Nation Insane The Plight Of African Children:

Nation Insane! Leo E. O. Aiyobe, 2004 Life in Africa is not easy for less privileged ones That is what the story of Ojie is about How he grew up in a rived family and his courageous steps to survive in a world where abuse and hunger are the key words Having recovered from the tragedy his aim was to travel to Europe in search of a better life unfortunately Russia was the first country he stepped into His disappointment was great since he envisaged a different kind of Europe At the end he could make the trip to Belgium where his life as a refugee started A few years later he visited back home Nigeria with his Belgian wife A new disappointment came across his heart he found it hard to bear that Nigeria a nation blessed with oil could not care for her people where life for ordinary people is unbearable The lack of basic necessities as clean water constant electricity health care good roads and education is a shame for a country like Nigeria Cultural Sociology of the Middle East, Asia, and Africa Andrea L. Stanton, 2012 In our age of globalization and multiculturalism it has never been more important to understand and appreciate all cultures across the world The four volumes take a step forward in this endeavour by presenting concise information on those regions least well known to students across Europe the Middle East Asia and Africa The volumes convey what daily life is like for people in these selected regions Entries will aid readers in understanding the importance of cultural sociology to appreciate the effects of cultural forces around the world and to learn the history of countries and cultures within these important regions Key Features Topics are explored within historical context in three broad historical periods prehistory to 1250 1250 to 1920 and 1920 to the present One volume each is devoted to the regions of the Middle East and Africa and then one volume to East and Southeast Asia and a final volume to West Central and South Asia The volumes include extensive use of photographs and maps to explain cultural and geographic content Each volume has its own volume editor with expertise in that particular region Key Themes Arts Culture and Science People Society and Dynasties Religion and Law Family and Daily Life Conflicts and Wars Politics and Government Health and Education Economy Trade and Industry National Geography and History South Africa and the Nigerian Prodigy Leo O. Aiyobe, 2013 The book you are about to read consists of three parts the first handles Nigeria s contribution in fighting Apartheid in South Africa The second part tells a story about Mbeki s family that was systematically wiped off by cancer and other related sicknesses The third part deals with uncontrollable rape of women and murder in South Africa Plight and Fate of Women During and Following Genocide Samuel Totten, 2017-07-05 The plight and fate of female victims during the course of genocide is radically and profoundly different from their male counterparts Like males female victims suffer demonization ostracism discrimination and deprivation of their basic human rights They are often rounded up deported and killed But unlike most men women are subjected to rape gang rape and mass rape Such assaults and degradation can and often do result in horrible injuries to their reproductive systems and unwanted pregnancies This volume takes one stride towards assessing these grievances and argues against policies calculated to continue such indifference to great human suffering The horror and pain suffered by females does not end with the act of rape There is always the fear and reality of being infected with HIV AIDS Concomitantly there is the possibility of becoming pregnant Then there is the birth of the babies For some the very sight of the babies and children reminds mothers of the horrific violations they suffered When mothers harbor deep seated hatred or distain for such children it results in more misery The hatred may be so great that children born of rape leave home early in order to fend for themselves on the street This seventh volume in the Genocide series will provoke debate discussion reflection and ultimately action The issues presented include ongoing mass rape of girls and women during periods of war and genocide ostracism of female victims terrible psychological and physical wounds the plight of offspring resulting from rapes and the critical need for medical and psychological services The Fate of Africa Martin Meredith,2005-07-05 Traces the history of Africa in the fifty years since the independence era began describing how the withdrawal of Europe s colonial powers influenced the African people and culture The Country of Lost Children Peter Pierce,1999-06-07 This book traces the figure of the lost child in Australia s history and imagination Perception of Reality and the Fate of a Civilization Richard J. Robertson,2003-11-18 Many observers of the world scene in recent decades have raised questions about the future of Western Civilization and the United States as the foremost exemplar They see us locked in tangles of inconsistent intentions and self contradictory efforts to remedy growing political and environmental problems This development may be an inevitable consequence of the evolution of first principles which deteriorate in a civilization as their implications are drawn out over time The process is one in which people behaving to maximise individual and social purposes competitively reinterpret their perceptions of reality until the culture stagnates from a deficiency of common purpose African Women Narrating Identity Rose A. Sackeyfio,2023-08-08 This book examines the complexities of women s lives in Africa and the transnational spaces of Europe and North America through the literary works of key African women writers Using a postcolonial analytical framework the book highlights the commonalities of African women s identities and experiences across national ethnic linguistic and religious boundaries in Africa and in western settings It collates the multi regional narratives of key African women writers who convey how women s lives are shaped by social economic and political factors at home and abroad It also illustrates the intersection of ethnicity class and gender that flows through all the texts examined Unlike existing works that explore African women s fiction this book uncovers the transformation from postcolonial themes of nationhood to global modalities of post independence writing through the lens of gender The book engages with feminist expression through broad themes including religion war and ethnic conflict women s status in society tradition and modernity and local and global tensions A unique approach to literary criticism of Anglophone African women s writing this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of African Literature African Studies Women s Literature Postcolonial Literature Cultural and Ethnic Studies and Migration and Diaspora Studies Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1995-10-03 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative
