Manpower Policy Perspectives Prospects:

Manpower Policy Seymour Louis Wolfbein, 1973 Monthly Labor Review, 1973-08 Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews The Political Failure of Employment Policy, 1945-1982 Gary Mucciaroni, 2023-10-31 This political history analyzes the failure of the United States to adopt viable employment policies follows U S manpower training and employment policy from the 1946 Employment Act to the Job Training Partnership Act of 1982 Between these two landmarks of legislation in the War on Poverty were attempts to create public service employment PSE the abortive Humphrey Hawkins Act and the beleaguered Comprehensive Employment and Training Act CETA Mucciaroni s traces the impact of economic ideas and opinions on federal employment policy Efforts at reform he believes are frustrated by the tension between economic liberty and social equality that restricts the role of government and holds workers themselves accountable for success or failure Professional economists especially Keynesians have shaped the content and timing of policy innovations in such ways as to limit employment programs to a social welfare mission rather than broader positive economic objectives As a result neither labor nor management has been centrally involved in making policy and employment programs have lacked a stable and organized constituency committed to their success Finally because of the fragmentation of U S political institutions employment programs are not integrated with economic policy are hampered by conflicting objectives and are difficult to carry out effectively As chronic unemployment and the United States difficulties in the world marketplace continue to demand attention the importance of Mucciaroni s subject will grow For political scientists economists journalists and activists this book will be a rich resource in the ongoing debate about the deficiencies of liberalism and the best means of addressing one of the nation s most pressing social and political problems Mucciaroni s provocative theoretical analysis is buttressed by several years research at the U S Department of Labor access to congressional hearings reports and debates and interviews with policy makers and their staffs It will interest all concerned with the history of liberal social policy in the postwar period

A Decade of Federal Antipoverty Programs Robert H. Haveman, 2013-10-22 A Decade of Federal Antipoverty Programs Achievements Failures and Lessons presents papers on the war on poverty dealing with its origins its education health and income maintenance programs and its community action legal services and antidiscrimination policies The book discusses poverty and social policy in the 1960s and 1970s the social and political context of the war on poverty and a decade of policy developments in the income maintenance system The text also describes a decade of policy developments in improving education and training for low income populations a decade of policy developments in providing health care for low income families and the mobilization of low income communities through community action 10 Years of legal services for the poor and a decade of policy developments in equal opportunities in employment and housing are also considered Historians and people involved in political sciences will find the book invaluable Worklife Education and Training and the

SÜTLÜ,2022-01-19 Universal Declaration of Human Rights begins as All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights and Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration without distinction of any kind such as race colour sex language religion political or other opinion national or social origin property birth or other status But some segments of the society have more rights and freedoms than others Although the Others have been given names such as Groups that Need Special Protection they are now called Disadvantaged Groups and include children young people addicts the elderly the disabled immigrants minorities ex convicts women single parent families the poor Considering that the majority of the world s population consists of children young people women and the elderly it is obvious that the problems of disadvantaged groups are actually the problems of society Although the groups are counted individually a person is in more than one group The disadvantaged poor child can grow up to be a woman who becomes a single parent
