Thoughts on redesigning tribal education

D. C. Nanjunda,2008 India is a multi racial country Different parts have different cultural traits and levels of development It is not uncommon to find that there are certain tribes which are not yet touched even by the fringe of civilization Aboriginal are examples of this The word tribe is taken to denote a primary aggregate of people lining under primitive or barbarous condition under a headman or chief Tribes is a group of families living as a community under one or more chiefs united by language and customs The main and vital objective of this volume is to make in the book a few selected articles that represent some kind of contributions to the knowledge of tribal education While writing the articles I have tried completely to emphasis on concept principles and applied aspects of tribal education This volume will be highly useful to faculty members researchers policy makers local self govt and NGOs working on tribal development and to the general public
