Process Metaphysics and Hua-Yen Buddhism Steve Odin, 1983-06-30 This study establishes a comprehensive transcultural dialogue between Whitehead's process metaphysics and East Asian Hua yen Buddhism including both the profound parallels and the doctrinal debates that arise between these two traditions To advance this dialogue Dr Odin has called upon several other Western hermeneutical systems in order to radically reinterpret Hua yen modes of thought phenomenology depth psychology linguistic analysis and dialectical discourse Of special interest is Dr Odin's exposition of Korean Hua yen or Hwaom Buddhism including a full translation of the famous Ocean Seal with Autocommentary composed by Uisang 625-702 the first patriarch of Korean Hua yen Buddhism This is the first published translation of a major Korean Buddhist's treatise into English

Process Metaphysics and Hua-yen Buddhism Steve Odin, 1995 Whitehead's Metaphysics of Extension and Solidarity Jorge Luis Nobo, 1986-06-30 At the base of Whitehead's philosophy of organism is a vision of the solidarity of all final actualities Each actuality is a discrete individual enjoying autonomous self determination yet each also requires all other actualities as essential components and partial determinants of its own nature This vision of universal solidarity Nobo demonstrates is the fundamental metaphysical thesis whose truth the categories and principles of Whitehead's philosophy were expressly designed to elucidate The received interpretations of Whitehead's thought Nobo shows have ignored the mutual relevance of the solidarity thesis and the organic categoreal scheme and for that reason have grossly misrepresented many of Whitehead's most important metaphysical doctrines Contending that the difficult tasks of interpreting and developing Whitehead's metaphysics presuppose an understanding of the solidarity thesis Nobo explores that thesis and the metaphysical categories and principles most relevant to its elucidation In the process he not only corrects many misinterpretations but also develops important metaphysical doctrines that Whitehead neglected to make sufficiently explicit in his published writings It is precisely in terms of the neglected doctrine of eternal extensive continuity Nobo demonstrates that the more puzzling aspects of the solidarity thesis are satisfactorily explained He then shows that the extensional solidarity of all final actualities is an essential ingredient of the generalized conception of experience on which Whitehead builds his ontology cosmology and epistemology

The Becoming of God Roland Faber, 2017-04-06 How should we believe in God today If we look beyond our little lives to the vast cosmos we may even ask Why all that And even if we spiritually feel the universe Why believe any religion After all there are many and haven't they contributed to the predicament of humanity Process theology gives provocative answers to these questions how we are bound by the organic cycles of this world but how in this web of life God shines even in the last least and forgotten event as the Eros of its becoming and as its mirror of greatness why anything exists because it is from beauty for harmony and intensity and through a consciousness of peace rising from our deepest intuitions of existence We can change not only in our thoughts and lives but even in the way we experience this world This book introduces such a new way of experiencing thinking and living Based on the fascinating work on cosmology religion and civilization of Alfred North Whitehead this book develops the main theses of process theology and elucidates it as a theopoetics of mutual care for the unexpected the excluded the forgotten and a future society of peace A Companion to Buddhist Philosophy Steven M.
