The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library, 1988     The Moviegoing Experience, 1968-2001 Richard W. Haines, 2010-06-28 The experience of going to the movies be it a single screen theater twin multiplex or drive in is affected by many different factors that have shifted over the years Just as movies emerged from silent to talking black and white to color there has invariably been change in the way movies are made copied distributed and viewed This change in the moviegoing experience for better or for worse is worth studying This work examines the American moviegoing experience from 1968 to 2001 the way in which movies are made and regulated including the demise of the Production Code and the emergence of the ratings system as well as changes in lighting cinematography and coloring techniques The projection practices of the past and present during and after the presence of the Projectionists Union and the advent of the platter which allowed for automated projection are discussed How home video and cable affected the content of films after the eighties and the history of computerized special effects leading to the development of digital cinema projection are included The work also covers the changing types of venues over the last third of a century and other aspects that affect positively or negatively the entire moviegoing experience     Monthly Labor Review ,1972-09 Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews     Committee Prints United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee on Aging, 1963     Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1964     "The Rest of Us" Stephen Birmingham, 2015-12-01 The New York Times bestselling history of the Jewish immigrants from Russia and Poland who altered the American landscape from New York to Hollywood The wave of Eastern European Jewish immigrants who swept into New York in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries by way of Ellis Island were not welcomed by the Jews who had arrived decades before These refugees from czarist Russia and the Polish shtetls who came to America to escape pogroms and persecution were considered barbaric uneducated and too steeped in the traditions of the old country to be accepted by the more refined and already well established German Jewish community But the new arrivals were tough passionate and determined and in no time they were moving up from the ghetto tenements of New York s Lower East Side to make their marks and their fortunes across the country in a variety of fields from media and popular music to fashion motion pictures and even organized crime Among the unforgettable personages author Stephen Birmingham profiles are radio pioneer David Sarnoff makeup mogul Helena Rubinstein Hollywood tycoons Samuel Goldwyn and Harry Cohn Broadway composer Irving Berlin and mobster Meyer Lansky From the author of Our Crowd comes this treasure trove of fascinating tales and unforgettable rags to riches success stories that celebrates the indomitable spirit of a unique community     Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Special Committee on Aging United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee on Aging, 1965     The Birth of Hollywood North Allan Wargon, 2017-06-28 This is the story of a man whose struggle with poverty artistic and moral issues inadvertently starts an industry Allan Wargon's pioneering efforts take us from the infancy of Canadian film and television to its grand unfolding Often at odds with the holders of purse strings and despite obstacles and deprecation he perseveres Following many awards he devises and makes Mr Piper Canada's first weekly colour television show which sparks the surge of Canadian and American production that becomes Hollywood North Much later he writes and publishes books From painter to film director to writer the author's journey is marked by a consistent refusal to compromise his vision and creative integrity From Varley and Lismer to Paul Anka from John Diefenbaker to Pierre Elliot Trudeau from Lou Applebaum to Jack Warner he works with and crosses paths with many artists musicians and public figures Hollywood North is a frank intensely personal sometimes gut wrenching and always engrossing inside story

Marketing to Moviegoers Robert Marich, 2013-01-30 While Hollywood executives spend millions of dollars making movies even more money is poured into selling those films to the public In the third edition of his comprehensive guidebook Marketing to Moviegoers A Handbook of Strategies and Tactics veteran film and TV journalist Robert Marich plumbs the depths of the methods used by studios to market their films to consumers Updates to the third edition include a chapter on marketing movies using digital media an insightful discussion of the use of music in film trailers new and expanded materials on marketing targeted toward affinity groups and awards fresh analysis of booking contracts between theaters and distributors a brief history of indie film marketing and explorations of the overlooked potential of the drive in theater and the revival of third party financed movie campaigns While many books have been written on the business to business aspect of film promotion Marich's volume is one of the few that focuses on the techniques used to sell motion pictures to those in a position to truly make or break a film the public A highly navigable handbook that breaks down a complicated process into manageable strategies in an easy to read style Marketing to Moviegoers is a must for all professionals and students in today's rapidly evolving film industry
