Prophets, Priests, and Kings: A New Way to Consider Spiritual Gifts Gabe Sylvia, 2024-01-05 Toward the end of his life the Lord Jesus told the disciples the church would do the work that he had done and greater works in these last days Building on the finished work of Christ by the power and gifting of the indwelling Holy Spirit believers do these works as prophets priests and kings in what the church has called the gifts of the Holy Spirit Through study of the Old Testament saints who filled these offices Christ to whom they point and important New Testament texts Sylvia builds the paradigm for local church leaders to use to identify and deploy their church members in spiritually gifted ministry This paradigm is anchored in the Scriptures and can be used in congregations across the theological spectrum This book lays out a path for taking seriously the Lord's assertion that in these last days by the power of the Spirit and for the glory of God the church will do great things

Kings and Priests Uche Anizor, 2014-05-06 The history of modern biblical interpretation is checkered with attempts to rethink and resituate readers theologically and ethically At least two tendencies emerge in these remedial proposals both of which animate this project 1 many accounts privilege either divine action theology or human ecclesial response ethics 2 few proposals have availed themselves of the potential hermeneutical resources of a more extensive biblical theology This study offers a theological and ethical account of Christian readers of Scripture one that brings together these two apparently divergent poles through the deployment of a biblical theological motif royal priesthood The designation of the people of God as a royal priesthood conditioned and informed by the offices of king and priest carries with it themes that frame the hermeneutical situation in such a way that accounts well for the integral relation of divine agency and ecclesial response theology and ethics
