Loving Across The Color Line A White Adoptive Mother Learns About Race:

Loving Across the Color Line Sharon Rush,2000 In this memoir the author relates how her loving maternal relationship opened her eyes to the harsh realities of the American racial divide      Interracial Intimacies Randall Kennedy,2012-09-12 With the same piercing intelligence as the bestselling Say it Loud Interracial Intimacies hits a nerve at the center of American society race relations and our most intimate ties to each other The best book written on the subject an exhaustive source of deep rich scholarship and surefooted brilliant analysis Seattle Times Analyzing the tremendous changes in the history of America's racial dynamics Randall Kennedy challenges us to examine how prejudices and biases still fuel fears and inform our sexual marital and family choices He takes us from the injustices of the slave era up to present day battles over race matching adoption policies which seek to pair children with adults of the same race He tackles such subjects as the presence of sex in racial politics the historic role of legal institutions in policing racial boundaries and the real and imagined pleasures that have attended interracial intimacy A bracing much needed look at the way we have lived in the past Interracial Intimacies is also a hopeful book offering a potent vision of our future as a multiracial democracy      White Parents, Black Children Darron T. Smith,Cardell K. Jacobson,Brenda G. Juárez,2011-10-27 Looks at the difficult issues of race in transracial adoptions particularly the most common adoption demographic of white parents with children from other racial and ethnic groups      Loving Sheryll Cashin,2017-06-06 A powerful look at Loving v Virginia the landmark case of interracial love and marriage that changed American history and inspired the 2016 film White supremacy has long foiled love and love has long foiled white supremacy Sheryll Cashin offers us this essential historical revelation and urges us to renew our old fight for the human right to love Ibram X Kendi author of Stamped from the Beginning When Mildred and Richard Loving wed in 1958 they were ripped from their shared bed and taken to court Their crime miscegenation punished by exile from their home state of Virginia The resulting landmark decision of Loving v Virginia ended bans on interracial marriage and remains a signature case the first to use the words white supremacy to describe such racism Drawing from the earliest chapters in US history legal scholar Sheryll Cashin reveals the enduring legacy of America's original sin tracing how we transformed from a country without an entrenched construction of race to a nation where one drop of nonwhite blood merited exclusion from full citizenship In vivid detail she illustrates how the idea of whiteness was created by the planter class of yesterday and is reinforced by today's power hungry dog whistlers to divide struggling whites and people of color ensuring plutocracy and undermining the common good Not just a hopeful treatise on the future of race relations in America Loving challenges the notion that trickle down progressive politics is our only hope for a more inclusive society Accessible and sharp Cashin reanimates the possibility of a future where interracial understanding serves as a catalyst of a social revolution ending not in artificial color blindness but in a culture where acceptance and difference are celebrated      Resisting Reality Sally Anne Haslanger,2012-10-25 In this collection of previously published essays Sally Haslanger draws on insights from feminist and critical race theory and on the resources of contemporary analytic philosophy to develop the idea that gender and race are positions within a structure of social relations Explicating the workings of these interlocking structures provides tools for understanding and combatting social injustice      Adoption Memoirs Marianne Novy,2024-06-28 In this volume leading scholar of Literary Adoption Studies Marianne Novy complicates the all too often essentialized popular perspectives of adoption through a critical comparative analysis of over forty adoption memoirs      Being White Karyn D. McKinney,2013-04-15 Karyn McKinney uses written autobiographies solicited from young white people to empirically analyze the contours of the white experience in U S society This text offers a unique view of whiteness based on the rich data provided by whites themselves writing about what it means to be white      Mixed Race America and the Law Kevin R. Johnson,2003-02 This ground breaking anthology examines the mixed race experience and the impact of law on mixed race citizens in America      Life Stories Maureen O'Connor,2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books      Multiracial America Karen E. Downing,Darlene P. Nichols,Kelly Webster,2005 Multiracial America addresses a growing interest in interracial people and relationships in America Over the past decade there have been numerous books and articles written on interracial issues Despite the rampant growth in publishing locating these often scattered and inaccessible materials remains a challenge This resource guide provides easy access to the available literature Topical chapters on the most often researched themes are included such as core historical literature books for children and young adults hot button issues passing identification appearance fitting in and blood quantification interracial dating and marriage families adoption and issues pertaining to race and queer sexuality Each chapter includes a brief discussion of the literature on the topic including historical context and comments on the breadth and depth of the available literature and followed by annotations of books popular and scholarly journals magazines and newspaper articles videos films and websites Other useful sections include a chapter on the depiction of interracial relationships in film teaching an interracial issues course and how to search for materials given changing terminology and classification issues Indexes by race and non print media are included Children and Youth in Adoption, Orphanages, and Foster Care Lori Askeland, 2005-12-30 Adoption and foster care is a new and burgeoning area of historical and interdisciplinary research Too often however birth parents adoptive parents foster parents social workers and the children themselves have either been ignored or demonized This comprehensive introductory resource provides an authoritative yet accessible examination of adoption and foster care as it has been practiced in the United States Within the pages of this volume the reader will find a complete view of the many individuals and groups involved as well as a thorough understanding of the various social and economic forces that have contributed to the perceptions of what children are in need of care Also discussed is the role of orphanages once the primary institution for children without parents as well as a stopgap measure for poor children needing temporary care Divided into three major sections original essays review the practice of adoption orphanage placement and foster care from the colonial period to the present day Selected primary documents including materials by children as well as an in depth bibliographic section provide crucial information and insight for high school and college students Social workers journalists and others will also find much value in this historical overview and guide Contributors include Elizabeth Bartholet Marilyn Irvin Holt Martha Satz and Claudia Nelson Adoption and foster care is a new and burgeoning area of historical and interdisciplinary research Too often however birth parents adoptive parents and foster parents social workers and the children themselves have been either ignored or demonized This authoritative and accessible work is the first comprehensive introductory resource that gives a fuller portrait of the many individuals and groups that have contributed to the perceptions of what children are in need of care Also discussed is the role of orphanages the primary institution for children without parents as well as a stopgap measure for poor children needing temporary care Divided into three sections original essays review the practice of adoption orphanage placement and foster care from the colonial period to the present day Selected primary documents including materials by children as well as an in depth bibliography section provide crucial information and insight for high school and college students Social workers journalists and others will also find much value in this historical overview and guide Star contributors include Elizabeth Bartholet Marilyn Irvin Holt Martha Satz and Claudia Nelson Is that Your Child? Marion Kilson, Florence Ladd, 2009-01-01 In their book Is That Your Child Mothers Talk about Rearing Biracial Children Kilson and Ladd explore the challenges that mothers of biracial children encounter Although the literature on biracial Americans has expanded in the last twenty years Kilson and Ladd s book is unique in focusing on the experiences of a heterogeneous set of black and white mothers of different generations and socioeconomic circumstances The Ethics of Transracial Adoption Hawley Fogg-Davis, 2018-10-18 Transracial adoption is one of the most contentious issues in adoption politics and in the politics of race more generally Some who support transracial adoption use a theory of colorblindness while many who oppose it draw a causal connection between race and culture and argue that a black child s racial and cultural interests are best served by black adoptive parents Hawley Fogg Davis carves out a middle ground between these positions She believes that race should not be a barrier to adoption but neither should it be absent from the minds of prospective adopters and adoption practitioners Fogg Davis's argument in favor of transracial adoption is based on the moral and legal principle of nondiscrimination and a theory of race consciousness she terms racial navigation Challenging the notion that children get their racial identity from their parents she argues that children through the process of racial navigation should cultivate their self identification in dialogue with others The Ethics of Transracial Adoption explores new ground in the transracial adoption debate by examining the relationship between personal and public conceptions of race and racism before during and after adoption

Raising Biracial Children Kerry Ann Rockquemore, Tracey A. Laszloffy, 2005-11-10 As the multiracial population in the United States continues to rise new models for our understanding of mixed race children and how their conception of racial identity must be developed A wide divide between academics who research biracial identity and the everyday world of parents and practitioners who raise and deal with mixed race children exists This book aims to fill this gap by providing an extensive synthesis of the existing research in the field as well as a model for better understanding the unique process of racial identity development for mixed race children Raising Biracial Children provides parents educators social workers and anyone interested in multiracial issues with an accessible framework for understanding healthy mixed race identity development and to translate those findings into practical care giving strategies

Broken Links, Enduring Ties Linda Seligmann, 2013-10-02 Family making in America is in a state of flux the ways people compose their families is changing including those who choose to adopt Broken Links Enduring Ties is a groundbreaking comparative investigation of transnational and interracial adoptions in America Linda Seligmann uncovers the impact of these adoptions over the last twenty years on the ideologies and cultural assumptions that Americans hold about families and how they are constituted Seligmann explores whether or not new kinds of families and communities are emerging as a result of these adoptions providing a compelling narrative on how adoptive families thrive and struggle to create lasting ties Seligmann observed and interviewed numerous adoptive parents and children non adoptive families religious figures teachers and administrators and adoption brokers The book uncovers that adoption once wholly stigmatized is now often embraced either as a romanticized mission of rescue or conversely as simply one among multiple ways to make a family

Education Landscapes in the 21st Century Iris Guske, 2009-03-26 With contributions from scholars and practitioners in the fields of education literacy literature media communication and cultural studies from all five continents the present volume focuses on themes of pressing importance in today's globalized community By giving voice to educators committed to excellence in teaching from primary school to university the book introduces the reader to a plurality of approaches to and applications of up to date theories in the fields of cognition language acquisition intercultural communication and technology based distance education to name but a few Though situated in a concrete educational context be it a Chinese EFL classroom in transition an online MBA course offered in post Communist Romania or a U S university utilizing community elders as a pedagogical tool each paper was selected on the universal value of its findings which professionals facing the challenges of 21st century pedagogy will find readily applicable in classrooms worldwide Since teaching paradigms are strongly culture bound and influenced by national policies as much as international politics this book represents a maximum of diversity by including philosophical texts hands on research results and articles in the critical discourse tradition which reflect a number of contentious issues ranging from the pros and cons of dual language classrooms to potentially racist literature curricula and the intersection of politics and pedagogy in a post September 11 world Moral Imperialism Berta Esperanza Hernndez-Truyol,2002-10-27

Adoption Matters Sally Anne Haslanger,Charlotte Witt,2005 As a social and legal institution of family formation and as a personal experience of members of the adoption triad adoption provides a fresh vantage point on an important set of philosophical and feminist issues The family is often thought to be the basic and natural form of social life for human beings adoption however highlights the powerful role that law and politics play in shaping families and our ideas about families As a result attention to the practices of adoption sheds light upon deeply held but often tacit assumptions about what is natural and what is social in human life from the IntroductionThe institution of adoption has come under increasing scrutiny in recent years as the adoption world has undergone seismic shifts the rise in international and transracial adoptions and the effects of global economics adoption by gays and lesbians increasing openness in the adoption process and changes in domestic welfare policy on adoption Adoption Matters adds to our understanding of reproduction parenting familial bonds personal identity self knowledge and contemporary social policy The contributors to Adoption Matters explore a range of related topics such as the manner in which interracial or international adoption affects the way we perceive the relationships among race ethnicity and culture and how class affects one s life prospects and choices In this distinctive collection of essays the authors illuminate adoption by bringing feminist theory to bear on it and they expand and enrich feminist theory by making it respond to their own personal experience as adoptive parents or as adoptees Joan Heifetz Hollinger Boalt Hall School of Law University of California Berkeley editor of Adoption Law and Practice and coeditor of Families by Law An Adoption Reader Adoption Matters courageously examines how adoption influences and challenges our society s understanding of the intersection of family and identity an intersection that is both deeply personal and highly political Abigail Garner author of Families Like Mine Children of Gay Parents Tell It Like It Is The Wiley Blackwell
