Private Views London Print Studio Gallery, Kent Institute of Art & Design. George Rodger Gallery, 2002      Morgan County Joanne Raetz Stuttgen, Curtis Tomak, 2007-05-23 Based solely on vintage postcards this important new book is a unique addition to the small number of works devoted to the history of Morgan County Captured here in more than 220 commercially produced and personal real photo postcards is a chronicle of the past 100 years in Martinsville the county seat Mooresville Morgantown Waverly and other communities that have been imprinted on the local landscape This visual record showcases the people neighborhoods schools businesses recreation sites and events that shaped Morgan County including the famous mineral water sanitariums landmark buildings and bridges favorite fishing holes and resorts and disasters such as the 1913 flood of the White River      Punch Mark Lemon, Henry Mayhew, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1877      Martinsville Joanne Raetz Stuttgen, Curtis Tomak, 2008 Based on vintage postcards this new book is a unique and welcome addition to the small number of works devoted to the history of Martinsville Captured here in more than 220 postcard images is an important chronicle of the past 100 years in the City of Mineral Water This visual record showcases the sanitariums including the glorious Home Lawn and its sibling the Martinsville industries and businesses buildings and people courthouse square and special events that shaped the past and influenced the present This fascinating retrospective is an indispensable companion to and expansion of Morgan County the authors first book in Arcadia's Postcard History Series      Postcards in the Library Norman D Stevens, 2014-01-09 Postcards individually and collectively contain a great deal of information that can be of real value to students and researchers Postcards in the Library gives compelling reasons why libraries should take a far more active and serious interest in establishing and maintaining postcard collections and in encouraging the use of these collections It explains the nature and accessibility of existing postcard collections techniques for acquiring arranging preserving and handling collections and ways to make researchers and patrons aware of these collections Postcards in the Library asserts that in most cases existing postcard collections are a vastly underutilized scholarly resource Editor Norman D Stevens urges librarians to help change this since postcards as items for mass consumption and often with no apparent conscious literary or social purpose are a true reflection of the society in which they were produced Stevens claims that messages written on postcards may also reveal a great deal about individual and or societal attitudes and ideas Chapters in Postcards in the Library are written by librarians who manage postcard collections postcard collectors and researchers Some of the authors have undertaken major research projects that demonstrate the ways in which postcards can be used in research and that have begun to establish a standard methodology for the analysis of postcards They write about major postcard collections including the Institute of Deltiology and the Curt Teich Postcard Archives the use of postcards for scholarly research postcard conservation and preservation arrangement and organization and importance and value Postcards in the Library describes the postcard collections in a variety of libraries of different kinds and sizes and indicates very real ways in which the effective use of postcard collections can result in and contribute to substantive scholarly publications It also offers advice and suggestions on the myriad issues that libraries face in handling these ephemeral fragments of popular culture Special collections librarians postcard collectors postcard dealers and historical societies will find the information in Postcards in the Library refreshing and practical Libraries with established postcard collections or those thinking about developing postcard collections will use it as a valuable planning tool and start to finish guide

History's Beauties Lara Perry, 2006 The beauties women of note who were welcomed to the National Portrait Gallery's early collection were those whose lives and portraits were recognized as significant to the civil ecclesiastical and literary history of the nation This brief was interpreted to include figures as diverse as the devout Lady Margaret Beaufort and the entertaining Lady Emma Hamilton History's Beauties the first detailed study of this collection maps a culture of femininity that reframes the Victorian fascination with women's domestic and sentimental presence by locating it within a Parliament centred national culture
