Working with Feminism: Curating and Exhibitions in Eastern Europe Angela Dimitrakaki, Katrin Kivimaa, Katja Kobolt, Izabela Kowalczyk, Pawel Leszkowicz, Suzana Milevska, Bojana Pejic, Rebeka Pöldsam, Mara Traumane, Airi Triisberg, Hedvig Turai, 2012 This edited collection bringing together art historians and curators working both in the East and the West of Europe is a result of a growing interest in the theorisation and historical analysis of feminist curating as a distinct practice with its own transnational history and politics In most former state socialist countries of Eastern Europe the emergence and public visibility of feminist curating and exhibitions usually dates back to the 1990s and is associated with the radical transformation of art practices ideologies and art systems as well as with wider socio political and intellectual changes and challenges of post socialist transition This history and its legacy is addressed in this book through national and regional case studies ranging from the Baltics to the Balkans An equally significant part of the book is dedicated to the present and future of feminist curating as well as of other politicised forms of curatorial activities e g queer curating In addition to the theoretical or historical accounts presented the collection includes two highly relevant interviews with curators Bojana Pejic on the block buster exhibition Gender Check 2009 2010 in Vienna and Warsaw and Airi Triisberg and Rebeka Pöldsam on Untold Stories 2011 the first international queer exhibition in Tallinn Estonia

Feminisms is Still Our Name Malin Hedley Hayden, Jessica Sjöholm Skrubbe, 2020-05-22 Feminisms have played a crucial part in art art history and curatorial practices over the last forty years Hence it is by now imperative to scrutinize the history of feminist theories and methods within both fields Feminisms is Still Our Name is an anthology that critically debates the current status of feminisms in visual art and its relation to past art histories and possible feminist futures It brings together essays by leading scholars in order to meet the urgent need both for a critical historiography and for re vitalizations of feminist practices within written as well as visual narratives of modern and contemporary art From a variety of perspectives the editors and contributors to this book initiate a much needed debate about possible strategies for a renewal of feminisms in art history and curating At the same time it demonstrates the necessity of further explorations and research into the diversity of feminist pasts Indeed this volume provides strong arguments that historiographical critique is an inevitable part of any future feminism s In providing fresh approaches to such important fields as feminist art history and feminist curating the essays assembled in Feminisms is Still Our Name will provoke fruitful discussion about the relation between academic and curatorial feminist practices

The arc and the machine Caroline Bassett, 2013-07-19 The Arc and the machine is a timely and original defence of narrative in an age of information Stressing interpretation and experience alongside affect and sensation it convincingly argues that narrative is key to contemporary forms of cultural production and to the practice of contemporary life Re appraising the prospects for narrative in the digital age it insists on the centrality of narrative to informational culture and provokes a critical re appraisal of how innovations in information technology as a material cultural form can be understood and assessed The book offers a careful exploration of narrative theory a sophisticated critique of techno cultural writing and a series of tightly focused case studies All of which point the way to a restoration of a critical rather than celebratory approaches to new media The scope and range of this book is broad its argumentation careful and exacting and its conclusions exciting

Shadowlands Meike Wulf, 2016-01-01 Located within the forgotten half of Europe historically trapped between Germany and Russia Estonia has been profoundly shaped by the violent conflicts and shifting political fortunes of the last century This innovative study traces the tangled interaction of Estonian historical memory and national identity in a sweeping analysis extending from the Great War to the present day At its heart is the enduring anguish of World War Two and the subsequent half century of Soviet rule Shadowlands tells this story by foregrounding the experiences of the country's intellectuals who were instrumental in sustaining Estonian historical memory but who until fairly recently could not openly grapple with their nation's complex difficult past

Media Studies Sue Thornham, Caroline Bassett, Paul Marris, 2009 Why are some people more capable than others What are the reasons for someone gaining unusual abilities or special expertise or being especially creative What has to happen in order for a young person to become a child prodigy or genius How can we help today's children to reach high levels of ability and to shine in the arts or the sciences in sports or games or to excel in other fields of expertise The Psychology of High Abilities explains how when and why people acquire such special expertise and illuminates ways to make it possible for larger numbers of young people to extend their capabilities Examining how and why people differ in their capabilities it investigates the actual causes underlying impressive accomplishments and achievements The volume reveals the kinds of influences that contribute to high abilities and provides practical insights into the most effective ways for extending the abilities of young people and creating higher levels of expertise
