artist who deliberately defies mainstream rules a social and cultural critic who wants to be admired by the world he attacks and a creator who refuses to commit to one expressive form make his way in the world Tasking himself with opening up the multiple layers of problems and solutions in both the work and the life to consider the successes and the failures Byerman reveals Major as one who has devoted himself to a life of experimental art that has challenged both literary and painterly practice and the conventional understanding of the nature of African American art Major s refusal to follow the rules has challenged readers and critics but through it all he has continued to produce quality work as a painter poet and novelist His is the life of someone totally devoted to his creative work one who has put his artistic vision ahead of fame wealth and sometimes even family A Sarah Mills Hodge Fund Publication

This illuminating book makes the case for a tradition of African American detective fiction novels written by black Americans about black detectives and incorporating distinctly African American tropes and themes Beginning with Pauline Hopkins in 1901 black authors consciously altered and subverted the formulas of detective fiction in significant ways Such writers as J E Bruce Rudolph Fisher Chester Himes Ishmael Reed and Clarence Major created a new genre that responded to the social and political concerns of the black community Examining the work of these authors Stephen Soitos frames his analysis in terms of four uniquely African American tropes altered detective personas double consciousness detection black vernaculars and hoodoo He argues that black writers created sleuths who were in fact blues detectives engaged not only in solving crimes but also in exploring the mysteries of black life and culture Soitos grounds his study in African American literary theory particularly the work of Houston Baker Bernard Bell and Henry Louis Gates Jr He offers both a new way of conceiving black detective fiction and a series of insightful readings of books in this genre From product description Narrative after

Deconstruction Daniel Punday, 2012-02-01 Interrogating stories told about life after deconstruction and discovering instead a kind of afterlife of deconstruction Daniel Punday draws on a wide range of theorists to develop a rigorous theory of narrative as an alternative model for literary interpretation Drawing on an observation made by Jean Fran ois Lyotard Punday argues that at the heart of narrative are concrete objects that can serve as lynchpins through which many different explanations and interpretations can come together Narrative after Deconstruction traces the often grudging emergence of a post deconstructive interest in narrative throughout contemporary literary theory by examining critics as diverse as Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Elizabeth Grosz and Edward Said Experimental novelists like Ronald Sukenick Raymond Federman Clarence Major and Kathy Acker likewise work through many of the same problems of constructing texts in the wake of deconstruction and so provide a glimpse of this post deconstructive narrative approach to writing and interpretation at its most accomplished and powerful

Fingering the Jagged Grain Keith E. Byerman,2010-08-01 In Fingering the Jagged Grain Keith E Byerman discusses how black writers such as Toni Morrison Ishmael Reed and Ernest Gaines have moved away from the ideological rigidity of the black arts movement that arose in the 1960s to create a more expressive imaginative and artistic fiction inspired by the example of Ralph Ellison s Invisible Man Combining a strong concern for technique and craftsmanship with elements of African American heritage including jazz blues spirituals cautionary tales and voodoo these writers have created a vital fiction that celebrates the strength and resilience of the black American voice as it recounts the painful details and brutal episodes of black experience
