Old Age John Vincent, 2003-12-08 Recent decades have seen a fundamental change in the age structure of many western societies In these societies it is now common for a fifth to a quarter of the population to be retired for fewer babies to be born than is required to sustain the size of the population and for life expectancy to exceed eighty years old This book provides an overview of the key issues arising from this demographic change Problems of the Aged in Unorganised Sector Amarjit Mahajan, P. N. Mohanty, Ram Singh, Arunima, 1987 Study of the Old Age Pension Scheme in Haryana Critical Issues in Social Work With Older People Mo G. Ray, Miriam Bernard, Judith Phillips, 2018-06-26 This timely text highlights the importance of informed and critical practice in social work with older people With an emphasis on reflection throughout it argues for the need to rethink how social workers support some of the most vulnerable people in society The text begins with an exploration of the relationship between gerontology the study of aging and social work and demonstrates that a gerontological approach has long been missing from social work practice The central chapters consider key issues affecting older people and social work practice such as Risk of poverty Memory loss and dementia Palliative and end of life care Loss and bereavement Moving into a care home Bringing together theoretical and research insights this agenda setting text provides a sound base for creative practice with older people All those looking to make a positive and discernible difference to older people will find this text rewarding reading Care-Related Quality of Life in Old Age Marja Vaarama, Richard Pieper, Andrew Sixsmith, 2007-10-27 The ageing of populations across the world poses a crucial challenge for the twenty first century Society faces three major changes firstly increasing numbers of active older people demanding new social structures and opportunities secondly increasing numbers of frail or disabled older people requiring new interventions and improved health and social care with resulting economic consequences and finally complex economic technological organisational and social challenges involved in the ageing of society If society wants to benefit from these changes innovative social organisational and technological responses are needed This book presents the findings of the Care Keys project Keys for Quality Performance Management of the Care of Older Persons in Europe and is an example of how research can respond to the challenges outlined above Care Keys was the fruit of European Union research funding made possible under the Quality of Life and Management of Living Resources specific programme 1 1998 2002 under the EC's Fifth Framework Programme for Research Technological Development and Demonstration The activity promoting such research was Key Action 6 on the Ageing Population and their Disabilities Politics and Old Age: Older Citizens and Political Processes in Britain John A. Vincent, Guy Patterson, Karen Wale, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 Older people have been characterized by two mutually contradictory stereotypes One the one hand they have been portrayed as a powerful lobby growing demographically and able to demand large redistributions of the nation's income in their direction On the other hand they have been typified as a marginalized group at high risk of poverty and exclusion and in a political context largely powerless This book examines using original research conducted by the Older People and Politics Project OPPOL within

Exeter University's Sociology Department the reality of the impact of the increasing number of older people on the British political process The project had three main investigative concerns how effective are pressure groups and lobbyists for older people how is the power and influence of older people perceived by older people themselves and the general public and how are politicians responding to older people and their needs Role of Sahaja Yoga in Old Age Dr.Ritu Bhatia,2023-06-24
