Turning Dead Ends into Doorways Staci Boden, 2012-09-01. A healer's guide to accepting that we can't control everything and transforming our mindset to navigate the unknown. Whether we like it or not, control is an illusion. God and the universe laugh when we make plans. We can try hard to materialize something: a new job, the perfect body, trust, our dream partner, inner peace, without success. And sometimes life deals unexpected blows: illness, divorce, loss. Turning Dead Ends Into Doorways: How to Grow Through Whatever Life Throws Your Way introduces eight teachers to help us navigate the unknown in daily life: fear, awareness, choice, body intuition, energy, intention, and surrender. With compassionate honesty and a practical sense of humor, healing practitioner Staci Boden shows how to navigate change without clinging to false notions that if you just do this or think that you can determine what happens next, how to let go of false expectations and still make excellent choices, how to grow and heal no matter what life throws your way.

Fields in Motion Dena Davida, 2011-10-01. Fields in Motion: Ethnography in the Worlds of Dance examines the deeper meanings and resonances of artistic dance in contemporary culture. The book comprises four sections: methods and methodologies, autoethnography, pedagogies, and creative processes and choreographies as cultural and spiritual representations. The contributors bring an insider's insight to their accounts of the nature and function of these artistic practices, giving voice to dancers, dance teachers, creators, programmers, spectators, students, and scholars. International and intergenerational, this collection of groundbreaking scholarly research points to a new direction for both dance studies and dance anthropology. Traditionally the exclusive domain of aesthetic philosophers, the art of dance is here reframed as cultural practice, and its significance is revealed through a chorus of voices from practitioners and insider ethnographers.
