National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Applied Lymphology Carola Koenig,2016-11-21 When Dr Vodder discovered the undividable teamwork between the immune system and the lymphatic system around 1930 he also came to the conclusion that there had to be a connection between the lymphatic system and the detoxification of the brain Without having reliable scientific proof available Dr Vodder developed a manual treatment protocol to stimulate the lymph flow including inner mouth drainage which he presented at a medical conference in Paris France in 1935 Manual lymphatic drainage has been taught and applied throughout Europe ever since with great success for various ailments Thanks to Dr Jonathan Kipnis director of the Center for Brain Immunology and Glia at the University of Virginia who recently came across the scientific evidence of how the lymphatic brain detoxification is accomplished which is basically via lymph capillaries piggybacking on the back of the ophthalmic and olfactory nerves By simply applying a full body manual lymphatic drainage the average speed of lymph flow is temporarily increased by 20 percent Despite all technological accomplishments in medicine the importance of the lymphatic system has been broadly overlooked Because we are surrounded by chemicals most of them toxic I will explain how important a well functioning lymphatic system is for maintaining overall health Preventive Therapy in instalment of Jan de Vries's memoirs covering his life and career as a renowned alternative health practitioner. This volume focuses on his long and fruitful working relationship with Alfred Vogel which prospered right up until Vogel's death in 1996. Jan de Vries was the only person to whom Vogel taught his unique healing methods and philosophies and as a result of their close professional links they also became great friends sharing a mutual respect and trust over a period of 40 years. In this revealing and informative memoir de Vries details the methods employed by Vogel and the profound influence that the Swiss naturopath had on him and his career. De Vries reflects upon the controversial often almost impossible situations that he shared with Vogel as they travelled throughout the world to promote their methods and practices. De Vries also provides invaluable practical advice for daily living and stresses how by employing old folklore methods and taking on board aspects of dietary management long term health and happiness can be achieved by all.

Plant Spirit Shamanism Ross

Heaven, Howard G. Charing, 2006-08-03. An in depth look at the role of plant spirits in shamanic rituals from around the world. Shows how shamans heal using their knowledge of plant spirits as well as the plant's medical properties. Explores the core methods of plant shamanism: soul retrieval, spirit extraction and sin eating and includes techniques for connecting with plant spirits. Includes extensive field interviews with master shamans of all traditions. In Plant Spirit Shamanism Ross Heaven and Howard G. Charing explore the use of one of the major allies of shamans for healing: seeing, dreaming and empowerment plant spirits. After observing great similarities in the use of plants among shamans throughout the world they discovered the reason behind these similarities. Rather than dealing with the medical properties of the plants or specific healing techniques, shamans commune with the spirits of the plants themselves. From their years of in depth shamanic work in the Amazon, Haiti and Europe including extensive field interviews with master shamans, Heaven and Charing present the core methods of plant shamanism used in healing rituals: the world over soul retrieval, spirit extraction, sin eating and the Amazonian tradition of pusanga love medicine. They explain the techniques shamans use to establish connections to plant spirits and provide practical exercises as well as a directory of traditional Amazonian and Caribbean healing plants and their common North American equivalents so readers can explore the world of plant spirits and make allies of their own.
