Problem Of Space In Jewish Medieval Philosophy:

The Problem of Space in Jewish Mediaeval Philosophy, 1916 New Directions in Jewish Philosophy Aaron W. Hughes, Elliot R. Wolfson, 2010 Breaking with strictly historical or textual perspectives this book explores Jewish philosophy as philosophy Often regarded as too technical for Judaic studies and too religious for philosophy departments Jewish philosophy has had an ambiguous position in the academy These provocative essays propose new models for the study of Jewish philosophy that embrace wider intellectual arenas including linguistics poetics aesthetics and visual culture as a path toward understanding the particular philosophic concerns of Judaism As they reread classic Jewish texts the essays articulate a new set of questions and demonstrate the vitality and originality of Jewish philosophy Problem of Space in Jewish Medieval Philosophy Israel I. Efros, 1917 A History of Jewish Philosophy in the Middle Ages Colette Sirat, 1990-11-30 Jewish medieval philosophy has formed the subject of much research over the past thirty years since the appearance of Gutmann's Philosophies of Judaism resulting in greater understanding and a new need for summation This important work now available in paperback aims to supply that need and devotes ample discussion to the major figures of the period like Saadiah Gaon Maimonides Abraham Ibn Ezra and Judah Halevi It also gives much attention to the discussion and presentation of texts by lesser known authors clustering around the greater men and movements The Problem of Space in Jewish Mediaeval Philosophy Israel Efros, 1917 The Harvard Theological Review, 1919 A Comparative History of World Philosophy Ben-Ami Scharfstein, 1998-02-27 A Comparative History of World Philosophy presents a personal yet balanced guide through what the author argues to be the three great philosophical traditions Chinese European and Indian The book breaks through the cultural barriers between these traditions proving that despite their considerable differences fundamental resemblances exist in their abstract principles Ben Ami Scharfstein argues that Western students of philosophy will profit considerably if they study Indian and Chinese philosophy from the very beginning along with their own Written with clarity and infused with an engaging narrative voice this book is organized thematically presenting in virtually every chapter characteristic views from each tradition that represent similar positions in the core areas of metaphysics and epistemology At the same time Scharfstein develops each tradition historically as the chapters unfold He presents a great variety of philosophical positions fairly avoiding the relativism and ethnocentrism that could easily plague a comparative presentation of Western and non Western philosophies The Problem of Space in Jewish Mediaeval Philosophy Israel Efros, The Problem of Space in Jewish Mediaeval Philosophy \(Classic Reprint\) Israel Isaac Efros, 2016-09-23 Excerpt from The Problem of Space in Jewish Mediaeval Philosophy Such are the difficulties which present themselves in connexion with the notion of space The deeper the mind delves into the problem the greater the tangle It is one of the sphinxes in the deserts of thought From the dawn of Speculation we find Space to be one of the most prominent objects of investigation Zeno Plato and Aristotle bent their great intellects on the solution of space colossal systems of science were reared on the notion of space Yet the meaning of space has remained a mystery till the present day Indeed the difficulties seem to increase with the time It would be preposterous of course to claim that the Jews were cognizant of all these difficulties that the modern era has introduced If we turn to examine the views on space maintained by the two greatest of Greek thinkers who had such an enormous influence on Jewish thought we will get a notion of the type of problems that we will have to deal with in the following chapters In addition it will present us the sources and the starting point for the views that are to be discussed in this study About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Jewish Quarterly Review, 1925 Bloch's Book Bulletin, 1929 Sanctuary in the Wilderness Alan Mintz, 2011-12-14 The effort to create a serious Hebrew literature in the United States in the years around World War I is one of the best kept secrets of American Jewish history Hebrew had been revived as a modern literary language in nineteenth century Russia and then taken to Palestine as part of the Zionist revolution But the overwhelming majority of Jewish emigrants from Eastern Europe settled in America and a passionate kernel among them believed that Hebrew provided the vehicle for modernizing the Jewish people while maintaining their connection to Zion These American Hebraists created schools journals newspapers and most of all a high literary culture focused on producing poetry Sanctuary in the Wilderness is a critical introduction to American Hebrew poetry focusing on a dozen key poets This secular poetry began with a preoccupation with the situation of the individual in a disenchanted world and then moved outward to engage American vistas and Jewish fate and hope in midcentury American Hebrew poets hoped to be read in both Palestine and America but were disappointed on both scores Several moved to Israel and connected with the vital literary scene there but most stayed and persisted in the cause of American Hebraism

The Princeton Theological Review, 1916 Includes section Reviews of recent literature The Jewish Year Book, 1927 Problem of Space in Jewish Mediaeval Philosophy Israel Efros, 2013-01-12 Hardcover Textbook Forming the Mind Henrik Lagerlund, 2007-07-20 This book deals with the internal senses the mind body problem and other problems associated with the concept of mind as it developed from Avicenna to the medical Enlightenment The book collects essays from scholars in this promising field of research It brings together scholars working on the same issues in the Arabic Jewish and Western philosophical traditions This collection opens up new and interesting perspectives The Problem of Space in Jewish Mediaeval Philosophy Efros Israel, 2019-03-04 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore
