Pankhurst, 2013-10-15 First Published in 1988 Understanding Soviet Society has grown out of the authors experience as sociologists researching and teaching about the Soviet Union Meant initially as an update to Contemporary Soviet Society Sociological Perspectives from 1980 this became a new volume because of the addition of six new authors but also because of the major changes occurring in the USSR today that in many ways necessitated new approaches It examines the fundamental institutions of Soviet society from work and social welfare to politics and the Party in order to provide an objective understanding of the social underpinnings of the Soviet System Comparing the U.S. and U.S.S.R. on Social and Economic Issues Warren Zimmermann, 1987 The Contemporary Soviet City Henry W. Morton, Robert C. Stuart, 2017-07-05 This anthology of short stories reflects the writers shared core experience of Korea's trajectory from an inward looking feudal state through Japanese colony and battle ground for the Korean War to a modernizing society Three stories have been added to the original edition Encyclopedia of Soviet Law Ferdinand J.M. Feldbrugge, 2024-12-02 Federal Probation, 1992 Comparative Policing Issues R. I. Mawby, 2023-03-31 Originally published in 1990 Comparative Policing Issues was the first introductory text to consider key issues in the policing of modern societies from an international comparative perspective The author begins with a discussion of policing itself and considers how the modern police force has emerged Separate sections then focus on France and the Netherlands as examples of Western European societies Canada and Hong Kong as influenced by the colonial tradition Japan as an Eastern capitalist society and the USSR China and Cuba as contrasting examples of communist police systems These and other countries are then considered in terms of the relationship between the police and the communities they serve Critical issues addressed include the following Are communist and capitalist systems of policing significantly different What lessons are to be learnt from Japan with its low crime rate How accountable are the police in different societies and to whom To what extent is the character of the police in any society determined by the wider culture and social and political structure of that society How practicable is it to transfer ideas about policing from one society to another The lowering of barriers within the European community and the return of Hong Kong to China are just two
