Process And Difference Between Cosmological And Poststructuralist Postmodernisms:

Process and Difference Catherine Keller, Anne Daniell, 2012-02-01 The similarities and creative tensions between French based poststructuralism and Whiteheadian process thought are examined here by leading scholars Although both approaches are labeled postmodern their own proponents often take them to be so dissimilar as to be opposed Contributors to this book however argue that processing these differences of theory at a deeper level may cultivate fertile and innovative modes of reflection Through their comparisons contrasts and hybridizations of process and poststructuralist theories the contributors variously redefine concepts of divinity and cosmos advance the interaction between science and religion and engage the sex gender and religious ethics of otherness and subjectivity Postmodernism and Public Policy John B. Cobb Jr., 2012-02-01 One of America's preeminent systematic theologians John B Cobb Jr examines a range of social issues in his latest groundbreaking work Postmodernism and Public Policy Cobb uses a naturalistic postmodern perspective to make constructive proposals about a wide range of topics in the public eye Postmodernism and Public Policy shows how a postmodern Christianity can contribute positively to thinking about religious and cultural pluralism and how this can give direction to the educational enterprise It proposes ways of understanding sex gender and race that take diversity seriously without lapsing into a debilitating relativism that inhibits political action Arguing for a shift from individualism to thinking of persons in community it proposes that the world be organized from the bottom up in communities of communities and spells out what this implies for the political and economic orders and the relationship between them Cobb shows that formulations on all these topics can be coherently interconnected and he develops the implications of such thinking for some specific ethical and political issues that now trouble the United States such as abortion physician assisted suicide and homosexuality

Animation - Process, Cognition and Actuality Dan Torre, 2017-08-24 Animation Process Cognition and Actuality presents a uniquely philosophical and multi disciplinary approach to the scholarly study of animation by using the principles of process philosophy and Deleuzian film aesthetics to discuss animation practices from early optical devices to contemporary urban design and installations Some of the original theories presented are a process philosophy based theory of animation a cognitive theory of animation a new theoretical approach to the animated documentary an original investigative approach to animation and unique considerations as to the convergence of animation and actuality Numerous animated examples from all eras and representing a wide range of techniques and approaches including television shows and video games are examined such as Fantastic Mr Fox 2009 Madame Tutli Putli 2007 Gertie the Dinosaur 1914 The Peanuts Movie 2015 Grand Theft Auto V 2013 and Dr Katz Professional Therapist 1995 2000 Divided into three sections each to build logically upon each other Dan Torre first considers animation in terms of process and process philosophy which allows the reader to contemplate animation in a number of unique ways Torre then examines animation in more conceptual terms in comparing it to the processes of human cognition This is followed by an exploration of some of the ways in which we might interpret or read particular

aspects of animation such as animated performance stop motion anthropomorphism video games and various hybrid forms of animation He finishes by guiding the discussion of animation back to the more tangible and concrete as it considers animation within the context of the actual world With a genuinely distinctive approach to the study of animation Torre offers fresh philosophical and practical insights that prompt an engagement with the definitions and dynamics of the form and its current literature

Literary Worlds and Deleuze Zornitsa Dimitrova,2016-12-20 Literary Worlds and Deleuze contributes to debates on mimesis by offering an expressionist take on the matter of the generation of literary worlds in drama In examining postdramatic plays by Sarah Kane Martin Crimp Caryl Churchill and Laura Wade the book outlines a dynamic ontology of mimesis Rather than pertaining to a static ontology of being expressionist mimesis is generative and renews itself constantly without arriving at an entelechial end In exploring the fluxional field of forces and relations that underlie the order of representation expressionist mimesis is well suited to account for the ontologically uncertain realities of postdramatic theatre The concepts of expression and the event of sense Gilles Deleuze become part of a generative model that incorporates pre linguistic and supra conceptual constituents within the genesis of representation

Cloud of the Impossible Catherine Keller,2014-12-02 The experience of the impossible churns up in our epoch whenever a collective dream turns to trauma politically sexually economically and with a certain ultimacy ecologically Out of an ancient theological lineage the figure of the cloud comes to convey possibility in the face of the impossible An old mystical nonknowing of God now hosts a current knowledge of uncertainty of indeterminate and interdependent outcomes possibly catastrophic Yet the connectivity and collectivity of social movements of the fragile unlikely webs of an alternative notion of existence keep materializing a haunting hope densely entangled suggesting a more convivial relational world Catherine Keller brings process feminist and ecopolitical theologies into transdisciplinary conversation with continental philosophy the quantum entanglements of a participatory universe and the writings of Nicholas of Cusa Walt Whitman A N Whitehead Gilles Deleuze and Judith Butler to develop a theopoetics of nonseparable difference Global movements personal embroilments religious diversity the inextricable relations of humans and nonhumans these phenomena in their unsettling togetherness are exceeding our capacity to know and manage By staging a series of encounters between the nonseparable and the unknowable Keller shows what can be born from our cloudiest entanglement

Conditions of Comparison Ming Xie,2011-08-04 How do we know the other culture How do such inquiries impact on our knowledge of our own culture These questions lie at the heart of comparative intercultural studies As a theoretical inquiry into how conceptual resources of cultures such as explicit and implicit categories of thought may pre figure our perspectives this book re conceives and reorients comparative intercultural inquiry by arguing for the importance of an epistemological approach and for its potential to transform current critical paradigms in contrast to approaches that emphasize primarily the political and the ethical By critically engaging with and developing the insights of scholars and thinkers from both Anglo American and Continental traditions the book makes a significant meta critical contribution to a rethinking of comparative intercultural studies and literary theory It will be of interest to students and scholars in comparative literature English world literature and global and translation studies The Lure of Whitehead Nicholas Gaskill,A. J. Nocek,2014-10-01 Once largely ignored the speculative philosophy of Alfred North Whitehead has assumed a new prominence in contemporary theory across the humanities and social sciences Philosophers and artists literary critics and social theorists anthropologists and computer scientists have all embraced Whitehead s thought extending it through inquiries into the nature of life the problem of consciousness and the ontology of objects as well as into experiments in education and digital media The Lure of Whitehead offers readers not only a comprehensive introduction to Whitehead s philosophy but also a demonstration of how his work advances our emerging understanding of life in the posthuman epoch Contributors Jeffrey A Bell Southeastern Louisiana U Nathan Brown U of California Davis Peter Canning Didier Debaise Free U of Brussels Roland Faber Claremont Lincoln U Michael Halewood U of Essex Graham Harman American U in Cairo Bruno Latour Sciences Po Paris Erin Manning Concordia U Montreal Steven Meyer Washington U Luciana Parisi U of London Keith Robinson U of Arkansas at Little Rock Isabelle Stengers Free U of Brussels James Williams U of Dundee The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser,2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story Reading Vampire Gothic Through Blood Aspasia Stephanou,2014-07-17 Reading Vampire Gothic Through Blood examines the manifestations of blood and vampires in various texts and contexts It seeks to connect through blood fictional to real life vampires to trace similarities differences and discontinuities These movements will be seen to parallel changing notions about embodiment and identity in culture

Poiesis and Enchantment in Topological Matter Xin Wei Sha,2013-12-06 A groundbreaking conception of interactive media inspired by continuity field and process with fresh implications for art computer science and philosophy of technology In this challenging but exhilarating work Sha Xin Wei argues for an approach to materiality inspired by continuous mathematics and process philosophy Investigating the implications of such an approach to media and matter in the concrete setting of installation or event based art and technology Sha maps a genealogy of topological media that is of an articulation of continuous matter that relinquishes a priori objects subjects and egos and yet constitutes value and novelty Doing so he explores the ethico aesthetic consequences of topologically creating performative events and computational media Sha s interdisciplinary investigation is informed by thinkers ranging from Heraclitus to Alfred North Whitehead to Gilbert Simondon to Alain Badiou to Donna Haraway to Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Sha traces the critical turn from representation to performance citing a series of installation events envisioned and built over the past decade His analysis offers a fresh way to conceive and articulate interactive materials of new media one inspired by continuity field and philosophy of process Sha explores the implications of this for philosophy and social studies of technology and science relevant to the creation of research and art Weaving together philosophy aesthetics critical theory mathematics and media studies he shows how thinking about the world in terms of continuity and process can be informed by computational technologies and what such thinking implies for emerging art and technology

Deleuzian Intersections Casper Bruun Jensen, Kjetil Rødje, 2010 Science and technology studies cultural anthropology and cultural studies deal with the complex relations between material symbolic technical and political practices In a Deleuzian approach these relations are seen as produced in heterogeneous assemblages moving across distinctions such as the human and non human or the material and ideal This volume outlines a Deleuzian approach to analyzing science culture and politics

Butler on Whitehead Roland Faber, Michael Halewood, Deena Lin, 2012-03-22 This volume is based on the first set of formal conversations which brings together the dynamic philosophies of two eminent thinkers Judith Butler and Alfred North Whitehead Each has drawn from a wide palette of disciplines to develop distinctive theories of becoming of syntactical violence and creative opportunities of limitation In bringing together internationally renowned interpreters of Butler and Whitehead from a variety of fields and disciplines philosophy rhetoric gender and queer studies religion literary and political theory the editors hope to set a standard for the relevance of interdisciplinary philosophical discourse today This volume offers a unique contribution to and for the humanities in the struggles of politics economy ecology and the arts by reaching beyond their closed circles toward understandings that may serve as the basis for the activation of humanity today Considered together Butler and Whitehead delineate a whole new cadre of approaches to long standing problems as well as never before asked questions in the humanities

Spiritual Being and Becoming Eric J Kyle, 2017-05-25 As many as 100 billion neurons make up the human nervous system a system that is incredibly complex and a fundamental part of what makes us who we are But there is far more to human beings than biology Many academic disciplines study the human condition and there are many schools of thought within that study We must also appreciate that the study of human nature did not begin in contemporary times History is full of texts that offer detailed explorations of the human condition However no consensus has yet emerged Consensus or not those working towards religious and spiritual formation pursue the transformation of their communities This book offers a fuller understanding of some of the common views of human nature and also insights into how we might utilise this knowledge in our ministries ministries that strive towards the spiritual being and becoming of our world      The Pursuit of Myth in the Poetry of Frank O'Hara, Ted Berrigan and John Forbes Duncan Hose,2022-04-04 The Pursuit of Myth in the Poetry of Frank O Hara Ted Berrigan and John Forbes traces a tradition of revolutionary self mythologising in the lives and works of Frank O Hara Ted Berrigan and John Forbes as a significant trefoil in twentieth century English language poetry All three had untimely deaths excited a collective homage and developed cult followings that reverberate today This book tracks the transmission of the poem as charm the poet as charmer and the reinstitution of troubadour erotics as a kind of social poetics Starting with Orpheus the book refreshes the myth of the poet as mythmaker examining how myths of self and nation are regenerated for the twenty first century and how persons as myths are made in community through coteries of artists and beyond Duncan Bruce Hose s critical vocabulary with its nucleus of mythos searches the edges of phenomenal enquiry closing in on the work of glamour aura charm possession phantasm the daemonic and the logic of haunting in the continuing being of these three poets as charismatic animals      Religions in the Making John B. Cobb,2012-11-06 Whitehead had a place for God in his comprehensive cosmological vision and his theism has long attracted interest from some Christian theologians But Whitehead s ideas have much wider use Some Buddhists have found help in articulating their nontheistic vision and relating it to the current world of thought and action In this book religious writers in seven different traditions articulate how they can benefit from Whitehead s work So this volume demonstrates that various features of his thought can contribute to many communities According to his followers Whitehead shows that the deepest convictions and commitments of the major religious communities can be complementary rather than in conflict Readers of this book will see how that plays out in some detail A Whiteheadian Hindu can recognize the truth in a Whiteheadian Judaism and both can appreciate the insights of Chinese Whiteheadians committed to their classical thinking Perhaps a new day in interreligious understanding has come      Lived Mission in 21st Century Britain Benjamin Aldous,2024-10-30 Nearly 30 years after South African missiologist David Bosch explored what he called elements of an emerging ecumenical missionary paradigm Lived Mission in 21st Century Britain propose that there is still work to be done ecumenically for missiology to inhabit rightfully its role as critical friend crosser of boundaries advocate for justice and intellectual ankle biter Bringing together a unique array of contributors the book considers what mission as practice looks like both through the eyes of those who are well established as theologians and reflective practitioners and those who are working on the ground and have written little on their daily lived experience Chapter authors include Jan Nowotnik Graham Adams Shemil Mathew Timothy Boniface Carroll Bisi Adenekan Elizabeth Joy Heather Major Tom Hackett James Woodward Raj Bhara Patta Paul Weller Niall Cooper Lisa Adjei Shermara Fletcher and Anupama Ranawana      Social Theory and Asian Dialogues Ananta Kumar Giri,2018-03-30 Critically exploring the presuppositions of contemporary social theory this collection argues for a trans civilizational dialogue and a deepening of the universe of intellectual discourse in order to transform sociology into a truly planetary conversation on the human condition Focusing on perspectives from Asia notably East Asia and India it interrogates presuppositions in contemporary critical social theory about man culture and society and considers central themes such as knowledge and power knowledge and liberation The diverse contributions tackle key questions such the globalization of social theory identity and society in east asia as well as issues such as biopolitics social welfare and eurocentrism They also examine dialogues along multiple trajectories between social theorists from the Euro American world and from the Asian universe such as between Kant and Gandhi Habermas and Sri Aurobindo the Bildung tradition in Europe and the Confucian traditions Arguing for a global comparative engagement and cross cultural dialogue this is a key read for all those interested in the future of social theory in the wake of globalization and the rise of the global south Post-Liberalism Fred

Dallmayr,2019-04-11 Liberal democracy is the dominant political ideology in the West today Taken at face value it suggests an equivalency between its two central components liberalism and democracy but as Fred Dallmayr argues here the two operate in very different registers The two frequently conflict endangering our public life This is evident in the rise of self centered neo liberalism as well as autocratic movements in our world today More specifically the conflict within liberal democracy is between the pursuit of individual or corporate interest on the one hand and a people increasingly fractured by economic and cultural clashes on the other Dallmayr asks whether there is still room for genuine privacy and authentic democracy when all public goods from schools to parks police and armies have been made the target of privatization In this book Dallmayr sets out to rescue democracy as a shared public and post liberal regime Nonetheless post liberalism does not involve the denial of human freedom nor does it suggest the endorsement of illiberal collectivism or nationalism Drawing on a wide range of contemporary political religious and secular thought Dallmayr charts a possible path to a liberal socialism that is devoid of egalitarian imperatives and a private sphere free from acquisitiveness The Dialogic Evangelical Theology of Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen Peter Goodwin Heltzel,Patrick Oden,Amos Yong,2022-02-21 In this book established scholars from different religions regions and disciplines continue the dialogue that Veli Matti Kärkkäinen began in his A Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World series and respond to his work in light of their diverse expertise and context Each of the three parts focuses on a key area of Kärkkäinen's engaging work 1 highlighting how his method shaped each volume 2 highlighting his commitment to global perspectives and 3 highlighting his interreligious and interdisciplinary dialogue partners Together these essays seek to deepen and extend the impact of Kärkkäinen's work taking it seriously as a substantive model for contemporary systematic theology in listening and engaging with this world Contingency of Necessity Tyler Tritten,2018-11-30 Rethinks cinematic journeys through history globalisation form and genre
