Air Ministry, 1979      Gliders of World War II: 'The Bastards No One Wanted' Major Michael H. Manion, 2015-11-06 This study examines the role of combat gliders in Germany the United Kingdom and the United States during World War II WWII This thesis compares and contrasts each country with respect to pre WWII glider experience glider and airborne doctrine glider pilot training and glider production while outlining each country s major glider operations The author then compares the glider operations in the China Burma India Theater to the operations in Europe to describe the unique challenges based on the terrain and mission Next this thesis presents an analysis of the glider s precipitous decline following WWII The study concludes with recommendations for glider operations in the future based on the experiences of the past      Arnhem The Fight to Sustain Frank Steer, 2000-10-21 On the ground the airborne logisticians at the battle of Arnhem fought to the bitter end indistinguishable from their paratroop comrades In the air their deeds and sacrifice were shining examples of duty done under the most desperate circumstances Witness the account of Flight Lieutenant H J King navigator of Dakota KG 374 of 271 squadron RAF Down Ampney These men were not volunteers like aircrew They received no flying pay yet were without doubt superb in their fulfilment of duty even though KG 374 was burning for the whole period over the dropping zone Arnhem The Fight To Sustain tells the stirring story of the men and the methods employed in sustaining 1st Airborne Division It is the first account of forming corps of today s Royal Logistic Corps in action together Following extensive research the story draws heavily on contemporary documents and eyewitness accounts and is lavishly illustrated      Gunners from the Sky Paul Chrystal, David Chrystal, 2023-10-12 This is the story of the 1st Air Landing Light Regiment RA and its role in the Italian campaign and at the Battle of Arnhem It is also the story of one of its soldiers 14283058 Gunner Eric Wright Chrystal father of the authors Eric joined the army in September 1942 and after training joined the newly formed glider borne regiment the following year He first saw action in Italy in 1943 where he was seriously wounded On 17 September 1944 two years to the day since he enlisted he and the regiment were landed by glider near to Arnhem in the Netherlands The authors recount set their father s experiences in context by describing the formation of the unit and the many months of training in England Their involvement in the Italian campaign where Eric served with E Troop 3 Battery is then recounted detailing their actions at Rionero Foggia and Campobasso where Eric was wounded It then moves on to describe 1st Air Landing Light Regiment s preparation for and involvement in Operation Market the Airborne half of Market Garden This very detailed account of the fighting highlights the regiment s pivotal but often neglected role near Arnhem bridge Here after nine days of intense combat Eric was among the many captured and held until the end of the war The inclusion of Eric s own eyewitness testimony lends a very personal touch to this excellent account of the regiment s experience of combat and life in the PoW camps      The British Library General Catalogue of Printed
