Heteroglossic Asia Francis Chia-Hui Lin,2015-01-09

Heteroglossic Asia presents an analysis of geographic historical cultural economic spatial and political factors underlying Taiwan's maritime urbanity by means of case studies based on Taipei and Kaohsiung two cities which represent the multi accentual character of Taiwan's urban environment and its recent changes and development through architecture Focussing on the concept of a heteroglossic Asia Pacific exemplified by the analysis of Taiwan's urban transformation the study argues that Taiwan's urban environment shows a form of intended fuzziness which cannot be described as resting on either a simplified nationalist base or chaotic societal anxiety Rather this form lies between binary poles autocracy and democracy nation state and day to day life top down and bottom up orientations orthodoxy and hybridisation

Perspectives on Traditional Settlements and Communities Bagoes Wiryomartono, 2014-02-18 This book covers the relationship between societies and their culture in the context of traditional settlement in Indonesia The focus of the study is on the search for meanings of local concepts This study reveals and analyzes the concepts concerning home and their sociocultural strategies for maintaining a sense of community and identity In this study identifying local concepts becomes the hallmark and the hub of analyses that explore verify and establish relations between ideas and phenomena Based on these relations this study attempts to capture the reality of the local world that upholds and sustains the communities values norms and principles for what they may call a homeland The book is organized into two parts Part I describes a cross regional habitation in Indonesia while Part II presents four ethnic regions of Indonesia Sa dan Toraja Bali Naga and Minangkabau Their unique traditions customs beliefs and attitudes serve to provide diversity in terms of their backgrounds and lifestyles though they share the challenge of sustaining their sense of home in the face of modernity as characterized by changes and developments toward a technologically industrialized society The central research questions are What is development in terms of culture and environmental sustainability How do these communities respond to modernity

Megacities Andre Sorensen, Junichiro Okata, 2010-11-18 For the first time in human history more than half the world's population is urban A fundamental aspect of this transformation has been the emergence of giant cities or megacities that present major new challenges This book examines how issues of megacity development urban form sustainability and unsustainability are conceived how governance processes are influenced by these ideas and how these processes have in turn influenced outcomes on the ground in some cases in transformative ways Through 15 in depth case studies by prominent researchers from around the world this book examines the major challenges facing megacities today The studies are organized around a shared set of concerns and questions about issues of sustainability land development urban governance and urban form Some of the main questions addressed are What are the most pressing issues of sustainability and urban form in each megacity How are major issues of sustainability understood and framed by policymakers Is urban form considered a significant component of sustainability issues in public debates and public policy Who are the key actors framing urban sustainability challenges and shaping urban change How is unsustainability risk or disaster imagined and how are those concerns reflected in policy approaches What has been achieved so far and what challenges remain The publication of this book is a step toward answering these and other crucial questions Okinawan Diaspora Ronald Y. Nakasone, 2002-02-28 The first Okinawan immigrants arrived in

Honolulu in January 1900 to work as contract laborers on Hawai i s sugar plantations Over time Okinawans would continue migrating east to the continental U S Canada Brazil Peru Argentina Bolivia Mexico Cuba Paraguay New Caledonia and the islands of Micronesia The essays in this volume commemorate these diasporic experiences within the geopolitical context of East Asia Using primary sources and oral history individual contributors examine how Okinawan identity was constructed in the various countries to which Okinawans migrated and how their experiences were shaped by the Japanese nation building project and by globalization Essays explore the return to Okinawan sovereignty or what Nobel Laureate Oe Kenzaburo called an impossible possibility and the role of the Okinawan labor diaspora in Japan s imperial expansion into the Philippines and Micronesia Contributors Arakaki Makoto Robert K Arakaki Hokama Shuzen Edith M Kaneshiro Ronald Y Nakasone Nomura Koya Shiota Chika Tomiyama Ichiro Wesley Ueunten Chora 5 Alberto Pérez-Gomez, Stephen Parcell, 2007-07-10

Provocative views on why architecture matters offer vital information for developing a richer architecture Empire of the Winds Philip Bowring, 2018-11-29 Winner of the Penang Book Prize 2019 Nusantara often referred to as Maritime Southeast Asia is the world s largest archipelago and has for centuries been a vital cultural and trading hub Nusantara a Sanskrit then Malay word referring to an island realm is here adapted to become Nusantara denoting a slightly wider world but one with a single linguistic cultural and trading base Nusantara encompasses the lands and shores created by the melting of the ice following the last Ice Age These have long been primarily the domain of the Austronesian speaking peoples and their seafaring traditions The surrounding waters have always been uniquely important as a corridor connecting East Asia to India the Middle East Europe and Africa In this book Philip Bowring provides a history of the world s largest and most important archipelago and its adjacent coasts He tells the story of the peoples and lands located at this crucial maritime and cultural crossroads from its birth following the last Ice Age to today Quests of the Dragon and Bird Clan Paul Kekai

Manansala, 2006-10-01 Quests of the Dragon and Bird Clan examines how the seafaring trading people known as the Nusantao from Insular Southeast Asia influenced world history This is a book a book based on a weblog blog The decision to publish the book came after requests to make the information in the blog available in an easier to read and more portable format The advantage of the printed work is that the blog entries are arranged in easy to manage chronological order without the need for the clicking through the blog archives The glossary entries are also in alphabetical order for easy look up and a word index and table of contents further increase the readability of the blog book Important supplementary articles have also been included in the appendices A must read for those who think there is more to history than what we find in mainstream publications A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Elie G. Haddad, David Rifkind, 2016-12-05

1960 following as it did the last CIAM meeting signalled a turning point for the Modern Movement From then on architecture was influenced by seminal texts by Aldo Rossi and Robert Venturi and gave rise to the first revisionary movement following Modernism Bringing together leading experts in the field this book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010 It consists of two parts the first section providing a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects Why the Porcupine is Not a Bird Gregory

Forth,2016-04-06 Why the Porcupine Is Not a Bird is a comprehensive analysis of knowledge of animals among the Nage people of central Flores in Indonesia Gregory Forth sheds light on the ongoing anthropological debate surrounding the categorization of animals in small scale non Western societies Forth s detailed discussion of how the Nage people conceptualize their relationship to the animal world covers the naming and classification of animals their symbolic and practical use and the ecology of central Flores and its change over the years His study reveals the empirical basis of Nage classifications which align surprisingly well with the taxonomies of modern biologists It also shows how the Nage employ systems of symbolic and utilitarian classification distinct from their general taxonomy A tremendous source of ethnographic detail Why the Porcupine Is Not a Bird is an important contribution to the fields of ethnobiology and cognitive anthropology

Culture and Customs of Thailand Arne Kislenko,2004-05-30 Thailand is rapidly industrializing dramatically improving the living standards of its people and gradually developing a more democratic society Despite such profound changes traditional Thai culture has not only survived but has also in many respects prospered Although famous for its food and despite its increasing popularity as a tourist destination Thailand remains relatively unknown to most Westerners Culture and Customs of Thailand presents the traditional culture and customs against the backdrop of modern times Thailand has always been an important Southeast Asian country With a long reigning monarchy it is the only country in the region that has never been colonized by a Western power or suffered bloody revolutions and wars It was the first Asian country to establish diplomatic relations with the United States and has remained a constant ally Thailand has emerged as a considerable economic force as the world's largest rice and rubber producer and remains a regional political power Against this historical framework Kislenko deftly introduces the traditional and modern strands of the dominant Buddhist faith and other religions such as animism Coverage includes literature the arts architecture including the Thai Wat food and dress gender and marriage festivals and fun and social customs Kislenko also balances the portrait with discussions of threats from globalization AIDS and sex tourism the drug trade and corruption in business and government Evocative photos a country map a timeline and a chronology complete the coverage This reference is the best source for students and general readers to gain substantial sweeping insight into the Thais and their land of smiles

Traveling Prehistoric Seas Alice Beck Kehoe,2015-12-15 Until recently the theory that people could have traversed large expanses of ocean in prehistoric times was considered pseudoscience But recent discoveries in places as disparate as Australia Labrador Crete California and Chile open the possibility that ancient oceans were highways not barriers and that ancient people possessed the means and motives to traverse them In this brief thought provoking but controversial book Alice Kehoe considers the existing evidence in her reassessment of ancient sailing Her book critically analyzes the growing body of evidence on prehistoric sailing to help scholars and students evaluate a highly controversial hypothesis examines evidence from archaeology anthropology botany art mythology linguistics maritime technology architecture paleopathology and other disciplines presents her evidence in student accessible language to allow instructors to use this work for teaching critical thinking skills
