beings however has been impacted with culture and other social factors to create different forms of hegemonies These hegemonies have been key in values that create social injustices that are in all spheres of life but more so in women and men relationships In cases of leadership and in many cultures men have adopted attitudes that justify exclusion of women from leadership In religious circles it is justified by the ways texts are read and interpreted through the lens of culture If we begin from the premises of justice and believing in a God of justice then hegemonic ways of understating leadership should be null and void Acknowledging that human beings are created in the image and likeness of God demands that we act differently What this has meant is to challenge injustice in leadership by men and women in partnership The circle of concerned African women theologians in Africa where Rev Edith Chemorion is a member has over the years provided safe spaces for mentoring women to research and write about the experiences of women but much more so to call for justice in all areas including the study of theological education and for leadership in the churches This has borne results because of the partnership of men and women Reverend Edith s contributions to the rallying call is that society moves from hegemony to partnership in all fronts but especially in offering leadership by all We are strong when we partner and we image God s will for society in partnership Prof Esther Mombo Lecturer Faculty of Theology St Paul s University Limuru Kenya Women's Vascular Health Iain Greer,Jeff Ginsberg,Charles Forbes,2006-12-29 This book brings together specialist authors from a variety of medical disciplines to give comprehensive coverage of the whole spectrum of women s vascular health Covering coronary artery disease and its precursors venous disease thrombophilic defects hormonal therapy and haemorrhagic problems the content is divided into three sections Section Journal of Health, Physical Education, Recreation ,1957 Psychology of Gender/Sex Vicki S.
