Lucky Victim An Ordinary Life In Extraordinary Times 1933 1946:

Lucky Victim Hans A. Schmitt, 1989 The son of a Jewish mother and gentile German father the author got out of Germany just before the war and was later reunited with surviving members of his family in 1945 Ritchie Boy Secrets Beverley Driver Eddy, 2021-09-07 In June 1942 the U S Army began recruiting immigrants the children of immigrants refugees and others with language skills and knowledge of enemy lands and cultures for a special military intelligence group being trained in the mountains of northern Maryland and sent into Europe and the Pacific Ultimately 15 000 men and some women received this specialized training and went on to make vital contributions to victory in World War II This is their story which Beverley Driver Eddy tells thoroughly and colorfully drawing heavily on interviews with surviving Ritchie Boys The army recruited not just those fluent in German French Italian and Polish approximately a fifth were Jewish refugees from Europe but also Arabic Japanese Dutch Greek Norwegian Russian Turkish and other languages as well as some 200 Native Americans and 200 WACs They were trained in photo interpretation terrain analysis POW interrogation counterintelligence espionage signal intelligence including pigeons mapmaking intelligence gathering and close combat Many landed in France on D Day Many more fanned out across Europe and around the world completing their missions often in cooperation with the OSS and Counterintelligence Corps sometimes on the front lines often behind the lines The Ritchie Boys intelligence proved vital during the liberation of Paris and the Battle of the Bulge They helped craft the print and radio propaganda that wore down German homefront morale If caught they could have been executed as spies After the war they translated and interrogated at the Nuremberg trials One participated in using war criminal Klaus Barbie as an anti communist agent Meanwhile Ritchie Boys in the Pacific Theater of Operations collected intelligence in Burma and China directed bombing raids in New Guinea and the Philippines and fought on Okinawa and Iwo Jima This is a different kind of World War II story and Eddy tells it with conviction supported by years of research and interviews The Second Generation Andreas W. Daum, Hartmut Lehmann, James J. Sheehan, 2015-12-01 Of the thousands of children and young adults who fled Nazi Germany in the years before the Second World War a remarkable number went on to become trained historians in their adopted homelands By placing autobiographical testimonies alongside historical analysis and professional reflections this richly varied collection comprises the first sustained effort to illuminate the role these men and women played in modern historiography Focusing particularly on those who settled in North America Great Britain and Israel it culminates in a comprehensive meticulously researched biobibliographic guide that provides a systematic overview of the lives and works of this second generation In the Shadow of the Holocaust James F. Tent, 2003 James Tent recounts how these men and women from all over Germany and from all walks of life struggled to survive in an increasingly hostile society even as their Jewish relatives were disappearing into the East It draws on extensive interviews with twenty survivors many of whom were teenagers when Hitler came to power to show how half Jews coped with conditions on a day to day basis and how the legacy of the hatred they suffered still lingers in their minds "I Must be a Part of this War" Patricia Kollander, John O'Sullivan, 2005 Settling in New York City Korf became an FBI informant watching pro Nazi leaders like Fritz Kuhn and the German American Bund as they moved among the city's large German immigrant community Soon after he enlisted in the U S Army serving in Germany as an intelligence officer during the Battle of the Bulge and as a prisoner of war camp administrator After the war Korf stayed on as a U S government attorney in Berlin and Munich working to hunt down war criminals and lent his expertise in the effort to determine the authenticity of Joseph Goebbels's diaries Kurt Frank Korf died in 2000

Theoretical Perspectives on Historians' Autobiographies Jaume Aurell, 2015-07-24 E H Carr wrote study the historian before you begin to study the facts This book approaches the life work ideas debates and the context of key 20th and 21st century historians through an analysis of their life writing projects viewed as historiographical sources Merging literary studies on autobiography with theories of history it provides a systematic and detailed analysis of the autobiographies of the most outstanding historians from the classic texts by Giambattista Vico Edward Gibbon and Henry Adams to the Annales historians such as Fernand Braudel Philippe Ariès and Georges Duby to Marxist historians such as Eric Hobsbawm and Annie Kriegel to postmodern historians such as Carolyn Steedman Robert A Rosenstone Carlos Eire Luisa Passerini Elisabeth Roudinesco Gerda Lerner and Sheila Fitzpatrick and to interventional historians such as Geoff Eley Jill Ker Conway Natalie Davis and Gabrielle Spiegel Using a comparative approach to these texts this book identifies six historical autobiographical styles humanistic biographic ego historical monographic postmodern and interventional By privileging historians autobiographies this book proposes a renewed history of historiography one that engages the theoretical evolution of the discipline the way history has been interpreted by historians and the currents of thought and ideologies that have dominated and influenced its writing in the 20th and 21st centuries

Pioneering History on Two Continents Bruce F. Pauley, 2014-07-15 Bruce F Pauley draws on his family and personal history to tell a story that examines the lives of Volga Germans during the eighteenth century the pioneering experiences of his family in late nineteenth century Nebraska and the dramatic transformations influencing the history profession during the second half of the twentieth century An award winning historian of antisemitism Nazism and totalitarianism Pauley helped shape historical practice from the 1970s to the 90s both in the United States and Central Europe Pioneering History on Two Continents provides an intimate look at the shifting approaches to the historian's craft during a volatile period of world history with an emphasis on twentieth century Central European political social and diplomatic developments It also examines the greater sweep of history through the author's firsthand experiences as well as those of his ancestors who participated in these global currents through their migration from Germany to the steppes of Russia to the Great Plains of the United States

Beyond Camps and Forced Labour Suzanne Bardgett, Christine Schmidt, Dan Stone, 2020-12-30 This book presents a selection of the newest research on themes amplified by the sixth annual Beyond Camps and Forced Labour conference on the post Holocaust period including displaced persons reception and resettlement exiles and refugees trials and justice reparation and restitution and memory and testimony The chapters highlight new transnational approaches and findings based on underused and newly opened archives including compensation files of the British government on historical actors often on the periphery within English language historiography including Romanian and Hungarian survivors and new approaches such as the spatial history of Drancy as well as geographies that have undergone less scrutiny for example Tehran Chile Mexico and Cyprus This volume represents the vibrant and varied state of research on the aftermath of the Holocaust Germany and the Americas Thomas Adam, 2005-11-07 This comprehensive encyclopedia details the close ties between the German speaking world and the Americas examining the extensive Germanic cultural and political legacy in the nations of the New World and the equally substantial influence of the Americas on the Germanic nations From the medical discoveries of Dr Johann Siebert surgeon general to Simon Bolivar to the amazing explorations of the early 19th century German explorer Alexander von Humboldt whose South American and Caribbean travels made him one of the most celebrated men in Europe Germany and the Americas examines both the profound Germanic cultural and political legacy throughout the Americas and the lasting influence of American culture on the German speaking world Ever since Baron von Steuben helped create George Washington's army German Americans have exhibited decisive leadership not only in the military but also in politics the arts and business Germany and the Americas charts the lasting links between the Germanic world and the nations of the Americas in a comprehensive survey featuring a chronology of key events spanning 400 years of transatlantic history

Clio's Southern Sisters Constance B. Schulz, Elizabeth Hayes Turner, 2004 It is no accident that the Southern Association for Women Historians enjoys the founding date of 1970 After extended and often bitter engagement with entrenched sexism in the decades following World War II women historians found their voices and crafted a means by which to be heard The years between 1970 and 1980 represented a decade of optimism for women who sought equality in the workplace Professional women professors of history most especially found hope in organizations such as the SAWH created to address issues of visibility legitimacy and equality in historical associations and in employment In Clio's Southern Sisters Constance B. Schulz and Elizabeth Hayes Turner collect the stories of the women who helped to found and lead the organization during its first twenty years These women give evidence in strong and effective language of the experiences that shaped their entrance into the profession They vividly describe the point at which they experienced the shift in their lives and in the lives of those around them that led toward a new day for women in the history profession Some found that discrimination followed them like a shadow and the pain of those days still remains with them Others sought their graduate education in institutions where women were welcomed and where professors valued their work and encouraged their success Yet when they entered the job market they found that some employers flatly refused to consider them because they were women Lost job opportunities for women were linked in tangled ways to the prevailing image of women as less desirable as colleagues or as intellectually weaker than their male counterparts Through the SAWH these women were able to make changes from within the profession They felt an obligation to help the next generation of women scholars In the midst of a national movement to end sex discrimination through legislation to increase women s consciousness raising efforts and to acknowledge the economic realities of women in the workforce these women came together to form an organization that could enable them to have the careers they deserved This timely volume will be appreciated by all those who reaped the benefits for which these southern sisters fought so hard University of Virginia Alumni News ,1989 Im Schatten des Holocaust James F.
