Navigating Right And Wrong Ethical Decision Making In A Pluralistic Age:

Navigating Right and Wrong Daniel E. Lee, 2002-10-09 How should I live my life Is there really anything that is inherently right or wrong These may sound like simple questions but finding answers to them is anything but simple particularly in an age of ethical pluralism In our multicultural multiethnic world is there any meaningful way to talk about moral obligations Daniel Lee says yes In Navigating Right and Wrong this long time ethicist and teacher helps us begin to reconcile our personal moral commitments with an openness to alternatives with an eye to responsibly negotiating ethics and morality in our pluralistic age Through concise thoughtful prose and engaging anecdotes Lee introduces readers to various philosophical and theological moral theories ultimately arguing that we must embrace a faith based ethics or succumb to the alternative ethical subjectivism In the final analysis Lee asserts we can do no more than acknowledge that the value claims we make are part of the faith we affirm be it one that is explicitly religious or entirely secular in nature Assuming no prior philosophical knowledge Navigating Right and Wrong will be of use to general readers students and anyone else who has ever earnestly asked the question Is there really anything that is right or wrong Navigating Right and Wrong Daniel E. Lee, 2002 This concise and readable book uses the question of obligation to the law as a stepping off point to a more general discussion of deciding what's right and wrong Visit our website for sample chapters Human Rights and the Ethics of Globalization Daniel E. Lee, Elizabeth J. Lee, 2010-09-13 Human Rights and the Ethics of Globalization provides a balanced thoughtful discussion of the globalization of the economy and the ethical considerations inherent in the many changes it has prompted The book's introduction maps out the philosophical foundations for constructing an ethic of globalization taking into account both traditional and contemporary sources These ideals are applied to four specific test cases the ethics of investing in China the case study of the Firestone company's presence in Liberia free trade and fair trade issues pertaining to the coffee trade with Ethiopia and the use of low wage factories in Mexico to serve the US market The book concludes with a comprehensive discussion of how to enforce global compliance with basic human rights standards with particular attention to stopping abuses by multinational corporations through litigation under the Alien Tort Claims Act Death with Dignity Robert Orfali, 2011 In this book the author makes a case for legalized physician assisted dying Using the latest data from Oregon and the Netherlands he puts a new slant on perennial debate topics such as slippery slopes the integrity of medicine and sanctity of life This book provides an in depth look at how we die in America today It examines the shortcomings of our end of life system You will learn about terminal torture in hospital ICUs and about the alternatives hospice and palliative care The author scrutinizes the good the bad and the ugly He provides a critique of the practice of palliative sedation The book makes a strong case that assisted dying complements hospice By providing both Oregon now has the best palliative care system in America This book above all may help you or someone you care about navigate this strange landscape we call end of life It can be an informed guide to a good death in the age of hospice and high tech medical intervention Proceedings and

Moral Philosophy Hector Davidson, Moral philosophy or ethics is the branch of philosophy that examines concepts of right and wrong virtue and vice justice and injustice It seeks to understand the foundations of moral principles how they are applied in human life and whether moral truths are objective or subjective From ancient civilizations to modern societies moral philosophy has played a crucial role in shaping human thought behavior and institutions One of the fundamental questions in moral philosophy is whether morality is a product of reason emotion or social convention Some philosophers argue that moral principles stem from rational deliberation while others suggest that morality is deeply tied to human emotions such as compassion and guilt Social constructivists on the other hand emphasize that moral norms evolve through cultural traditions religious beliefs and historical contexts The study of moral philosophy is often divided into three main branches Meta ethics explores the nature and meaning of moral language questioning whether moral statements express objective truths or subjective opinions Normative ethics examines different ethical theories that propose principles for moral conduct such as consequentialism deontology and virtue ethics Applied ethics focuses on practical moral issues including debates on human rights justice medical ethics and environmental concerns

Ethical Beginnings Waymond Rodgers, 2009

Waymond Rodgers PhD CPA has worked over fifteen years studying how to combine ethical considerations with a decision making model of perception information and judgment that will foster better decision making processes resulting in an overall improvement of daily life He has presented seminars on ethics at numerous international conferences and also provided ethics presentations to corporations societies universities and other organizations such as Opus Dei The need for ethics in society is such an important factor because many commonly held ethical values are incorporated into laws Yet due to the judgmental nature of certain values many ethical values of a society cannot be incorporated into law Ethical process thinking involves discerning right from wrong and acting in alignment with such judgments enabling us to complement several ethical approaches of preferences rules and principles with unique decision making pathways leading to an ethical decision Ethical decisions can be difficult to make due to a misunderstanding of the decision making process incomplete information changing environments time pressures and a lack of expertise Ethical Beginnings Preferences Rules and Principles influencing decision making explains the major barriers to ethical decision making why structuring a problem is necessary and when to use information for decision making purposes

Making Ethical Choices, Resolving Ethical Dilemmas Gini Graham Scott,1998-04 A book offering advice on assessing the ethical approach to moral dilemmas of oneself and others It includes an ethical choices map to categorise ethical approaches according to values orientation and attitude and it is written by the author of RESOLVING CONFLICT and THE TRUTH ABOUT LYING Ethical Decision Making Shaul Shalvi,2011

Who Knows What's Right Anymore? Earle F. Zeigler,2002 This book asks the provocative question who knows what s right anymore In answering this question it serves as a guide to personal ethical decision making North Americans have gotten themselves into a crazy situation because of the broadly based multi ethnic culture that is developing rapidly This means that any former idea about there being one GOOD and one BAD doesn t apply anymore A new standard is needed to distinguish between RIGHT action and WRONG action as we strive and prosper in the 21st century
