Problems of Democratic Transition and Consolidation Juan J. Linz, Alfred Stepan, 1996-08-16 5 Actors and contexts

Challenges to Democracies in East Central Europe Jan Holzer, Miroslav Mareš, 2016-05-12 Democratic development in Central and Eastern Europe is not a finished project nor is its progress immune to internal and external threats The current social economic ethnic and political situation within the region presents new dangers This text identifies and analyses challenges to current East Central European democracies in terms of potential deconsolidation of democracy reflected in the changes in the institutional and procedural framework polity and in the choice of instruments and strategies in the policy area Specifically examining the regimes of the Czech Republic Hungary Poland Slovakia and Slovenia these challenges include political extremism and violence corruption ethnic and religious conflicts Presenting original Central European data and utilising the concept of consolidation of democracy from von Beyme and Merkel s concept the book demonstrates that these challenges are as much influenced by imported phenomena such as immigration organized crime and other potential systemic undemocratic volatilities as the domestic situation This text will be of key interest to scholars and students East European politics post Soviet politics EU Studies security and strategic studies international relations area studies modern history and sociology

Assessing the Quality of Democracy Larry Diamond, Leonardo Morlino, 2005-11-25 Publisher description

Democracy in Southern Europe Isabelle Calleja Ragonesi, 2019-02-28 How have Malta and Cyprus both EU members transitioned from colonial island states to independent democracies With the assistance of primary documentation this book traces the difficult path of these two states to becoming independent liberal democracies by using the pathway of democratization through decolonization Using socio economic and political data analysed through the microscope of political science and international relations theories Isabelle Calleja Ragonesi charts the progress of the two islands in the context of a number of four distinct phases Firstly decolonization independence and achieving the status of procedural democracies secondly post colonial independence consolidating democracy and regime breakdown thirdly sovereign nation state status and second attempts at consolidating democracy and finally attempting to reach substantive democracy status and EU membership The study of these two states is contextualized within the context of democratization in Southern Europe and the cases of Malta and Cyprus provide new insights on the region for scholars of political science and international institutions

The EU and Member State Building Soeren Keil, Zeynep Arkan, 2014-12-05 This book critically examines the process of statebuilding by the EU focusing on its attempts to build Member States in the Western Balkan region This book analyses the European Union s policies towards and the impact they have upon the states of the Western Balkans and assesses how these affect the nature of EU foreign policy To this end it focuses on the tools and mechanisms that the EU employs in its enlargement policy and examines the new instruments of direct intervention in Bosnia and Kosovo political coercion in the case of Croatia and Serbia in relation to the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and stricter conditionality in the Western Balkan countries The book discusses the key aim of this special form of statebuilding which is to establish functional liberal democratic states in Albania Bosnia and Herzegovina Croatia Kosovo Macedonia Montenegro and Serbia in order for them to join the EU and to cope with the responsibilities and pressures of membership in the future However the authors argue that while the EU sees itself as an international actor that promotes and protects liberal democratic values norms and principles its experiences in the Western Balkans demonstrate how the EU's actions in the region have undermined the basic principles of democratic decision making such as the European support for impositions in Bosnia and international law Kosovo and have consequently contributed to new tensions see police reform in Bosnia and the tensions between Kosovo and Serbia and dependencies This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding EU politics global governance and IR Security Studies in general Beyond Post-communist Studies Terry D. Clark, 2016-07-08

This book makes the case that several East Central European countries have emerged as fully consolidated democracies As such they may be integrated into the mainstream of political science research and not consigned forever to a transitional category encompassing countries that are now fully democracies as well as some that are not democratic at all The author outlines the steps of another transition from post communist studies to political science research He demonstrates how institutionalist or rational choice theories can be applied to the analysis of political processes in the successfully democratized countries and proposes a new research agenda for political scientists studying the region The results of this work can enrich political science as well as our understanding of both democracy and the politics of contemporary Eastern Europe The Dynamics of Democratization Geoffrey Pridham, 2001-01-01 A systematic comparison of three cases of democratization and regime transformation in Europe since 1945 this book highlights diversities of historical context

Nation and Gender in Contemporary Europe Vera Tolz, Stephenie Booth, 2005 Building on the growing body of theoretical literature on the gendered nature of nationalism this book offers a systematic examination of similarities and differences in the construction of gender and national identities in post communist societies of Eastern and East Central Europe as well as established and the more stable democracies of Western Europe It points to some of the key sources of inevitable tensions in the future united Europe which stem from different perceptions of national and gender roles in different parts of the continent Polish Politics and Society Frances Millard, 2002-09-11 An examination of political social and economic development in Poland since the summer of 1989 with the main focus on democratization

Politics, Power and the Struggle for Democracy in South-East Europe Karen Dawisha, Bruce Parrott, 1997-06-13 Edited by two of the world's leading analysts of post communist politics this book brings together distinguished specialists on Bosnia Hercegovina Croatia Macedonia Slovenia Serbia Montenegro Albania Bulgaria and Romania The authors analyse the challenge of building democracy in the countries of the former Yugoslavia riven by conflict and in neighboring states They focus on oppositional activity political cultures that often favour strong presidentialism the role of nationalism and basic socioeconomic trends Karen Dawisha and Bruce Parrott provide theoretical and comparative chapters on post communist political development across the region This book will provide students and scholars with detailed analysis by leading authorities plus the latest research data on recent political and economic developments in each country

Dilemmas of Transition in Post-Soviet Countries Joel C. Moses, 2003 Exploring the tensions inherent in transition this perceptive book offers a wide ranging overview of the impact of democracy and capitalism on the former Soviet republics Leading scholars assess the region's daunting problems in the key realms of privatization democratization foreign investment agrarian reform local governance and market economics The contributors argue that the central dilemma facing all these fledgling countries is the inherent contradiction between the immediate pursuit of privatization and foreign investment and the long term policy goal of democratization Offering both theoretical and comparative perspectives on the far reaching implications of nation building and democratic transition this valuable study will enable both students and scholars to comprehend the unique difficulties of transition Democracy and Judicial Reforms in South-East Europe Cristina Dallara, 2014-07-08 The book analyzes the topic of judicial reforms in four countries of South East Europe focusing on two specific factors that have influenced the reforms in the past two decades the role played by the European Union in light of the east Enlargement process and the legacies of the communist regimes Specifically the aim is to account for similarities and differences in the reform paths of Slovenia Romania Croatia and Serbia In each country in fact the influence of the EU policies has been differently mediated by national factors that broadly conceived may be considered as expressing the legacies of the past regimes In some cases these legacies challenged judicial reforms and inhibited the influence of the EU in other cases they were positively overcome by following the route suggested by the EU Some explanatory factors for these differences will be proposed drawing from democratization studies Europeanization literature and comparative judicial systems The book focuses on countries having different status vis a vis the EU and differently involved in term of timing in the EU accession process some of them are new member states entered in 2004 Slovenia or in 2007 Romania others were until recently acceding countries Croatia or candidates to the membership Serbia This comparison allows investigation of the power of EU conditionality in different phases of the EU enlargement process Lisbon rising Pedro Ramos Pinto, 2015-11-01

Lisbon rising explores the role of a widespread urban social movement in the revolutionary process that accompanied Portugal's transition from authoritarianism to democracy It is the first in depth study of the widest urban movement of the European post war period an event that shook the balance of Cold War politics by threatening the possibility of revolution in Western Europe Using hitherto unknown sources produced by movement organisations themselves it challenges long established views of civil society in Southern Europe as weak arguing that popular movements had an important and autonomous role in the process that led to democratisation inviting us to rethink the history and theories of transitions in the region in ways that account for popular agency Lisbon rising will be of interest not only to students of twentieth century European history but across disciplines to students of democratisation social movements and citizenship in political science and sociology

Negative Emotions and Transitional Justice Mihaela Mihai, 2016-03-22 Vehement resentment and indignation are pervasive in societies emerging from dictatorship or civil conflict How can institutions channel these emotions without undermining the prospects for democracy Emphasizing the need to recognize and constructively engage negative public emotions Mihaela Mihai contributes theoretically and practically to the growing field of transitional justice Drawing on an extensive philosophical literature and case studies of democratic transitions in South Africa South America and Eastern Europe her book rescues negative emotions from their bad reputation and highlights the obstacles and the opportunities

such emotions create for democracy By valorizing negative emotions either through the judicial review of transitional justice bills or the criminal trials of victimizers institutions realize the value of respect and concern for all while contributing to a culture that is hospitable to democracy The Transformation of the Organization of American States Betty Horwitz,2011 This book explores the extent and significance of the transformation of the Organisation of American States since 1991 its roots the reasons for and extent of its emergence and the role that the organisation currently plays in the promotion of regional governance in the two key issue areas of security and the defense and promotion of democratic norms and principles of good governance By assessing where the OAS has succeeded and failed Horwitz provides an in depth explanation of how cooperation and consensus works in the Inter American system The Transformation of Property Regimes and Transitional Justice in Central Eastern Europe Liviu Damşa,2017-01-03 This volume examines the property transformations in post communist Central Eastern Europe CEE and focuses on the role of restitution and privatisation in such transformations It argues that the theorisation of restitution in post communist CEE is incomplete in the transitional justice scholarship and in the literature on correction of historical wrongs The book also argues that for a more complete theorisation of post communist restitution the transformations of property in post communist societies ought to be studied in a more holistic way The main legal vehicles used for such transformations privatisation and restitution should not be studied separately and in abstract but in their reciprocal relationship and in connection to the dimension of justice which each could achieve Finally the book integrates privatisation in a theory of post communist transformation of property Politics in Southeast Asia William Case,2013-09-13 This volume provides an introduction to the politics of the five key southeast Asian states Malaysia Singapore Indonesia Thailand and the Philippines and is intended as a textbook for undergraduate and graduate students taking courses on this subject Using a comparative politics and political economy perspective the author focuses in particular on the degree of democracy in the five countries arguing that in all the countries considered democracy is to varying degrees imperfect The book synthesises a wide range of scholarship and presents the material in a concise and accessible way
