The book explains the genesis of the current regime placing it in the international and regional context. It also provides a chapter by chapter analysis of the current law explaining and analysing key concepts, the statutory framework and individual offences, the developing case law, the Suspicious Activity Reporting regime and problems in its implementation, terrorist financing and money laundering sentencing, civil recovery and confiscation and jurisdictional issues. They conclude by looking at the practice of those tasked with prosecuting or defending offences by setting out the powers of investigation and prosecution under POCA and SOCPA and analysing the policy of the various prosecuting bodies and finally looking at the practicalities of defending, particularly in respect of parallel civil and criminal proceedings, funding and Human Rights Act considerations. Tough on Criminal Wealth Barbara Vettori, 2007-09-21 Based on the expertise of thirty leading experts on confiscation in the EU, this is the first book to analyse the practice of proceeds from crime confiscation in the original fifteen EU Member States. It examines the implementation of confiscation provisions in all three investigative, judicial and disposal phases of confiscation proceedings. It quantifies the enforcement of confiscation provisions in the EU using an innovative and unique methodology and thereby furnishes understanding of obstacles and best practices. The conclusion of the book is that the tough on criminal wealth philosophy is largely alien to the everyday practice of law enforcement agencies. Putting criminals behind bars is still the main aim of the system and most of the scarce resources available are devoted to achieving this. This title is of interest to academics and students in the fields of criminology, sociology and law as well as to law enforcement officers, public prosecutors and policymakers.
