Relative Stranger Stories:

A Relative Stranger Charles Baxter, 2001 Set in the Michigan landscape that Charles Baxter has made his own these thirteen exquisite stories illuminate the often curious connections of relatives and strangers You can't just get a brother off the street says the narrator of the title story but indeed he does In another a woman tries to elude her lover's voice by spending an entire day without words A marriage is jostled by the departure of a friend during a snowstorm Baxter's stories tend to be love stories but it is love tinged with fear even danger where shock comedy and love combine in unexpected ways Book jacket Relative Stranger.. ,2008 A Relative Stranger Anne Stevenson, 1979 The Michigan Alumnus ,1989 In volumes 1-8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual Short Story Index ,1994 All My Sins are Relatives W. S. Penn, 1995-01-01 Within its pages Penn describes learning the depths of his love for his grandfather to whom he dedicated this book As arrogant as youth can be I was often too busy silently grading his grammar to pay real attention and see what he was giving me Among the gifts was an awareness of what a story could tell what it could conceal and what it could never tell His grandfather inhabited a different sense of time and it was a long while before Penn lived there too is she hiding After all doesn't everyone have a story to tell In Our Words: Queer Stories from Black, Indigenous, and People of Color Victoria Villaseñor, 2021-06-15 In Our Words: Queer Stories from Black Indigenous and People of Color Writers is a thoughtfully curated collection of short stories at the intersection of racial and queer identity. For the centennial celebration of this annual series, The Best American Short Stories master of the form Lorrie Moore selects forty stories from the more than two thousand that were published in previous editions. Series editor Heidi Pitlor recounts behind-the-scenes anecdotes and examines decade by decade the trends captured over a hundred years. Together, the stories and commentary offer an extraordinary guided tour through a century of literature with what Moore calls all its wildnesses of character and voice. These forty stories represent their eras but also stand the test of time. Here is Ernest Hemingway's first published story and a classic by William Faulkner who admitted in his biographical note that he began to write as an aid to love-making. Nancy Hale's story describes far-reaching echoes of the Holocaust. Tillie Olsen's story expresses the desperation of a single mother. James Baldwin depicts the bonds of brotherhood and music. Here is Raymond Carver's minimalism, a term he disliked, and Grace Paley's secular Yiddishkeit. Here are the varied styles of Donald Barthelme, Charles Baxter, and Jamaica Kincaid. From Junot Díaz to Mary Gaitskill, from ZZ Packer to Sherman Alexie, these writers and stories explore the different things it means to be American. The Salt Cedars (Stories for My Daughter) Mona D. Sizer, 2009-01-07 In a beautiful and touching memoir, Mona Sizer brings the 1930s and 40s to life as she lived them on a farm in South Texas. Intended for her daughter Rachel, she shares them with her readers as well in this warm-hearted recounting of the problems and pleasures facing women alone in a world suddenly threatened by World War II. The author is a popular writer of more than twenty historical romance novels, ten books of Texas history, biography, and true crime, a book of poetry, and numerous other works. She happily reports that to this day she has never considered selling the family farm. Explorations in Diversity Sharon K. Anderson, Valerie A. Middleton, 2018 Narratives by professionals and future professionals unpacking the complexities of privilege and oppression in our multicultural world. Portuguese Relative Clauses in Synchrony and Diachrony Adriana Cardoso, 2017 This book explores language variation and change from the perspective of generative syntax based on a case study of relative clauses in Portuguese and other languages. It offers a comparative account of three linguistic phenomena in the synchrony and diachrony of Portuguese and an overview of competing theoretical analyses. Selves in Two Languages Michèle Koven, 2007-09-07 Bilinguals often report that they feel like a different person in their two languages. In the words of one bilingual in Koven's book, "When I speak Portuguese automatically I'm in a different world; it's a different color Although testimonials like this abound in everyday conversation among bilinguals there has been scant systematic investigation of this intriguing phenomenon Focusing on French Portuguese bilinguals the adult children of Portuguese migrants in France this book provides an empirically grounded theoretical account of how the same speakers enact experience and are perceived by others to have different identities in their two languages This book explores bilinguals experiences and expressions of identity in multicultural multilingual contexts It is distinctive in its integration of multiple levels of analysis to address the relationships between language and identity Koven links detailed attention to discourse form to participants multiple interpretations how such forms become signs of identity and to the broader macrosociolinguistic contexts that structure participants access to those signs The study of how bilinguals perform and experience different identities in their two languages sheds light on the more general role of linguistic and cultural forms in local experiences and expressions of identity
