Progressive Odyssey Towards A Democratic South Africa:

Progressive Odyssey Ray Swart, 1991 Slabbert Albert Grundlingh, 2021-01-25 Frederik van Zyl Slabbert was a man on a mission whether as an academic an opposition politician a democratic facilitator or a businessman Perhaps this was a product of his restless probing intellect or his early ambition to become a dominee in the Dutch Reformed Church When he famously led a delegation of leading Afrikaners to Dakar in 1987 to meet the exiled ANC many saw it as a breakthrough while others felt he had been taken in And yet his reputation for honesty integrity wit and courage still towers above many of his contemporaries Slabbert was always different As an academic turned politician the charismatic Slabbert brought unusual intellectual rigour to Parliament transforming the upstart Progressive Federal Party into a force that challenged the National Party government But disillusioned by the paralysis of formal white politics and by the growing polarisation of South African society he resigned in 1986 to explore democratic alternatives to the impasse into which the country had been led under apartheid Largely side lined during the democratic transition he continued to pursue a broad range of initiatives aimed at building democracy empowering black South Africans and transforming the economy Albert Grundlingh's penetrating biographical study offers sharp insights into the thinking and motivation of this most unlikely politician Concise but wide ranging Slabbert Man on a Mission provides new perspectives on a figure who even today remains something of an enigma

Shadow of Liberation Vishnu Padayachee,Robert Van Niekerk,2019-10-01 Shadow of Liberation explores the intricate twists turns contestations and compromises of ANC economic and social policymaking with a focus on the transition era of the 1990 s and the early years of democracy With the damning revelations by the Zondo Commission of Inquiry into State Capture on the massive corruption of the South African body politic the timing of this book could not be more relevant South Africans need to confront the economic and social policy choices that the liberation movement made and to see how these decisions may have facilitated the conditions for corruption to emerge and flourish Answers are needed Padayachee and van Niekerk focus their attention on the primary question of how and why the ANC given its historical anti inequality re distributive stance come in the 1990s to such a dramatic turn around and move towards an essentially market dominated approach Were they pushed or did they go willingly What role if any did Western governments and international financial institutions play And what of the role of the late apartheid state and South African business Did leaders and comrades sell out the ANC s emancipatory policy vision Shadow of Liberation tries to provide answers to these questions drawing on the best available primary archival evidence as well as extensive interviews with key protagonists across the political non government and business spectrum The authors argue that the ANC s emancipatory policy agenda was broadly to establish a social democratic welfare state upholding rights of social citizenship However its economic policy framework to realise this emancipatory mission was either non existent or egregiously misguided
