invitation to take stock of the chapters you've lived the good and the bad the beautiful and the ugly glean what's gold and carry only that forward Let it slow your feet and steady your life in motion so you can see where you stand today from a new point of view No longer through weary or uncertain eyes but a lens brimming with hope The only way to break free was to rewrite my story Because something would happen every time my pen stopped It was like my soul was coming back to my body Like the deepest parts of me that got knocked around and drowned out by all the crap I let the world convince me about who I was came back to the surface And what was left was only what was real and true I was finally standing in the fullness of my story I felt hopeful I felt full Our story may crack us open but it also pieces us back together We all have a story to tell This happens to be mine every chapter a window into who I am the journey I'm on and the season I'm in right now Because this is my story maybe you won't always relate or maybe it will feel like you're looking in a mirror Whatever we have in common and whatever differences lie between us I only hope my story can help shine a light on the beauty of yours That my own soul work will stir something of your own And that by the time you get to the end of my story you're also holding the beautiful beginnings of your own A story only you can tell And I hope that you will Joanna Second Acts Teri
