Gender, Power and the Household L. McKie, S. Bowlby, S. Gregory, 1999-05-17 The chapters in this book illustrate from a number of different perspectives the ways in which power is located and articulated through gendered negotiations and acted out within the changing and differing setting of the household The book is divided into four sections The first section provides a theoretical historical and philosophical setting whilst the following three sections provide empirical contributions which examine aspects of Gendered Care dimensions of Gendered Time and Space and straddling work and home Gendered Work Income and Power

Solidarity First Robert O'Brien, 2009-01-01 Debates about social cohesion reflect the unease of contemporary society as we face growing inequality and economic restructuring Solidarity First examines the concept and practice of social cohesion from the perspective of its impact on and significance for workers Contributors examine the functioning of social cohesion at multiple levels Standard approaches are challenged by highlighting the experiences of women and non Canadians Attempts to construct corporate forms of cohesion and community efforts to forge cohesion via the new cultural economy are investigated while the relationship between cohesion in Canada and the international environment is examined by considering the international activity of Canadian civic actors the failure of Canada to live up to international labour obligations and the implications of International Labour Organization reforms for informal sector workers Solidarity First concludes by arguing that reinvigorated worker solidarity is a prerequisite to moving toward a more worker friendly form of social cohesion

Changing Work Relationships in Industrialized Economies Isik U. Zeytinoglu,1999-01-01 This book examines changing work relationships in industrialized economies within the context of economic restructuring and demographic variables The goal of this book is to examine experiences of industrialized economies in dealing with changing work relationships and discuss policy implications of creating such work relationships The thesis of the book is that non standard employment forms in restructuring economies affected all workers but particularly females and the youth Other demographic variables of education level race ethnicity immigrant status ability and economic class were also underlying forces in the construction and arrangements of non standard work Research shows both positive and negative effects of changing work relationships on workers though there is no conclusive result whether one or the other affect is stronger The discussion in this book pays attention to this debate and sheds light on it This book differs from others in its comprehensiveness of the coverage of work relationships referring to part time temporary casual telework and self employment without employees in its examination of a variety of variables including gender age race ethnicity immigrant status ability education level and economic class in the analysis of the topic in relation with the economic restructuring and in its initiative in collaboration of researchers from a variety of backgrounds and regions of the world that have expertise on changing work relationships

Economic Policy, Crisis and Innovation Maria Cristina Marcuzzo,Antonella Palumbo,Paola Villa,2019-11-21 This book is a Festschrift to Annamaria Simonazzi and embraces the themes that she has contributed to over the years through her insightful and inspiring works It brings together contributions from a number of distinguished European economists which pay tribute to her by engaging in a dialogue with her research simultaneously reflecting on the process of growing economic disintegration in the European Union its causes and its possible remedies The book shows the deep interrelations between macroeconomic issues and the social sphere and points to the need to rethink the very foundations of European economic policies as an effective antidote to growing imbalances and disintegration In particular the effects of austerity are assessed alongside the dimensions of inequality gender discrimination poverty and unemployment broadening the perspective also beyond the Eurozone The authors envision a progressive society in which investments in research and intelligent industrial policies govern the processes of technological change and drive the economy towards a more efficient and more equal model of development characterized by high productivity and high wages While some chapters deal directly with policy issues policy suggestions and proposals are scattered throughout the whole book This volume will appeal to academics economists and policy makers interested in understanding the policy response of European institutions to the challenges posed by both the Great Recession and subsequent developments in the European economies The book is written in an engaging and accessible way and the themes are broad enough to generate interest from the international public
