Empowerment Of Dalits, Tribals, Obcs And Indigenous Peoples Of India Dr. Malay Dewanji, 2023-06-08 Basic Problems of O.B.C. & Dalit Muslims Ashfaq Husain Ansari, 2007 Contributed articles on the backward class Muslims in Indian context and the reverse discrimination in employment for them by the government Emerging Political Leadership Of Backward Classes In Karnataka Dr. Prahalladappa M.H., Encyclopaedia of Dalits in India: Struggle for self liberation Sanjay Paswan, 2002 The Title Encyclopaedia of Dalits In India Struggle For Seld Liberation written by Sanjay Paswan Paramanshi Jaideva was published in the year 2002 The ISBN number 9788178350271 is assigned to the Hardcover version of this title This book has total of pp 332 Pages The publisher of this title is Kalpaz Publications This Book is in English Vol 2nd the subject of this book is Reference Dictionary Encyclopaedia Scheduled Castes OBC Minorities Sociology About The Author Dalits' Struggle for Social Justice in Andhra Pradesh (1956-2008) Akepogu Jammanna, Pasala Sudhakar, 2016-12-14 The complete alienation of Dalits from resources like land water and agricultural implements has led to the collective demand for an equal share in productivity This book discusses the range of socio economic and cultural problems faced by the Dalit community The movement advancing the rights of Dalits took place both before and after independence however they varied in intensity and concerned land ownership and fair wages self respect social dignity and the demand for equal rights This movement appeared to have significantly changed the very mindset and attitude of upper caste people to restrain themselves and not to resort to any discrimination or humiliation of Dalits However this seems to have been only a temporary phenomenon and the practice of suppression and humiliation continues today This book explores the circumstances of Dalits in the Indian state of Andhra Pradesh and the current efforts attempting to achieve more social equality for the caste here Discrimination in an Unequal World Miguel Angel Centeno, Katherine S. Newman, 2010-09 Is globalization making our world more equal or less Proponents of globalization argue that it is helping and that in a competitive world no one can afford to discriminate except on the basis of skills Opponents counter that globalization does nothing but provide a meritocratic patina on a consistently unequal distribution of opportunity Yet despite the often deafening volume of the debate there is surprisingly little empirical work available on the extent to which the process of globalization over the past quarter century has had any effect on discrimination Tackling this challenge Discrimination in an Unequal World explores the relationship between discrimination and unequal outcomes in the appropriate geographical and historical context Noting how each society tends to see its particular version of discrimination as universal and obvious the editors expand their set of cases to include a broad variety of social relations and practices However since methods differ and are often designed for particular national circumstances they set the much more ambitious and practical goal of establishing a base with which different forms of discrimination across the world can be compared Derived from a broad array of methods the book draws many important lessons on the new means by which the world creates social hierarchies the democratization

Developmental State and the Dalit Question in Madhya Pradesh: Congress Response Sudha Pai, 2013-05-13 Dalit assertion has been a central feature of the states in the Hindi heartland since the mid 1980s leading to the rise of political consciousness and identity based lower caste parties The present study focuses on the different political response of the Congress party to identity assertion in Madhya Pradesh under the leadership of Digvijay Singh In Uttar Pradesh and Bihar in response to the strong wave of Dalit assertion that swept the region parties such as the Bahujan Samaj Party BSP and the Rashtriya Janata Dal RJD used strategies of political mobilisation to consolidate Dalit backward votes and capture state power In Madhya Pradesh in contrast the Congress party and Digvijay Singh at the historic Bhopal Conference held in January 2002 adopted a new model of development that attempted to mobilise Dalits and tribals and raise their standard of living by providing them economic empowerment This new Dalit Agenda constitutes an alternative strategy at gaining Dalit tribal support through of state sponsored economic upliftment as opposed to the political mobilisation strategy employed by the BSP in Uttar Pradesh The present study puts to test the limits of the model of state led development of the use of political power by an enlightened political elite to introduce change from above to address the weaker sections of society The working of the state is thus analysed in the context of the society in which it is embedded and the former s ability to insulate itself from powerful vested interests In interrogating this state led redistributive paradigm the study has generated empirical data based on extensive fieldwork and brought to the fore both the potentials and the limitations of using the model of development from above in a democracy It suggests that the absence of an upsurge from below limits the ability of an enlightened political elite that mans the developmental state to introduce social change and help the weaker sections of society
