Parallel Processing and Applied Mathematics Roman Wyrzykowski, Jack Dongarra, Marcin Paprzycki, Jerzy Wasniewski, 2004-04-14 It is our pleasure to provide you with the volume containing the proceedings of the 5th International Conference on Parallel Processing and Applied Mathematics which was held in Czestochowa a Polish city famous for its Jasna Gora Monastery on September 7-10 2003 The first PPAM conference was held in 1994 and was organized by the Institute of Mathematics and Computer Science of the Czestochowa University of Technology in its hometown The main idea behind the event was to provide a forum for researchers involved in applied and computational mathematics and parallel computing to exchange ideas in a relaxed atmosphere Conference organizers hoped that this arrangement would result in cross pollination and lead to successful research collaborations In addition they hoped that the initially mostly Polish conference would grow into an international event The fact that these assumptions were correct was proven by the growth of the event While the first conference consisted of 41 presentations the conference reached 150 participants in November 2001 In this way the PPAM conference has become one of the premiere Polish conferences and definitely the most important one in the area of parallel distributed computing and applied mathematics This year's meeting gathered almost 200 participants from 32 countries A strict refereeing process resulted in the acceptance of approximately 150 contributed presentations while the rejection rate was approximately 33% Ad Hoc Wireless Networking Xiuzhen Cheng, Xiao Huang, Ding-Zhu Du, 2013-12-01 Wireless networking enables two or more computers to communicate using standard network protocols without network cables Since their emergence in the 1970s wireless networks have become increasingly popular in the computing industry In the past decade wireless networks have enabled true mobility There are currently two versions of mobile wireless networks An infrastructure network contains a wired backbone with the last hop being wireless The cellular phone system is an example of an infrastructure network A multihop ad hoc wireless network has no infrastructure and is thus entirely wireless A wireless sensor network is an example of a multihop ad hoc wireless network Ad hoc wireless networking is a technique to support robust and efficient operation in mobile wireless networks by incorporating routing functionality into mobile hosts This technique will be used to realize the dream of anywhere and anytime computing which is termed mobile computing Mobile computing is a new paradigm of computing in which users carrying portable devices have access to shared infrastructure in any location at any time Mobile computing is a very challenging topic for scientists in computer science and electrical engineering The representative system for ad hoc wireless networking is called MANET an acronym for Mobile Ad hoc NETWORKS MANET is an autonomous system consisting of mobile hosts connected by wireless links which can be quickly deployed

Service-Oriented Computing - ICSOC 2005 Boualem Benatallah,Fabio Casati,Paolo Traverso,2005-11-29 This volume contains the proceedings of the Third International Conference on Service Oriented Computing ICSOC 2005 that took place in Amsterdam The Netherlands December 12 15 2005 The 2005 edition had the important and ambitious goal of bringing together the different communities working in Web services and service oriented computing By attracting excellent contributions from different scientific communities ICSOC aims at creating a scientific venue where participants can share ideas and compare their approaches to tackling the many still open common research challenges The commitment to cross area fertilization was put into practice by having a very diversified Program Committee and by the presence of several area coordinators leaders in the respective communities who encouraged and supervised submissions in each area This is also the first edition to feature a successful workshop and demo program with selected demos also presented in a paper like fashion so that they get the attention they deserve In addition ICSOC 2005 inherited from previous editions a strong industrial presence both in the conference organization and in the program This is very important due to the industrial relevance and the many challenges of service oriented technologies

Hardware/Software Co-design for

Heterogeneous Multi-core Platforms Koen Bertels, 2012-02-02 HW SW Co Design for Heterogeneous Multi Core Platforms describes the results and outcome of the FP6 project which focuses on the development of an integrated tool chain targeting a heterogeneous multi core platform comprising of a general purpose processor ARM or powerPC a DSP the diopsis and an FPGA The tool chain takes existing source code and proposes transformations and mappings such that legacy code can easily be ported to a modern multi core platform Downloadable software will be provided for simulation purposes Parallel Computing: Fundamentals, Applications and New Directions E.H. D'Hollander, G.R. Joubert, Frans Peters, Ulrich Trottenberg, 1998-07-22 This volume gives an overview of the state of the art with respect to the development of all types of parallel computers and their application to a wide range of problem areas The international conference on parallel computing ParCo97 Parallel Computing 97 was held in Bonn Germany from 19 to 22 September 1997 The first conference in this biannual series was held in 1983 in Berlin Further conferences were held in Leiden The Netherlands London UK Grenoble France and Gent Belgium From the outset the aim with the ParCo Parallel Computing conferences was to promote the application of parallel computers to solve real life problems In the case of ParCo97 a new milestone was reached in that more than half of the papers and posters presented were concerned with application aspects This fact reflects the coming of age of parallel computing Some 200 papers were submitted to the Program Committee by authors from all over the world The final programme consisted of four invited papers 71 contributed scientific industrial papers and 45 posters In addition a panel discussion on Parallel Computing and the Evolution of Cyberspace was held During and after the conference all final contributions were refereed Only those papers and posters accepted during this final screening process are included in this volume The practical emphasis of the conference was accentuated by an industrial exhibition where companies demonstrated the newest developments in parallel processing equipment and software Speakers from participating companies presented papers in industrial sessions in which new developments in parallel computing were reported Handbook on Securing Cyber-Physical Critical Infrastructure Sajal K Das, Krishna Kant, Nan Zhang, 2012-01-25 The worldwide reach of the Internet allows malicious cyber criminals to coordinate and launch attacks on both cyber and cyber physical infrastructure from anywhere in the world This purpose of this handbook is to introduce the theoretical foundations and practical solution techniques for securing critical cyber and physical infrastructures as well as their underlying computing and communication architectures and systems Examples of such infrastructures include utility networks e g electrical power grids ground transportation systems automotives roads bridges and tunnels airports and air traffic control systems wired and wireless communication and sensor networks systems for storing and distributing water and food supplies medical and healthcare delivery systems as well as financial banking and commercial transaction assets The handbook focus mostly on the scientific foundations and engineering techniques while also addressing the proper integration of policies and access control mechanisms for example how human developed policies can be properly enforced by an automated system Addresses the technical challenges facing design of secure infrastructures by providing examples of problems and solutions from a wide variety of internal and external attack scenarios Includes contributions from leading researchers and practitioners in relevant application areas such as smart power grid intelligent transportation systems healthcare industry and so on Loaded with examples of real world problems and pathways to solutions utilizing specific tools and techniques described in detail throughout

Digital Image Analysis Walter Kropatsch, Horst Bischof, 2006-05-10 The human visual system as a functional unit including the eyes the nervous system and the corresponding parts of the brain certainly ranks among the most important means of human information processing The efficiency of the biological systems is beyond the capabilities of today's technical systems even with the fastest available computer systems However there are areas of application where digital image analysis systems produce acceptable results Systems in these areas solve very specialized tasks they operate in a limited environment and high speed is often not necessary Several factors determine the economical application of technical vision systems cost speed exhibility robustness functionality and integration with other system components Many of the recent developments in digital image processing and pattern recognition show some of the required achievements Computer vision enhances the capabilities of computer systems in autonomously collecting large amounts of data in extracting relevant information in perceiving its environment and in automatic or semiautomatic operation in this environment The development of computer systems in general shows a steadily increasing need in computational power which comes with decreasing hardware costs

On-line Monitoring Systems and Computer Tool Interoperability Thomas Ludwig, 2003 Ludwig Institut für Informatik Ruprecht Karls Universität Heidelberg Germany and Miller computer science U of Wisconsin US present five papers examining the construction and methodology of tools for debugging and performance analysis in parallel programs After a review of the past decade's work in debuggers and performance analyzers papers look at tool infrastructure an operational tool environment for multi thread and multi process debugging and execution visualization multi execution performance tuning and the specification of performance properties of parallel applications using compound events
