Rainbow Nation Without Borders Alberto Ruz Buenfil, 1991 Rainbow Gatherings, 2010 Butterfly Bill's personal narrative of Rainbow Gatherings from 1987 to 2000 People of the Rainbow Michael I. Niman, 1997 Since 1972 the Rainbow Family of Living Light a loosely organized and anarchistic nomadic community has been holding large gatherings in remote forests to pray for world peace and create a model of a functioning utopian society Michael I Niman's People of the Rainbow originally published in 1997 was the first comprehensive study of this countercultural group and its eclectic philosophy of environmentalism feminism peace activism group sharing libertarianism and consensus government It is a book yet to be superseded This second edition of Niman's compelling and insightful work brings the Rainbow story up to date with a new introduction and two extensive new epilogues While the big annual Rainbow Gatherings have drawn fewer numbers in recent years Niman notes the Rainbow ethos has in many ways migrated to the mainstream as Rainbow notions about alternative medicine and environmental sustainability for example have gathered wider acceptance and influenced the national dialogue Meanwhile Rainbow movements in other regions from Eastern Europe and the Middle East to Asia and Australia are thriving In addition to addressing changes within the Rainbow Family and its complex relationship to Babylon what Rainbows call mainstream culture the book's new material explores the growing harassment Rainbows now face from U S law enforcement agencies especially those associated with the National Forest Service As Niman contends this particular saga of a U S bureaucracy at war with its own citizens is a subplot in the larger and disturbing story of how the relationship between Americans and their government has changed during the first decade of the twenty first century In its nuanced portrait of an intriguing subculture its successes and its limitations People of the Rainbow remains a significant contribution to the study of utopian communities in the United States and their ongoing legacy Michael I Niman is a professor of journalism and media studies in the Communication Department at Buffalo State College in New York

Legend of the Rainbow Warriors Steven McFadden, 2005 Legend of the Rainbow Warriors is a journalist's account of one of the core myths of America and an electrifying exploration of how that myth is playing out in real time as we approach the crucial year of 2012 One dominant myth is formed by advertising images of vast luxurious wealth the myth of materialism Another myth is conjured in the bloody sorrowful images that pervade movies music and computer games the myth that the world is hate filled and chaotic beyond redemption The Legend of the Rainbow Warriors offers a spiritual alternative of hope and real possibility based upon respect freedom and responsibility As drawn from dozens of historical accounts the Legend of the Rainbow Warriors relates that when the Earth becomes desperately sick people of all colors and faiths will unite and rise to face the overwhelming challenges with insight honesty caring sharing and respect Veteran writer Steven McFadden weaves the myths and the headlines together seamlessly in a rich work of literary journalism that is adroitly crafted eye opening and soul inspiring Asian Perceptions of Nature Ole Bruun, Arne Kalland, 2014-02-25 This highly acclaimed bold and refreshing collection of essays takes a critical look at Asians perception of their natural environments as well as at Western views of Asia in this respect The Living Theatre John Tytell, 1995 The story of The Living Theatre is also the story of the emergence of a New York avant garde in the 1950s and the resulting counterculture of the 1960s The company was a kind of theatrical tribe creating and staging plays collectively living communally and cultivating an atmosphere of sexual openness and adventure And what a cast of characters passes through these pages Tennessee Williams Frank O'Hara Anaïs Nin James Agee Allen Ginsberg and the Beats Jackson Pollock and the Abstract Expressionists Dorothy Day John Ashbery Peggy Guggenheim Merce Cunningham John Cage Alan Hovhaness and Maya Deren among many others Tytell has captured the mood and the artistic and political challenges of one of the most dynamic eras in American cultural history and The Living Theatre should be read by everyone who shares a passion for the arts and knows the sacrifices that passion at times demands Herbert Marcuse Malcolm Miles, 2011-12-05 When capitalism is clearly catastrophically out of control and its excesses cannot be sustained socially or ecologically the ideas of Herbert Marcuse become as relevant as they were in the 1960s This is the first English introduction to Marcuse to be published for decades and deals specifically with his aesthetic theories and their relation to a critical theory of society Although Marcuse is best known as a critic of consumer society epitomised in the classic One Dimensional Man Malcolm Miles provides an insight into how Marcuse's aesthetic theories evolved within his broader attitudes from his anxiety at the rise of fascism in the 1930s through heady optimism of the 1960s to acceptance in the 1970s that radical art becomes an invaluable progressive force when political change has become deadlocked Marcuse's aesthetics of liberation in which art assumes a primary role in interrupting the operation of capitalism made him a key figure for the student movement in the 1960s As diverse forms of resistance rise once more a new generation of students scholars and activists will find Marcuse's radical theory essential to their struggle Last Cry Robert Ghost Wolf, 2003 Last cry remains a time tested revelation about Prophecy and the coming of the Awakening Dr Ghost Wolf has the unique ability of bridging many realities Here he brings to light not only an indepth look at the teachings of the indigenous masters but he also gives us profound insights into his own remarkable gifts of prophecy as a Shaman for the Metis People and leaves us looking ahead into the 21st Century with new eyes Welcome to the Awakening Art, Space and the City Malcolm Miles,1997 This book sees public art outside the normal confines of art criticism and place it within broader contexts of public space and gender Using different perspectives it explores both the aesthetic and political aspects of the medium Urban Avant-Gardes Malcolm Miles,2004-07-31 Can art or architecture change the world Is it possible to think of a new cultural avant garde today This book contributes to the debate by looking back to past avant gardes and by profiling contemporary cases of radical cultural practices Books Without Borders, Volume 1 Robert Fraser,Mary Hammond,2008-07-31 Where does the book belong Does it enshrine the soul of a nation or is it a means by which nations talk to one another sharing ideas technologies texts This book the first in a two volume set of original essays responds to these questions with archive based case studies of print culture in a number of countries around the world Media in Postapartheid South Africa Sean Jacobs,2019-03-11 A study of mass media in twenty first century South Africa offering revelations about the nature of citizenship and public engagement in our media saturated age Daniel R Magaziner author of The Law and the Prophets Black Consciousness in South Africa 1968 1977 In Media in Postapartheid South Africa Sean Jacobs turns to media politics and the consumption of media as a way to understand recent political developments in South Africa and their relations with the African continent and the world Jacobs looks at how mass media define the physical and human geography of the society and what it means for comprehending changing notions of citizenship in postapartheid South Africa Jacobs claims that the media have unprecedented control over the distribution of public goods rights claims and South Africa s integration into the global political economy in ways that were impossible under the state controlled media that dominated the apartheid years Jacobs takes a probing look at television commercials and the representation of South Africans reality television shows and South African continental expansion soap operas and postapartheid identity politics and the internet as a space for reassertions and reconfigurations of identity As South Africa becomes more integrated into the global economy Jacobs argues that local media have more weight in shaping how consumers view these products in unexpected and consequential ways Urban Utopias Malcolm Miles,2007-11-21 Utopia tends to generate a bad press regarded as impracticable perhaps nostalgic or contradictory when visions of a perfect world cannot accommodate the change that is necessary to a free and self organizing society But people from diverse backgrounds are currently building a new society within the old balancing literal and metaphorical utopianism and demonstrating plural possibilities for alternative futures and types of settlement Thousands of such places exist around the world including intentional communities eco villages permaculture plots religious and secular retreats co housing projects self build schemes projects for low impact housing and activist squats in urban and rural sites This experience suggests however that when planning and design are not integral to alternative social formations the modern dream to engineer a new society cannot be realized The book is structured in four parts In part one literary and theoretical utopias from the early modern period to the nineteenth century are reconsidered Part two investigates twentieth century urban utopianism and contemporary alternative settlements focusing on social and environmental issues activism and eco village living Part three looks to wider horizons in recent practices in the non affluent world and Part four reviews a range of cases from the author s visits to specific sites This is followed by a short conclusion in which a discussion of key issues is resumed This book brings together insights from literary theoretical and practical utopias drawing out the characteristics of groups and places that are part of a new society It links today s utopian experiments to historical and literary utopias and to theoretical problems in utopian thought
