Rivista degli studi orientali ,1916      Encountering the Medieval in Modern Jewish Thought James A. Diamond,Aaron W. Hughes,2012-08-01 The term medieval performs a great deal more intellectual work in modern Jewish Thought than simply acting as a referent to a particular historical era During the nineteenth century often for Jews who were increasingly alienated from their own tradition the medieval functioned primarily as a bearer of identity in a rapidly changing and secular world Each chapter in Encountering the Medieval in Modern Jewish Thought addresses a different return to the medieval ranging from the Enlightenment to the contemporary period that clothed itself in the language of renewal and of retrieval The volume engages the full complexity and range of meaning the term medieval carries for modern Jewish Thought      The United States Catalog ,1921      Bibliothèque de l'École des chartes ,1918 Bulletin bibliographique in each number 1839 1840 1848 1849 Bibliographie including Livres nouveaux titles numbered continuously for each year in each number 1849 1959      Bibliothèque de l'Ecole des Chartes ,1918      Cumulated Magazine Subject Index, 1907-1949: Jewf-Z

Frederick Winthrop Faxon,1964      Time Matters T.M. Rudavsky,2012-02-01 Despite the importance of time and cosmology to Western thought surprisingly little attention has been paid to these issues in histories of Jewish philosophy Focusing on how medieval philosophers constructed a philosophical theology that was sensitive to religious constraints and yet also incorporated compelling elements of science and philosophy T M Rudavsky traces the development of the concepts of time cosmology and creation in the writings of Ibn Gabirol Maimonides Gersonides Crescas Spinoza and others      Classified Index to Volumes I-XX, 1909 [i.e. 1910] to 1930 of The Jewish Quarterly Review, New Series ,1932      The United States Catalog Mary Burnham,Carol Hurd,1928      The United States Catalog Eleanor E. Hawkins,1921      The Cambridge Companion to Medieval Jewish Philosophy Daniel H. Frank,Oliver Leaman,2003-09-11 From the ninth to the fifteenth centuries Jewish thinkers living in Islamic and Christian lands philosophized about Judaism Influenced first by Islamic theological speculation and the great philosophers of classical antiquity and then in the late medieval period by Christian Scholasticism Jewish philosophers and scientists reflected on the nature of language about God the scope and limits of human understanding the eternity or createdness of the world prophecy and divine providence the possibility of human freedom and the relationship between divine and human law Though many viewed philosophy as a dangerous threat others incorporated it into their understanding of what it is to be a Jew This Companion presents all the major Jewish thinkers of the period the philosophical and non philosophical contexts of their thought and the interactions between Jewish and non Jewish philosophers It is a comprehensive introduction to a vital period of Jewish intellectual history      The United States Catalog Supplement, January 1918-June 1921 Eleanor E. 1912 H.W. Wilson Company,1921      The Bible and Jews in Medieval Spain Norman Roth,2021-03-29 The Bible and Jews in Medieval Spain examines the grammatical exegetical philosophical and mystical interpretations of the Bible that took place in Spain during the medieval period The Bible was the foundation of Jewish culture in medieval Spain Following the scientific analysis of Hebrew grammar which emerged in al Andalus in the ninth and tenth centuries biblical exegesis broke free of homiletic interpretation and explored the text on grammatical and contextual terms While some of the earliest commentary was in Arabic scholars began using Hebrew more regularly during this period The first complete biblical commentaries in Hebrew were written by Abraham Ibn Ezra and this set the standard for the generations that followed This book analyses the approach and unique contributions of these commentaries moving on to those of later Christian Spain including the Qimhi family Nahmanides and his followers and the esoteric mystical tradition Major topics in the commentaries are compared and contrasted Thus a unified picture of the whole fabric of Hebrew commentary in medieval Spain emerges In addition the book describes the many Spanish Jewish biblical manuscripts that have remained and details the history of printed editions and Spanish translations for Jews and Christians by medieval Spanish Jews This book will appeal to scholars and students of medieval Spain as well as those interested in the history of religion and cultural history
