Procurement Of Health Sector Goods:

Procurement of Health Sector Goods, 2001-01-01 These Standard Bidding Documents SBD and its companion Technical Note TN have been prepared by the World Bank for use by borrowers and their implementing agencies in the procurement of pharmaceuticals vaccines and condoms through international competitive bidding ICB For the purpose of these documents pharmaceuticals also include nutritional supplements and oral and injectable hormonal forms of contraception The procedures and practices presented in these SBD have been developed through broad international experience and are mandatory for use in projects that are financed in whole or in part by the World Bank in accordance with the provisions of the latest edition of Guidelines Procurement under IBRD Loans and IDA Credits The purpose of the TN is to provide background information to the Bank's project staff and borrowers about the complex issues in the procurement of health sector goods and to help them make well informed decisions in each special situation Procurement of Health Sector Goods Wereldbank, 2000 The European Union and Health Services Reinhard Busse, Matthias Wismar, Philip C. Berman, 2002 While most Member States Governments have assumed that they have full responsibility and control over their own health services it is becoming increasingly apparent that the Single European Market is having a substantial impact on health services Recent rulings by the European Court of Justice ECJ have in particular established the freedom of citizens to choose health care goods and services across borders To examine the actual relationship between the SEM and health services this book identifies SEM regulations and directives as well as ECJ decisions which explicitly refer to health services and which therefore have a potential impact on the purchasing supply and delivery of health services evaluates the impact of SEM regulations and ECJ decisions on the purchasing supply and delivery of health services identifies outcomes including both intended and unintended effects of the SEM on Member States health services and develops future scenarios exploring key issues identified in the earlier analysis and evaluation Procurement of Health Sector Goods, 2000 Corruption and Governance in Africa Kempe Ronald Hope, Sr., 2017-01-25 This volume analyzes the corruption phenomenon in Africa and how to combat it from a governance perspective with illustrated case studies from three of the most corrupt of those nations covering respectively the Southern Africa region Swaziland the Eastern Africa region Kenya and the Western Africa region Nigeria Drawing on the available data research literature and field practice experience the nature and extent of corruption are identified the factors influencing the causes and determining the consequences of corruption are delineated measures that have been put in place to control corruption are outlined and discussed and new policy solutions are proposed and advocated to more effectively control the corruption menace in Africa Promoting Access to Medical Technologies and Innovation - Intersections between Public Health, Intellectual Property and Trade. World Intellectual Property Organization, World Health Organisation (WHO), World Trade Organisation (WTO), 2020-07-28 This study seeks to reinforce the understanding of the interplay between the distinct policy domains of health trade and intellectual property and of how they affect medical innovation and access to medical technologies The second edition comprehensively reviews new developments in key areas since the initial launch of the study in 2013 The Law and Economics of Framework Agreements Gian Luigi Albano, Caroline Nicholas, 2016-04-28 Framework agreements have arisen in response to the well documented and high costs of public procurement procedures The agreements have significant potential to improve procedural efficiency in public procurement but are complex to operate Inadequate preparation and implementation can also frustrate their potential both to tackle waste abuse and corruption and to enhance value for money In this enlightening book Gian Luigi Albano and Caroline Nicholas look at the key decisions required for designing and using framework agreements and address both legal and economic issues to give the reader a clear understanding of the planning variables and flexibility needed for efficient implementation This book will be of interest to policy makers lawyers and public procurement practitioners who want to deepen their understanding of the legal and economic issues surrounding framework agreements
