People Of Sparks:

The People of Sparks Jeanne DuPrau, 2005-04-12 Just when the future looks bright for the people of Ember a new darkness lurks This highly acclaimed adventure series is a modern day classic with over 4 MILLION copies sold Lina and Doon have led the citizens of Ember to an exciting new world They've been given safe haven in a small village called Sparks a place filled with color and life But they're not out of danger yet Although Sparks seems like the answer the long suffering Emberites have been hoping for tempers soon escalate The villagers have never had to share their world before and it only takes a tiny spark to ignite a battle between the two struggling groups Lina and Doon will have to work together to avoid a disaster not only for their people but also for the people of Sparks Praise for the City of Ember books Nominated to 28 State Award Lists An American Library Association Notable Children's Book A New York Public Library 100 Titles for Reading and Sharing Selection A Kirkus Reviews Editors Choice A Child Magazine Best Children's Book A Mark Twain Award Winner A William Allen White Children's Book Award Winner A realistic post apocalyptic world DuPrau's book leaves Doon and Lina on the verge of undiscovered country and readers wanting more USA Today An electric debut Publishers Weekly Starred While Ember is colorless and dark the book itself is rich with description VOYA Starred Justice in Young Adult Speculative Fiction Marek C. Oziewicz, 2015-04-17 This book is the first to offer a justice focused cognitive reading of modern YA speculative fiction in its narrative and filmic forms It links the expansion of YA speculative fiction in the 20th century with the emergence of human and civil rights movements with the communitarian revolution in conceptualizations of justice and with spectacular advances in cognitive sciences as applied to the examination of narrative fiction Oziewicz argues that complex ideas such as justice are processed by the human mind as cognitive scripts that scripts when narrated take the form of multiply indexable stories and that YA speculative fiction is currently the largest conceptual testing ground in the forging of justice consciousness for the 21st century world Drawing on recent research in the cognitive and evolutionary sciences Oziewicz explains how poetic retributive restorative environmental social and global types of justice have been represented in narrative fiction from 19th century folk and fairy tales through 21st century fantasy dystopia and science fiction Suggesting that the appeal of these and other nonmimetic genres is largely predicated on the dream of justice Oziewicz theorizes new justice scripts as conceptual tools essential to help humanity survive the qualitative leap toward an environmentally conscious culturally diversified global world This book is an important contribution to studies of children's and YA speculative fiction adding a new perspective to discussions about the educational as well as social potential of nonmimetic genres It demonstrates that the justice imperative is very much alive in YA speculative fiction creating new visions of justice relevant to contemporary challenges The City of Ember Jeanne DuPrau, 2016 Lina and Doon helped the citizens of Ember escape the city that threatened to destroy them They've been given safe haven in a small village called Sparks a place filled with color and life Although Sparks seems like the answer the long suffering Emberites have been hoping for tempers soon escalate The villagers have never had to share their world before and it only takes a tiny spark to ignite a battle between the two struggling groups Lina and Doon will have to work together to avoid a disaster not only for their people but also for the people of Sparks Teach for Attention! Ezra Werb,2020-06-30 A lively read from a working teacher offers practical engagement strategies for students with attention challenges If learning is a motor student engagement is the key But when teaching students with ADHD and other attention challenges sometimes even the most finely tuned classroom can sputter Teach for Attention is your tool belt of teaching strategies for students with ADHD low self confidence distraction and other attention challenges Dozens of true classroom stories show the strategies in action It s all about making simple fixes so you can reach every student without changing your approach or revamping your curriculum Carry these ideas with you like tools on a belt the right one will be there when you need it Hearings United States.

Congress Senate,1952 People Of Sparks Jeanne Duprau, Literature for Young Adults Joan L.

Knickerbocker,2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they re reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with The book s discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading
