Minimal Theologies Hent de Vries, 2019-12-01 Originally published in in 2004 What at this historical moment after Auschwitz still remains of the questions traditionally asked by theology What now is theology's minimal degree This magisterial study the first extended comparison of the writings of Theodor W Adorno and Emmanuel Levinas explores remnants and echoes of religious forms in these thinkers' critiques of secular reason finding in the work of both a theology in pianissimo constituted by the trace of a transcendent other The author analyzes systematizes and formalizes this idea of an other of reason In addition he frames these thinkers' innovative projects within the arguments of such intellectual heirs as Jürgen Habermas and Jacques Derrida defending their work against later accusations of performative contradiction by Habermas or empiricism by Derrida and in the process casting important new light on those later writers as well Attentive to rhetorical and rational features of Adorno's and Levinas's texts his investigations of the concepts of history subjectivity and language in their writings provide a radical interpretation of their paradoxical modes of thought and reveal remarkable and hitherto unsuspected parallels between their philosophical methods parallels that amount to a plausible way of overcoming certain impasses in contemporary philosophical thinking In Adorno this takes the form of a dialectical critique of dialectics in Levinas that of a phenomenological critique of phenomenology each of which sheds new light on ancient and modern questions of metaphysics ethics and aesthetics For the English language publication the author has extensively revised and updated the prize winning German version

Being Somewhere Ferdinand Pöhlmann, 2017-05-15 Ferdinand Pöhlmann argues that a sense of one's own basic abilities to move is a constitutive condition on the ability to perceive the world spatially This constitutive relation explains why egocentric spatial representation is to be regarded as a kind of self representation In arguing for these claims conceptual as well as empirical questions are discussed and an overview of accounts that take action as a constitutive condition on spatial representation is given The picture that emerges is linked to the phenomenological Scheler as well as to the analytic Evans tradition in the Philosophy of Mind
