

The Pilgrims

(sung to "Oh, Susanna")

Oh, they left their homes in England
And prepared to take a trip.
They climbed aboard the Mayflower,
And sailed upon the ship.

The year was 1620,
On a cold November day,
By the shores of Massachusetts,
They arrived in Plymouth Bay.

CHORUS:

Oh, the Pilgrims!
Seeking to be free!
They came here to America
For opportunity!

The first year was the hardest,
But their neighbors helped them out.
They met Native Americans
With Squanto as their scout.

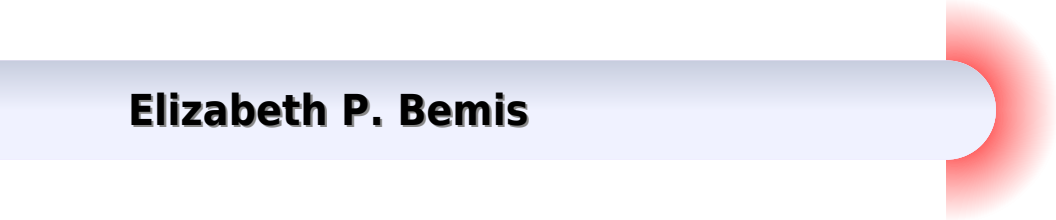

He helped the Pilgrims plant the crops
Of pumpkins, beans, and corn.
They shared a feast, and that is how
Thanksgiving Day was born!

CHORUS

Pilgrims Song Selected Poems To Mark The Poets 100th Birthday

Elizabeth P. Bemis

Pilgrims Song Selected Poems To Mark The Poets 100th Birthday:

A Pilgrim's Song Geoffrey Dearmer, Jon Stallworthy, 1993 This slim volume was published to coincide with Geoffrey Dearmer's 100th birthday on 21 March 1993 It is not a comprehensive anthology rather a representative selection of his verse drawn from his war poetry and from later works written in times of peace Geoffrey Dearmer fought at Gallipoli in 1915 where his brother was killed and then went on to experience the trench warfare of the Western Front His father Percy Dearmer was a well known Anglican clergyman and his mother a renowned illustrator and author who died of enteric fever in Serbia while serving with an ambulance unit there in 1915 Geoffrey Dearmer's many faceted career included a stint in the censorship office of the Lord Chamberlain and a long period of outstanding service with the BBC mainly as editor and contributor to Children's Hour His poetry is a deeply personal and unique chronicle of a turbulent century expressing both the horror of war and an unquenchable belief in the human spirit It is as full of humour and as sharply observant as Geoffrey Dearmer himself In an era of pragmatism and compromise these poems are a rare celebration of high ideals and the ministering beauty of the natural world This selection of Geoffrey Dearmer's verse has been made by Laurence Cottreau a poet himself and former Chairman and Life Vice President of the Poetry Society There is a foreword by Jon Stallworthy Professor of English Literature at Wolfson College Oxford

The Fierce Light Anne Powell, 2006-11-15 Contains a selection of prose and poetry from 38 contemporary British Australian and New Zealand writers who fought during the Battle of the Somme This work tells the stories of different men from different backgrounds

Life after Tragedy Michael W. Brierley, Georgia A. Byrne, 2018-01-01 Much has been written on the centenary of the First World War however no book has yet explored the tragedy of the conflict from a theological perspective This book fills that gap Taking their cue from the famous British army chaplain Geoffrey Studdert Kennedy seven central essays all by authors associated with the cathedral where Studdert Kennedy first preached to troops examine aspects of faith that featured in the war such as the notion of home poetry theological doctrine preaching social reform humanitarianism and remembrance Each essay applies its reflections to the life of faith today The essays thus represent a highly original contribution to the history of the First World War in general and the work of Studdert Kennedy in particular and they provide wider theological insight into how in the contemporary world life and tragedy God and suffering can be integrated The book will accordingly be of considerable interest to historians both of the war and of the church to communities commemorating the war and to all those who wrestle with current challenges to faith A foreword by Studdert Kennedy's grandson and an afterword by the bishop of Magdeburg in Germany render this a volume of remarkable depth and worth

The Cross and the Trenches Richard Schweitzer, 2003-05-30 Drawing on the testimony of over 500 British and American soldiers the author provides an in depth account of topics such as soldiers prayers and biblical readings as well as religious doubts
