Reflections on Jesus and Socrates Paul W. Gooch, 1996-01-01 Living more than four centuries apart in very different cultures Jesus and Socrates wrote nothing themselves but they inspired their followers to set down words that continue to shape Western consciousness In this deeply personal and provocative meditation Paul Gooch reflects on enduring themes that arise from the lives of these two pivotal figures death and witness silence as the limit of language prayer obedience and love Focusing on the Jesus of the Gospels and the Socrates of Plato s dialogues Gooch does not debate the historical realities of either figure but seeks to understand their fundamental commitments to philosophy and to God drawing parallels and contrasts that invite deeper reflection upon our own lives and experiences Throughout this book Gooch tells and retells the stories of Socrates and Jesus as he examines perennial human issues why would anyone willingly die To what do these two martyrlike deaths bear witness What are the limits of words in explanation and defense Why was Jesus silent during his trial Why did Socrates most powerful apologia fail What words if any work in prayer Do words work against the fear of death Out of this philosophical and religious questioning Reflections on Jesus and Socrates throws new light on these two compelling figures and on the continuing meanings of their stories for us today

Reflections of the Christ Mind Paul Ferrini,2000-07-25 For Paul Ferrini there was a time when the very thought of Jesus left him cold Instead of embodying the truth of Jesus teaching Christianity seemed to harbor the fearful thoughts and actions of people who were more committed to self interest than to unconditional love So when Ferrini felt Jesus voice inside him saying I want you to acknowledge me he resisted In time however he came to realize that it was not Jesus he was rejecting but the untruths that had become attached to Christian teaching Responding to the inner voice did not mean merely acknowledging Jesus as some great teacher who lived in the past but also meant that he was opening himself up to a living presence within his own awareness Once Ferrini reached this reconciliation powerful words of spiritual truth began to flow through him Reflections of the Christ Mind presents the most important teachings the author has received through his spiritual awakening Here at last is a gospel devoted solely to Jesus teachings of love healing and forgiveness The teacher readers meet in these pages is both compassionate and open minded he is the Jesus Christians know in their hearts Repudiating religious hypocrisy intolerance and spiritual pride Ferrini rejects the dogmatic position of the Church offering instead words of hope and healing that form the new gospel for today Praying with Jesus Eugene H.
