Killing for Show Julian Stallabrass, 2020-10-30 See firsthand how war photography is used to sway public opinion In the autumn of 2014 the Royal Air Force released blurry video of a missile blowing up a pick up truck which may have had a weapon attached to its flatbed This was a lethal form of gesture politics to send a 9 million bomber from Cyprus to Iraq and back burning 35 000 an hour in fuel to launch a smart missile costing 100 000 to destroy a truck or rather to create a video that shows it being destroyed Some lives are ended it is impossible to tell whose so that the government can pretend that it taking effective action by creating a high budget snuff movie This is killing for show Since the Vietnam War the way we see conflict through film photographs and pixels has had a powerful impact on the political fortunes of the campaign and the way that war has been conducted In this fully illustrated and passionately argued account of war imagery Julian Stallabrass tells the story of post war conflict how it was recorded and remembered through its iconic photography The relationship between war and photograph is constantly in transition forming new perspectives provoking new challenges what is allowed to be seen Does an image have the power to change political opinion How are images used to wage war Stallabrass shows how photographs have become a vital weapon in the modern war as propaganda from close quarters fighting to the drone's electronic vision as well as a witness to the barbarity of events such as the My Lai massacre the violent suppression of insurgent Fallujah or the atrocities in Abu Ghraib Through these accounts Stallabrass maps a comprehensive theoretical re-evaluation of the relationship between war politics and visual culture Killing for Show offers 190 photographs encompassing photojournalism artists' images photographs by soldiers and amateurs and drones A comprehensive comparison of the role of photography in the Vietnam and Iraq Wars An explanation of the waning power of iconic images in collective memory An analysis of the failure of military PR and the public display of killing A focus on what can and cannot be seen photographed and published An exploration of the power and limits of amateur photography Arguments about how violent images act on democracy This full color book is an essential volume in the history of warfare and photography

The Deployment of Art Clare Carolin, 2025-03-14 This book explores the Artistic Records Committee ARC of the Imperial War Museum IWM as a bureaucratic mechanism that enabled the deployment of art as an instrument of war The ARC was established in 1972 to commission artistic records of activities involving the British Armed Forces BAF deployed in the North of Ireland as part of Operation Banner Through a close reading of artworks archival research and interviews with artists former IWM staff and a former British Army psychological operations PSYOPs expert this book shows that the ARC was implicated in the propaganda war that the British Government waged to counteract negative public perceptions of British military presence and activity in the North of Ireland after Bloody Sunday and later during Britain's 1982 campaign to recapture the Falklands Malvinas from Argentina Operation Corporate The two case studies are painter Ken Howard's ARC commissions to record Operation Banner in 1973 and 1978 and illustrator Linda Kitson's ARC commission to record the Falklands Campaign in 1982 At a time when emergent conceptual and non-object based art practices were increasingly concerned with exposure concealment and photographic evidence the book demonstrates the potential operational significance of creating pictorial records and utilising art as a tool of warfare This volume will be of interest to researchers and scholars of art history museum studies art and politics and military and intelligence studies as well as those studying the recent history of the North of Ireland and the Falklands Malvinas war
