People Of Nowhere The Palestinian Vision Of Home:

The People of Nowhere Danny Rubinstein, 1993 Palestinian Refugees Naseer Aruri, 2001-07-20 With contributions from a range of international experts including Edward W Said Noam Chomsky Ilan Pappé Alain Gresh and Norman Finkelstein this collection examines the Palestinians right of return Chapters cover the historical roots of the Palestinian refugee question the rights of the refugees under international law the special case of Lebanon Israeli perceptions of the refugee question the practical feasibility of the return the role of the United States and the European Union and the Refugee Question the value of the refugee property the principles of compensation and a programme for an Independent Rights Campaign

Palestinians Born in Exile Juliane Hammer, 2009-08-17 In the decade following the 1993 Oslo Peace Accords some 100 000 diasporic Palestinians returned to the West Bank and Gaza Among them were children and young adults who were born in exile and whose sense of Palestinian identity was shaped not by lived experience but rather through the transmission and re creation of memories images and history As a result returning to the homeland that had never actually been their home presented challenges and disappointments for these young Palestinians who found their lifeways and values sometimes at odds with those of their new neighbors in the West Bank and Gaza This original ethnography records the experiences of Palestinians born in exile who have emigrated to the Palestinian homeland Juliane Hammer interviews young adults between the ages of 16 and 35 to learn how their Palestinian identity has been affected by living in various Arab countries or the United States and then moving to the West Bank and Gaza Their responses underscore how much the experience of living outside of Palestine has become integral to the Palestinian national character even as Palestinians maintain an overwhelming sense of belonging to one another as a people

Palestinian Refugees Robert Bowker, 2003 Encompassing history politics and political culture Bowker grapples with fundamental issues of Palestinian identity in the context of the peace process

Tourism and Memories of Home Sabine Marschall, 2017-02-03 This book investigates home and homeland as destinations of touristic journeys and adds to recent scholarly interest in the intersection between tourism and migration It covers the temporary visits and journeys in search of home and homelands by migrants displaced people exiles and diasporic communities in a wide range of different geographical and historical contexts Personal and collective forms of memory are shown to play a key role in the motivation for and experience of such journeys The volume contributes to the investigation of the tourism memory nexus as it conceptualizes memory as underpinning touristic mobility experience and performativity Based on ethnographic case studies and other types of qualitative empirical research the chapters of this book foreground individual touristic experiences emotions memories perceptions the search for identity and a sense of belonging The book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of tourism heritage anthropology identity studies memory studies and migration diaspora studies

Palestinian Collective Memory and National Identity M. Litvak, 2009-05-25 This book analyzes the evolution and cultivation of modern Palestinian collective memory and its role in shaping Palestinian national identity from its inception in the 1920s to the 2006 Palestinian elections The Palestinian Refugees J. Ginat, Edward Joseph Perkins, 2001 As violence escalates in the Middle East a peace agreement between Israel and Palestine seems more elusive than ever Yet one thing remains clear without constructive dialogue such an agreement cannot occur This timely volume presents just such a dialogue It brings together opinions perspectives and research focused on one of the region s most complex and volatile problems the Palestinian refugee situation Based on a 1999 conference at the University of Oklahoma International Program Center Palestinian Refugees combines contributions from Israelis Palestinians Jordanians Egyptians Americans and Europeans In addition to focusing on the Palestinian refugees the essays present various proposals for solving the Palestinian problem Organized in two parts the volume presents both scholarly essays and position papers The scholarly essays place current issues in historical context and explore the Palestinian belief in the right of return and questions of appropriate compensation The position papers focus on policy and offer a variety of perspectives Concluding the volume is a special essay on public polls that gauge how Palestinians and Israelis view the circumstances of Palestinian refugees and what they feel about possible solutions The Palestinian Diaspora Helena Lindholm Schulz, 2005-07-27 From the refugee camps of the Lebanon to the relative prosperity of life in the USA the Palestinian diaspora has been dispersed across the world In this pioneering study Helena Lindholm Schulz examines the ways in which Palestinian identity has been formed in the diaspora through constant longing for a homeland lost In so doing the author advances the debate on the relationship between diaspora and the creation of national identity as well as on nationalist politics tied to a particular territory But The Palestinian Diaspora also sheds light on the possibilities opened up by a transnational existence the possibility of new less territorialized identities even in a diaspora as bound to the idea of an idealized homeland as the Palestinian Members of the diaspora form new lives in new settings and the idea of homeland becomes one important but not the only source of identity Ultimately though Schulz argues the strong attachment to Palestine makes the diaspora crucial in any understandings of how to formulate a viable strategy for peace between Israelis and Palestinians The Palestinian Uprising F. Robert Hunter, 1993-01-01 The best sustained analysis of the Intifada Charles Smith author of Palestine and the Arab Israeli Conflict The Time beneath the Concrete Nasser Abourahme, 2025-01-24 In The Time beneath the Concrete Nasser Abourahme argues that settler colonialism is always as much an attempt to conquer time as it is to conquer land Taking as his primary object Palestinian refugee camps created in the fallout of the eliminatory violence of Israel s founding Abourahme shows how these camps become the primary place where settler colonial attempts to dominate space and time encounter Indigenous refusal Seen from the camps Israel becomes a settler colonial project defined by its inability to move past the past a project stuck at its foundational moment of conquest At the same time the Palestinian insistence on return is a refusal to abide by the closure of the past into settler futurity Palestinian struggle does not just happen in the open time of dispossession it happens over this time That struggle

Abourahme demonstrates is a form of anticolonial refusal that draws its power not from any decisive finality but precisely from irresolution and keeping time open Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award Palestinian Village Histories Rochelle Davis, 2011 This book chronicles the local histories written by modern Palestinians about their villages that were destroyed in the 1948 war The Israelis Donna Rosenthal, 2003 Rosenthal explores a people who while consciously living in a war zone contribute to one of the most vibrant civic societies anywhere It is the story of ordinary people living in an extraordinary place Coming Home? Lynellyn D. Long, Ellen Oxfeld, 2017-06-16 Few things weigh on the human spirit more heavily than a sense of place the lands we live in and return to have a profound ability to shape our notions of home and homeland not to mention our own identities The pull of the familiar and the desire to begin anew are conflicting impulses for the nearly 180 million people who live outside their countries of origin often with the expectation of returning home Of 30 million people who immigrated to the United States alone between 1900 and 1980 10 million are believed to have returned to their homelands While migration flows occur in both directions surprisingly few studies of transnationalism global migration or diaspora address return experiences Undertaking a comparative analysis of how coming home affects individuals and their communities in a myriad cultural and geographic settings the contributors to this volume seek to understand the unique return migration experiences of refugees migrants and various others as they confront the social pressures and a sense of displacement that accompany their journeys The returns depicted in Coming Home range from temporary visits to permanent repatriation from voluntary to coerced movements and from those occurring after a few years of exile to those after several decades away The geographic sites include the Balkans Barbados China Eritrea Ethiopia Germany Nicaragua the Philippines Rwanda and Vietnam Several studies portray the experiences of returning refugees who earlier fled war and violence while others focus on economic or labor migrants As the essays show connections between permanent returnees and home communities are contentious and complex On the one hand issues of land title property rights political orientation and religious and cultural beliefs and practices create grounds for clashes between returnees and their home communities but on the other returnees bring with them a unique ability to transform local practices and provide new resources The Object of Memory Susan Slyomovics, 1998-06 Well researched and written with passion and elegance International Journal of Middle East Studies Sacred Landscape Meron Benvenisti, 2000 The resulting encounters between two peoples who claim the same land have raised great moral and political dilemmas which Benvenisti presents with candor and impartiality BOOK JACKET Herzl's Nightmare Peter Rodgers, 2009-04-27 Theodor Herzl's dream of a national homeland for the Jewish people was realized when Israel declared its independence in 1948 Yet it was made possible through the deaths of millions of European Jews and at the expense of Palestinian society a people who would never forget what they saw as a grave injustice Herzl's dream would prove illusory This important new study from the former Australian ambassador to Israel shows how little the dynamics of the conflict have actually changed how eerily reminiscent today's antagonisms and falsehoods are of yesteryear s and how much today s self righteous intransigence on both sides owes to what went before

Guarding the Secrets Ellen Harris,2018-04-17 Guarding the Secrets recounts the terror stricken life and murder of sixteen year old Tina Isa who was condemned by her other family members for becoming Americanized before her father an accused Palestinian terrorist murdered her in November 1989 The killing was recorded by accident due to the FBI having bugged the house in an attempt to prove the father s ties to terrorism The events leading up to the murder are expertly told by author Ellen Harris including Tina s older sisters urging their father to kill their younger sister Everywhere a Guest, Nowhere at Home Kim Chernin,2009 The title of this book is a phrase often used to describe the fate of the Jewish people in the world and invokes one of the central arguments for the creation of the state of Israel In this thoughtful collection of essays Kim Chernin suggests that the Zionist struggle has left the Palestinian people in a similar predicament now they too are merely guests in their former homeland Confronting her own uncritical support of Israel Chernin tries to reconcile her desire for a Jewish homeland with the reality of the violence carried out in order to secure it Following an in depth examination of the perspectives of both Jews and Palestinians Chernin writes eloquently of the process by which she gradually learned to hear once ignored Palestinian voices By combining her knowledge of Jewish history with her insights as a psychotherapist Chernin discovers the psychological mechanisms that have kept her and other Jews from fully comprehending the suffering of both parties in this seemingly endless conflict She argues persuasively that by overcoming the mental blocks that prevent so many from seeing the Palestinian point of view Jews can learn to feel empathy for them without diminishing their love and support for Israel Narrative and the Politics of Identity Phillip L. Hammack,2010-12-28 Since the late nineteenth century Jews and Arabs have been locked in an intractable battle for national recognition in a land of tremendous historical and geopolitical significance While historians and political scientists have long analyzed the dynamics of this bitter conflict rarely has an archeology of the mind of those who reside within the matrix of conflict been attempted This book not only offers a psychological analysis of the consequences of conflict for the psyche it develops an innovative compelling and cross disciplinary argument about the mutual constitution of culture and mind through the process of life story construction But the book pushes boundaries further through an analysis of two peace education programs designed to fundamentally alter the nature of young Israeli and Palestinian life stories Hammack argues that these popular interventions rooted in the idea of prejudice reduction through contact and the cultivation of cosmopolitan identities are fundamentally flawed due to their refusal to deal with the actual political reality of young Israeli and Palestinian lives and their attempt to construct an alternative narrative of great hope but little resonance for Israelis and Palestinians Grounded in over a century of literature that spans the social sciences Hammack s analysis of young Israeli and Palestinian lives captures the complex dynamic relationship among politics history and identity and offers a provocative and audacious proposal for psychology and peace education From Slumber to Awakening Mishael Caspi,Jerome David Weltsch, 1998 From Slumber to Awakening argues that when investigating the cultural and historical predicament of segments of any society a close examination of the literal expression of the people is necessary to understand their human condition better. To accomplish this the individual psyches of authors and poets must be delved into and in this case was accessed through personal interviews. This study approaches the unique social position of the Arab Israelis through an exploration of culture and history. The examination of the literature itself begins with Israeli literature from the broad perspectives of both the prose and poetry forms and then moving into the literature and literati themselves one by one exploring the lives of the writers while superimposing their human experiences with the expressions and stories of their creative works. This examination along with the interviews defines the Arab Israeli minority as a group while also comparing them to Jewish Israeli writers who are close to the Arab Israeli situation.

People Of Nowhere The Palestinian Vision Of Home: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. People Of Nowhere The Palestinian Vision Of Home : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
